Pearl White Circle Has a Hat Sale

A hat sale, sponsored by the Pearl White circle of the Wilkesboro Methodist church, proved to be a delightful social affair as well as beneficial. The affair was held at the Community House in Wilkesboro Tuesday evening and was largely attended. Following the sale of the hats, which were sold to the highest bidder, the purchasers donned their hats and joined the grand parade in which Mrs. P. E. Forester received a jar of mints for having the most comical hat. In guessing to the nearest number of mints in a jar, which was ten cents a guess, Jerry Shinn was the winner, receiving the mints as a prize. Around $56.00 was realized from the evening's entertainment and the proceeds is to be applied to the organ fund for the purchase of a Hammond organ for the church in the near future.

During the evening Mrs. R. E. Prevette and Mrs. Robert Dunn rendered a number of piano selections. For refreshments the circle served tea, sandwiches, and cookies.

North Wilkesboro Woman's Club to Meet Monday

The October meeting of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club will be held at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. W. F. Gaddy, Mrs. A. A. Cashion, and Miss Ruth Colvard as hostesses. Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, program chairman, will have as a guest speaker, Mrs. L. L. Browning, of Winston-Salem. Mrs. Browning, known to her radio audience as "Kell Browning", broadcasts in the morning at Winston-Salem and is a most interesting speaker. The club is anxious to have a large number present to hear Mrs. Browning, therefore all members are urged to attend.

By AUBREY LEE BROOKS
The University of North Carolina Press, Chapel Hill, N. C.
What a benefit it would be to our nation if every young lawyer, yes, and every young minister, would read this book.—The Methodist Christian Advocate, Chicago, Ill.

"It is one of the best and most interesting biographies I have ever read". — C. C. Wyche, United States District Judge, Columbia, S. C.

Gene Winters Given Birthday Party

Gene Winters, young son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Winters of Trogon street, was honored at a birthday party Saturday afternoon given by his mother at the Winters' home. Around 25 were present, including boys and girls, and a number of adults.

Following outdoor games the children were served ice cream and cake, and received as favors horns and caps suggestive of the Halloween season. The huge white birthday cake was topped with four pink candles, and appointments for the dining room table carried a pink and blue note. Gene received lots of nice gifts as souvenirs of the happy occasion. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dock Wiles and young son, David, of Boone.

Missionary Society Met With Mrs. Rufus Church

Twenty four members were present for the monthly meeting of the North Wilkesboro First Baptist Woman's Missionary Society held at the home of Mrs. Rufus Church Tuesday evening. Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, the president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting, and Mrs. Jay Johnson was chairman of the program which was given by members of Circle No. 4. Those having part in presenting the topic, "Glorifying the King Through Our Aims" were Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, Mrs. H. T. Clark, Mrs. Glenn Green, Mrs. Rufus Church, and Mrs. E. S. Cooper. Mrs. Monroe Eller gave the devotions. The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Jenkins.

Wilabri Bridge Club Met With Mrs. Vestal

The members of the Wilabri Bridge club and some additional guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Albert Vestal at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Four tables were arranged for play in a colorful setting of mixed fall blossoms and at the close of the game the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Top score prize within the club was won by Mrs. James Lowe while among the visitors the winners were Mrs. R. L. Huffman. Mrs. Jim Willis received the bingo award. Mrs. Charles G. Thomas, of Fontana, a recent bride and who before her marriage was Miss Lena Culler, received crystal in her chosen pattern from the hostess. Mrs. Thomas was in Wilkesboro visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Culler.

Mrs. W. T. Long Entertains at Bridge

Mrs. W. T. Long was hostess at a lovely party at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening entertaining at four tables of bridge. The count of scores gave Mrs. J. A. Rousseau and Mrs. Jim Somers the prizes in the game of bridge for the highest and lowest number of points. At the close of play the hostess served a salad course. Mixed autumn blossoms made attractive decorations for the home.

Hinshaw Fidelis Class In Meeting

The Fidelis class of Hinshaw Street Baptist church met Friday night at the home of Mrs. Robert Pegram with Mrs. Emma Triplett as co-hostess. Twelve members were present. Twenty six visits to the sick were reported.

Each member presented a gift to Mrs. Pegram, it being her birthday. An enjoyable social hour followed. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Paul Bumgarner.

Mrs. W. C. Prevette Bridge Club Hostess

A delightful club party of the week was the one given by Mrs. W. C. Prevette at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening entertaining for the members of the 8th Column Bridge club, and a trio of additional guests. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Graydon Watts for high score, to Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., for low score, to Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Jr., for bingo, and Mrs. W. F. Absher received the traveler's award. When cards were laid aside the hostess served a dessert course. Visitors of the club were Mrs. James Jim Somers, W. F. Absher, and F. D. Forester, Jr.

Mrs. H. B. Smith Is Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. H. B. Smith was hostess to the members of the Friday Bridge club at her home on D street Friday afternoon. Table prizes which were War Stamps, were awarded to Mrs. Dan Carter and Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr. Light refreshments were served.

Invasion Scene, Act II

Yesterday was Act I.

Same beachhead scene. Same — except today there are no screaming bombs, no burning tanks, no convulsive shells tearing big holes in the ground. Same scene, but today the guys up there on the beach put on the show.

They're ready for Act II. They've pushed the enemy back a few miles. Here comes Act II. Here comes the U.S.O. Camp Show!

Our guys need this show. They need it desperately, like starving men need food. For an hour or two they'll go back to America... back to Broadway, Hollywood, Main Street... back a thousand miles from this beachhead. They need to laugh, to forget.

They need it, understand?

Thanks to the folks back home, U.S.O. Camp Show units have played in every combat zone, often immediately behind the front lines. More than 90 units are playing the "Foxhole"; more than 80 units appear regularly at camps and hospitals in the western hemisphere.

It costs money to operate the world's biggest theatrical circuit. Even though most stage and screen stars donate their services without charge, it still costs a lot of money to send hundreds of other performers. Every cent must come from part of the money you give to your local community drive.

Your gift helps your neighbors at home, too! Local services supported by this one drive include family and child welfare work, hospital and clinical projects, settlement work, maternity care of wives of servicemen, day care for children of war workers.

Give once for all these. There are many war needs to cover. Give now—at least a day's pay. Give all you can!
