

Dellaplane News During the Week

Interesting services were held at Oak Forest Saturday night and Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Johnny Luffman.

A revival begins at Oak Forest the fourth Sunday night in March. Rev. Marvin Burcham will assist the pastor.

Monroe Smithy has bought the farm of Monroe Mathis, the former Mitch Church place, in this locality. It is a good place, consisting of 151 acres. It is understood the consideration was six thousand, five hundred, cash.

Funds are being collected to build a new church at the Roaring River Methodist church. Over a thousand had been subscribed last week.

"Aunt Dorcas" Mathis and family, who had been living at the farm of her nephew, M. M. Mathis, two or three years, will probably move back to the Cranberry community. They may move to a house on Mrs. Bertha Mathis' farm, near Mr. L. M. Jarvis, and known as the Lee St. John house.

Prayer meeting will be held at Oak Forest Saturday night.

It is a rather amusing set of coincidences that Monroe Mathis and Monroe Smithy are both named Monroe, have both owned the Mitch Church place, were both born in "the Gay Nineties," are both "Republican through-out," and both have twin daughters!

Mountain View School News

At a meeting of faculty and school patrons in the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, February 11, County Superintendent C. B. Eller outlined the needs of Mountain View school for new buildings and improvements to our present plant. Plans were discussed for a mass meeting to be held at some future date where definite action will be taken.

Chapel program for Friday, Feb. 7 was in charge of Mrs. Gregory's seventh grade class. A girls' chorus sang several numbers including "The Old Lamp-lighter" and "Gal in Calico," directed by Mrs. Church. A program on Thomas Edison was presented, illustrated with charts and drawings by the students. The program was concluded by a brief inspirational talk by Rev.

Roy Franklin, which was very much appreciated by the audience.

Chapel for Friday, Feb. 14, was in charge of Miss Nora Laws' section of the seventh grade. The program featured a Valentine play, Lincoln and Washington sketches and songs led by Mrs. Gordon Finley, including "When I Grow Too Old To Dream," "Always," and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Most of the members of the faculty attended the county-wide teachers meeting in the Wilkesboro school auditorium on Saturday, Feb. 15.

Mountain View boys' and girls' teams defeated Wilkesboro high in a basketball game on Thursday evening in the Mountain View Gym.

Mountain View All-Stars defeated Lincoln Heights All-Stars in the Mountain View gym on Wednesday evening, and lost to Millers Creek All-Stars on Friday evening.

Millers Creek W. S. C. S. Meets

The Womens' Division of Christian Service of the Millers Creek Methodist church held its monthly meeting Thursday night, Feb. 13, 1947, at the home of Mrs. Balmer Hayes at Millers Creek.

An inspiring program, having as its topic, "Stewardship," was given and a brief business session was held, after which delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.
