

SOCIETY:

Miss Elicia Caroon Is Feted at Bridge

Mrs. William Prevette and Mrs. J. H. Whicker, Jr., delightfully entertained at the Prevette home in Wilkesboro Saturday evening as a courtesy to Miss Elicia Caroon, bride-elect of the week. Sharing honors with Miss Caroon were Mrs. Walter Moss, of Arlington, Va., who was here visiting with friends, and Miss Sue Moring Clements, of Charlotte, who was spending her vacation here with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Clements.

Four tables were arranged for bridge in a colorful setting of mixed garden flowers and at the close of play the hostess served refreshments. A corsage of white roses marked Miss Caroon's place, while the tallies carried bridal designs. High and low score awards were presented to Mrs. F. O. Hubbard, Jr., and Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr. The three honor guests were remembered with gifts by Mrs. Prevette and Mrs. Whicker.

Miss Scroggs and Miss Duncan Honor Bride-Elect

Miss Lois Scroggs and Miss Anne Duncan were hostesses at a lovely tea at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogdon street Wednesday afternoon honoring Miss Elicia Caroon, who is to be married to Captain Richard B. Johnston, United States Army Air Forces, Saturday afternoon at five-thirty o'clock in the First Methodist church. A large number of guests came at five o'clock and were greeted at the door by Mrs. Ralph Duncan, aunt of Miss Duncan.

Receiving with the hostesses were Miss Caroon and her mother, Mrs. W. J. Caroon, Mrs. A. B. Johnston and Mrs. Minnie Hunt, mother and grandmother of Captain Johnston. Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain directed the guests to the room where a tea course was served by Mrs. Guy Lillard and Mrs. James Hauser, sisters of Miss Scroggs. Assisting with the serving were Misses Mary Charles Alexander, Mary Maroon, Mozelle Turner, Bettye Hill, Ruth Barnett, Wren Duncan, Mabel Sidden and Mrs. Blair Gwyn.

Following the refreshments, which were influenced by bridal suggestions, Miss Elizabeth Alexander, pianist, and Miss Jackie Frazier, vocalist, rendered a musical program. At the close of their program, Martha Gozeal Justice, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Justice, entered the room, dressed as a bride, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and presented to the bride-elect gifts from Miss Scroggs and Miss Duncan.

The spacious room of the clubhouse was beautifully decorated with the nuptial colors of green and white in which a profusion of white gladioli, white carnations, and Magnolia leaves were used. The hostesses also had a corsage for Miss Caroon.

Mrs. Jack Swofford Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Sans Souci club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Jack Swofford at her home in Finley Park Thursday evening. A dessert course preceded the game of bridge, which was played at two tables. High and second high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. S. Zimmerman and Mrs. R. V. Day.

Union W. S. C. S. In Monthly Meet

"Rural Mexico" was the theme for the program presented at the monthly meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Union Methodist church Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. P. Crysel led the devotionals, followed by talks from several members. The president, Mrs. E. W. Baker, held the chair during the business hour.

The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Union Methodist Circle In Meeting

The Evelyn Stokes Circle of Union Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. E. R. Eller with Miss Laura Pennell hostess, Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock. "Rural Mexico" was the theme presented for the program.

Miss Mozelle Turner led the devotionals. Miss Laura Pennell, Mrs. E. R. Eller, and Mrs. Richard Minton gave the program.

Mrs. J. Y. Ervin, the president, was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Eller dismissed with prayer. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Eller, served refreshments. The next circle meeting will be with Misses Mozelle and Marie Turner July 11th, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. T. J. Frazier Entertains Her Club

Mrs. T. J. Frazier was hostess to the members of the Handwork club of which she is a member at her home on Sixth street Tuesday evening. The guests enjoyed an informal hour together after which Mrs. Frazier, assisted by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Frazier, served tempting refreshments.

Business Woman's Circle In Meeting On Tuesday

The Business Woman's circle of the First Baptist church held its July meeting with Mrs. Fred Emerson at her home in Wilkesboro Tuesday evening. Prior to the meeting the members enjoyed a picnic supper on the lawn. Miss Kathrin Sanford gave the devotional and program, the theme of which was "The Islands of the Sea". Miss Marie Brewer, the chairman, was in charge of the business session, during which time fine reports were presented of the work by Miss Hallie Waugh, Mrs. S. B. Moore, and Mrs. Bryce Caudill. Seventeen were present.

Miss Caroon Honored At Tea Tuesday

To honor Miss Elicia Caroon, who is to be married this week to Captain Richard B. Johnston, United States Army Air Forces, Mrs. J. R. Hix and her two daughters, Mrs. Jack Brame and Mrs. William Marlow, were hostesses at an informal tea at the Hix home on D street Tuesday afternoon. One group of guests came at four o'clock and another group at five, and during the hours were invited into the dining room where refreshments, carrying the bridal note, were served buffet style. The dining table, spread with a white cut-work cloth, had for its centerpiece a beautiful bowl of white rosebuds sprayed with white lace vine, while elsewhere about the room were arrangements of white flowers. In living room and hall were lovely bouquets of mixed summer blossoms. The hostesses presented to the honoree some pieces in her china and crystal patterns.

Local People Attend Dinner Party At Taylorsville

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Kirkpatrick were hosts at a family dinner party at their home in Taylorsville Sunday as a courtesy to Lt. Walter Call, United States Army Air Corps. Lieut. Call, a cousin of Mrs. Kirkpatrick, was being transferred from Maxwell Field, Ala., to Westover Field, Mass. Covers were laid for the following guests: Sheriff and Mrs. C. G. Poindexter, parents of Lieut. Call, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, Mrs. R. S. Shoaf, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kenerly, from North Wilkesboro; and Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Smithy and daughter, Mrs. Kyle Hayes, from Wilkesboro.

In the afternoon the group assembled at the Rose-Kirt Springs for refreshments, later visiting the red radiance rose garden of Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick where more than a thousand roses were blooming. Each one was given a huge bouquet of roses as souvenirs of the day.

Mrs. W. W. Miller, Sr. Hostess to Society

Mrs. W. W. Miller, Sr., was hostess to the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wilkesboro Methodist church at her home in Wilkesboro Tuesday afternoon having nine present. The devotional period was led by Mrs. B. S. Call and Mrs. J. L. Garwood, after which Mrs. J. B. Henderson gave two chapters from the Bible study book, "God, and the Problem of Suffering". Mrs. C. H. Hatcher gave a reading "God Bless Our Boys". The business part of the meeting was in charge of Mrs. B. S. Call.

The hostess served refreshments during the social hour.
