Social Calendar

The January meeting of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club will be held Monday afternoon, 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Fred Emerson with Mesdames R. J. Hinshaw, Ralph Duncan, and Glenn Green as associate hostesses. The program, which is on Literature, is to be given by Miss Lois Eddinger, a member of the North Wilkesboro high school faculty.

Robert S. Guerrant served as best man, and the ushers were Richard F. Guerrant, Dr. J. L. Guerrant, S. S. Guerrant, Jr., P. M. Guerrant and Jack Helle, Hugh Noell, uncle of the bride, from Shelby, North Carolina, gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a white gown of brocade taffeta and net fashioned with a bodice of taffeta and full skirt of net over taffeta falling into a full length train. Her full length veil of illusion fell from a Dutch cap covered with crystal beads, and she carried a bouquet of white flowers showered with satin streamers. Her only ornament was an heirloom necklace of white onyx set in gold, which belonged to the groom's great-grandmother.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception at her home on Wycliffe avenue.

The couple left for a southern trip, and on their return will be at home at Algoma Orchards, Callaway. For traveling, the bride wore a blue suit, beige topcoat, brown accessories and a corsage of orchids.

The bride was graduated from Kennett School of Commerce, and the groom was educated at Pennsylvania State college and Duke University.

Among out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Miss Sara Jane Poole and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noell of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Harry Keller, aunt of the bride, of North Wilkesboro; North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Noell of Shelby, North Carolina; the Reverend and Mrs. Owen P. Lloyd of Alexandria; Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Guerrant of Charlottesville.

Mrs. Paul Green Entertains Her Club

The members of the Young Matrons Contract club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Paul Green at her home on Fifth Street Monday evening. Bridge was played at two tables with the high and second high score awards going to Mrs. Harry Pearson and Mrs. Presley Myers. Mrs. J. Q. Adams received the bingo prize. A salad course was served at the conclusion of play.

Evelyn Stokes Circle Entertained

The Evelyn Stokes circle of Union Methodist church met Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Bob Church with ten members present. The meeting was presided over by the new chairman for 1947, Miss Winnie Sue McLean. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Shumaker, assisted by Mrs. E. R. Eller and Mrs. D. E. Turner. Topic for discussion was Christian Stewardship. The chairman presided over the business session at which time plans were told for the new year.

During the social hour tempting refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Eller.

The February meeting will be with Mrs. Richard Minton.

Legion Auxiliary Met Monday Night

A large number of the members were present for the monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Rufus Church with Mrs. R. G. Finley and Mrs. Carl Buchan as hostesses. Mrs. T. A. Finley, the president, conducted the business session during which time the group spent sometime in discussing how much pleasure the holiday club brought to the young people and the college set home for the holidays. Mrs. W. R. Absher gave a report of the gifts sent to the boys at Oteen for Christmas. Members present for the meeting included two new members, Mrs. Edward Bell and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, and four past presidents, Mesdames W. R. Absher, J. B. McCoy, Gordon Finley, and Miss Toby Turner. The hostesses served refreshments during the social hour.

Mr. Pete Carlton Marries In Arizona

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Carlton, of Boomer, have returned from Casa Grande, Arizona, where they were married by the Rev. Elias Jones at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Carlton on Tuesday, December 31. The bride, the former Miss Lael Carlton, attended the Casa Grande schools and is a graduate of the University of Arizona. She taught school for the past year at Winslow, Arizona.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn B. Carlton of Boomer, attended the Wilkesboro high school and at present is engaged in farming and the lumber business. For the present the couple are making their home with the groom's parents.

Garden Club Met Tuesday Afternoon

The January meeting of the Garden club, a department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Forester with Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes as associate hostess. Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain, vice chairman, presided for the business session due to the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Edd F. Gardner. A project for the Garden clubs of the state is more plantings of the dogwood in beautification of cities and rural areas, and each club is asked to put out at least ten of the trees. At the meeting much time was spent in the discussion of the project, and some plans were made in carrying out the same.

For the program Mrs. Rufus B. Church gave a talk on the care of house plants, which featured African violets and poinsettias. Mrs. Chamberlain had on display some of the violets in blue and pink. Mrs. Z. O. Eller, scrap book chairman, had on exhibit her book, which is being kept up to date. The meeting was largely attended.
