Dairy Meeting On Friday, July 7th

By J. B. SHIFFERS, County Agent

A dairy meeting will be held in Mr. Holloway's store, near Lomax postoffice, on Friday, July 7, at 8:30 p. m. All farmers with family cows as well as larger livestock producers in that section of the county are urged to be present for this meeting.

The interest in better livestock is increasing from year to year and our farmers are anxious to learn the best methods of producing milk as economically as possible.

I was asked by a farmer in that section of the county to come and discuss the livestock industry with them, which invitation I gladly accept and will be glad to hold other meetings of this nature anywhere in the county.

Board Meeting
