Euzelian Sunday School Class Meets

The Euzelian S. S. Class of the First Baptist church had its February meeting with Mrs. Joe Wellborn Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Sixteen members were present.

Mrs. Ruby Bentley presided

for the business session.

Devotionals were by Mrs. Bill Miller. A social hour was directed by Mrs. Joe Wellborn, after which which delicious refreshments were served.

Jessica Marlow Has Valentine Party

Little Miss Jessica Marlow was hostess at a Valentine party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hix, on D Street Thursday afternoon. Around twenty children were present for the party and enjoyed a number of Valentine games and contests, after which they were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served by Mrs. Hix and Jessica's mother, Mrs. William Marlow. For favors the guests were given Valentine hats and baskets of Valentine candies.

Hardison-Cranor Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hardison, of Arapahoe, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Winifred, to Frank Taylor, Cranor, Jr., of Raleigh. The wedding, to take place on Saturday, March 1st, in the Arapahoe Methodist church. Mr. Cranor is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Cranor, of North Wilkesboro.

Friday Book Club Met With Mrs. J. C. Reins

The Valentine motif made an attractive setting for the members of the Friday afternoon Book club in their meeting held Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. C. Reins at her home on E Street. Visitors of the club included Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes, Mrs. F. C. Forester, and Mrs. F. B. Hethcock. Mrs. Watt Cooper presided for interesting news items, which were featured with the origin of Valentine being given by Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr. At the close of the meeting the guests were invited into the dining room where a salad course was served buffet style. Centerpiece for the dining table emphasized the Valentine note.

Mrs. Ira Payne Entertains Her Club

The members of the Current Topic club and a few extra guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Ira Payne at her home on Fifth Street Wednesday afternoon. Three tables were arranged for rook in an attractive setting emphasizing the patriotic colors, red, white and blue, the appointments being in keeping with Lincoln's birthday. At the close of play the hostess served a salad course with sweets and was assisted by her two young daughters, Bettie Chloe and Sarah Jane Payne.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Sr., for top score, to Mrs. J. M. Crawford for second high score, to Mrs. Hoyle Hutchens for low score, and to Mrs. F. C. Forester for honors.

First Methodist Juniors Have Party

The members of the Junior choir and other children in the Junior Department of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church were given a Valentine party at the church Wednesday afternoon. Thirty children were present and were directed in Valentine games and contests, in which a number of prizes were given, by Miss Jo Lassiter, choir director, being assisted by Mrs. Darwin Smithey and Miss Mamie Sockwell. Other Junior workers present were Mrs. Joe Pearson and Mrs. C. T. Doughton. Dixie cups were served at the close of the afternoon, and Valentines distributed from a large Valentine box.

Stewart-Veasey Vows Wednesday

Sanatorium, N. C., Feb. 12.—Miss Bessie Lee Stewart, of Wilkesboro, became the bride of Mr. Harry W. Veasey, of Raeford, in an impressive ceremony which took place in the Aberdeen Baptist Parsonage Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, February 12. Mr. Zeb A. Caudle officiated in the presence of a few intimate friends and members of the family.

The bride wore a light blue wool suit with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of American Beauty red rosebuds. Mrs. Veasey is the youngest daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Stewart of Wilkesboro. She is a graduate of the Wilkesboro High School and the North Carolina Sanatorium School of Nursing, Sanatorium, N. C., where she is now employed as Ward Supervisor.

Mr. Veasey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Veasey of Raeford,

N. C. He attended Wake Forest College and served four years with the Armed Forces in the European Theatre. He now holds a position with the Liggett-Myers Tobacco Company. After a short wedding trip to Western North Carolina the couple will be at home in Aberdeen, N. C.
