

Women IN THE CHURCH

More than a million Methodist women, members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service organized in 22,000 Methodist parishes, will take part in the "Crusade for Christ", a four-year evangelistic and missionary effort of the denomination. The Crusade will emphasize movements within the church for molding church and public opinion against isolationism and for cooperation among the nations in the post-war world, for world relief and reconstruction through the missionary and educational agencies of the church, for an increase in evangelism, for a new teaching on the "stewardship of all of life", and for building enrollment and attendance in Sunday schools. A phase of the first year of the Crusade will be the raising of $25,000,000 for emergency needs of people in America and overseas, all growing out of the war. This will include more than $5,000,000 to be used directly for service to women, at home and abroad, through the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

"America's largest Christmas party" in 1944 is being sponsored by church women of all major Protestant churches of the United States, and will provide Yuletide

Will Rogers' Humorous Story

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a Chicago gunman that was in trouble. He was going to be sentenced the next day.

So that night the minister was giving him some good advice and trying to console him.

"Don't you get discouraged," says the preacher. "Every human has his trials and tribulations you know, and we've all got to bear 'em."

"Well," says the gunman, "I ain't complaining about the trials. They've been a sleigh-ride so far. And the tribulations I don't know nothing about, unless it's one of them motions the lawyers make for a hundred and fifty bucks apiece. But it's the sentences that worries me. Every human ain't got to have them, has he?"

Four Sons Lost and the Fifth Goes Home

Washington, Oct. 5.—This is about the human side of war.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Borgstrom, of Tremont, Utah, saw all five of their sons go off to war.

Three of them will never come back. They were killed in action. The fourth may never return. He is missing in France.

Grief-stricken by the succession of tragedies, the Borgstroms pleaded that the only son now left to them—marine Pfc. Boyd G. Borgstrom, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C.—be allowed to return to them. He could help run their farm.

So Boyd is going home. He was given an honorable discharge today by special order of Lt. Gen. A. A. Vandegrift, marine corps commandant.

Prisoner of War!

Help rescue him! They caught Jimmie stealing. But the real thief was Hitler.

The war broke up Jimmie's home. Older folks had less and less time for his problems. He found companionship ... on the street. Now he's a prisoner ... prisoner of war who needs our help!

Social agencies in this city are fighting juvenile delinquency ... straightening out bewildered youngsters who might otherwise become criminals. You can help keep boys like Jimmie from getting into trouble by subscribing now to your local community war fund.

Part of your gift will go, through the National War Fund, to support the U.S.O., to send U.S.O. Camp Shows to our boys overseas, to provide games, music, entertainment for war prisoners, to help many United Nations refugees.

So give now, as generously as you can. More than you gave last year, if possible.

Our youngsters here at home and other victims of the war need us desperately and so do our soldiers. We can't let them down now!

A Baby Industry Does A Man-Sized Job

Thanks to the pioneering of your State Extension Service and other agencies, poultrying has ceased to be a side line and become an important industry—especially vital in war agriculture.

Electric brooding, lighting, laying houses, water warming, ultra violet radiation and other practices are playing a great part in today's production records.

Our Rural Service Department has for years worked closely with your County Agent and Extension Specialist to encourage more efficient, more profitable poultrying.
