

Jurors Drawn For May Term Federal Court On May 19

May term of federal court for the circuit composed of Wilkes, Watauga, Ashe and Alleghany counties will convene in Wilkesboro on Monday, May 19, with Judge Johnson J. Hayes presiding.

The following jurors have been drawn to serve during the court:

Alleghany County: Mrs. Atlee Thompson, Glade Valley; Hugh Choate, Sparta; Robert Lee Nichols, Sparta; Letcher Crouse, Sparta; George Crouse, Sparta.

Ashe County: Blain Blevins, Crumpler; E. R. Sturdivant, West Jefferson; W. H. Wayman, West Jefferson; Hege Parsons, Ooids; J. E. Parker, Creston; Ed. Davis, White Top, Route, Virginia; L. H. Miller, Idlewild; Mack Horton, colored, Jefferson; Victor Goss, Lansing; J. T. McCoy, Hemlock; W. B. Reeves, West Jefferson; J. W. Faw, Amy; E. E. Trivette, West Jefferson; Raymond Johnson, Idlewild; Preston Wilson, Apple Grove.

Watauga County: Grover C. Robbins, Blowing Rock; Dudley F. Greene, Sugar Grove; James Lewis, Todd; R. W. McGuire, Boone; H. O. Aldridge, Shulls Mills; Owen Little, Zionville; M. W. Beach, Boone; Dick Hollars, Blowing Rock; Wayne Miller, Deep Gap; Walter H. Greene, Boone.

N. H. Waugh Rites Held On Wednesday

Funeral service was held at the First Baptist church Wednesday morning for Nathan Harris Waugh, well known local citizen who died Monday afternoon.

Mr. Waugh was born in Jefferson September 13, 1874, a son of the late Nathan H. Waugh, pioneer merchant of Jefferson, and Mrs. Charlotte Rominger Waugh. They later moved to Fleetwood, where young Mr. Waugh married Miss Iona Howell.

Mr. Waugh came to North Wilkesboro 41 years ago and worked for A. M. Church and Sons. Later entered lumber business for himself here and went to Georgia, where he was in the lumber business at LaGrange, Ga. Returning here in 1926, he accepted a position with American Furniture Co.

Mr. Waugh was a member of the First Baptist church here.

Surviving Mr. Waugh are his wife, Mrs. Iona Howell Waugh, one son, Bruce Waugh, and one daughter, Miss Hallie Waugh, of this city. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. George Martin, of Gilliam, W. Va., and two brothers, D. V. Waugh, of Fleetwood, and C. W. Waugh, of LaGrange, Ga.

Rev. J. H. Armbrust, of Statesville, and Dr. Gilbert R. Combs, First Methodist pastor, conducted the funeral service. Burial was in Mount Lawn Memorial Park. Pall bearers were nephews: W. H. H. Waugh, Kendrick Waugh, H. H. Van and Gentry Lemley, Bob and Bill Bledsoe, and Clyde Waugh. Many beautiful flowers were evidence of the esteem and respect for Mr. Waugh.

Square Dance Friday Night Millers Creek

Everybody is invited to the square dance to be held Friday night, eight o'clock, in the Millers Creek school gymnasium, with profits from admission charges going into the playground fund.

Wanderers of the Wasteland will furnish music and a most enjoyable occasion is assured.

Winners In Recent Baby Contest

Kay McEntire, above, and Billie Prevet, lower photo, won first and second places, respectively, in the highly successful baby contest held recently at Wilkesboro school for the benefit of the school gymnasium fund. Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McEntire, won the gold cup with 43,899 votes. Billie, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Prevet, had 32,285 votes and was awarded the silver cup. The contest netted $1,554.30 for the gymnasium fund.

Eighth Division Highway Office Be Moved Here

The State Highway and Public Works Commission in meeting in Raleigh last week voted to move the office of the Eighth Division of the highway commission from Lenoir to North Wilkesboro.

According to news reports from Raleigh, the office will be located on State Highway Commission property near the prison camp and the highway division garage.

The Eighth Division office was originally established here when J. Gordon Hackett was highway commissioner for the division under the present set-up in the state. The office was moved to Lenoir when V. D. Guire became commissioner and was not moved to Mt. Airy, residence of Raymond Smith, present member of the commission in the Eighth division.

The change in location of the division office will probably mean that a number of engineers and other administrative personnel will make their home here.

Baseball Game At Purlear Saturday

Millers Creek-Purlear and Mountain View baseball teams, both newly organized community teams, will play Saturday afternoon, 2:30, on Purlear's field. The public is cordially invited to witness the contest.

For Baccalaureate

Right Reverend Robert E. Gribbin, bishop of the Western Diocese of the Episcopal church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, 8:30, before the graduating class of Wilkesboro high school in the school auditorium. Former Governor J. Melville Broughton will deliver the commencement address Thursday night, May 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgess and sons, Bill and Roy, of Santa Monica, California, are here this week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Damschroder. They are former North Wilkesboro residents and this is their first visit to the city in seven years. While in North Carolina, Mr. Burgess and family will visit relatives and friends in Winston-Salem, Statesville, and other places in the state.

$880.65 In Prizes For Variety Show Benefit Gym Fund

Will Be Given At Seniors Program At Wilkesboro On Tuesday Night

In addition to a splendid variety show program, merchandise totaling $880.65 will be given away free at Wilkesboro high school on Tuesday night, May 6, eight o'clock.

The program has been arranged by the senior class as their part of the campaign now on to raise $12,000 to erect a gymnasium at Wilkesboro school. Songs, dances, blackface comedy acts and other features are on the program.

Tickets for the show are on sale at $1.00 each, and those who purchase tickets do not have to attend the program to be among those who are awarded the many valuable prizes which have been donated by business firms and individuals of the Wilkesboro and the community.

Following is the list of prizes, the price of each and the name of the firm or person donating the prize:

- Grand prize, Complete Bedroom Suit, $200.00, Forest Furniture Co. Distributors in Wilkesboro Gray Bros. Furniture Company.
- Second Prize, Ladies' Bulova wrist Watch, $70.00, Steele's Jewelry.
- Third Prize, Boy's Bicycle, $62.00, Motor Market, Inc.
- Fourth Prize, Living Room Rocker, $59.50, Gray Bros. Furniture Co.
- Fifth Prize, Vacuum Cleaner, $50.00, Goodwill Store.
- Sixth Prize, Trade Certificate, $50.00, Belk's Department Store.
- Seventh Prize, Trade Certificate, $50.00, W. W. Miller & Sons Grocery.
- Eighth Prize: Electric Radio, $35.00, Anderson Electric Co.
- Ninth Prize, Registered Hampshire Pig, male, $35.00, Coy Mathis.
- Tenth Prize, Lawn Mower, $28.00, Somers-Story Hardware.
- Eleventh Prize, Electric Fan, $27.45, Parker-Tripert Electric Co.
- Twelfth Prize: Electric Mixer, $25.00, Dick's Service Station.
- Thirteenth Prize, Repair Certificate, $25.00, Midway Pontiac.
- Fourteenth Prize, Electric Radio, $25.00, Day Electric Co.
- Fifteenth Prize, Trade Certificate, $25.00, Henderson Flower Shop.
- Sixteenth Prize, Goodyear Tire and Tube, $22.00, Wilkes Tire Store.
- Seventeenth Prize, Cold Wave Permanent, $20.00, Wilkes Beauty Shop.
- Eighteenth Prize, Set Living Room Table Lamps, $15.00, Markdown Furniture Co.
- Nineteenth Prize, Livingroom Floor Lamp, $15.00, Rhodes-Day Furniture Co.
- Twentieth Prize, General Electric Clock, $15.00, Red Cross Pharmacy.
- Twenty-First Prize, Coaster Wagon, $14.95, Firestone Store.
- Twenty-Second Prize, Ever-sharp Pen and Pencil Set, $14.75, Carter-Hubbard Publishing Co.
- Twenty-Third Prize, One Year's Rent on Freezer Locker, $12.00, Carolina Refrigeration Cooperative Association.
- Twenty-Fourth Prize, 2-Burner Electric Hot Plate, $10.00, Forester Furniture Co.

Bell Brothers Are Held For Robbery And Impersonation

Alleged To Have Posed As Officers, Collecting From Motorists

Glenn and Millard Bell, of Roaring River, are being held by State Highway Patrolmen here on charges of highway robbery with firearms, posing as officers, forgery and other counts.

Sgt. A. H. Clark and Sidney Carter, of the highway patrol, said that they had knowledge of at least four instances during the past several days where motorists in Wilkes and Yadkin counties at late hours of the night had been stopped and robbed or had been forced to pay $25 or more in cash on threat of being taken to jail by the two men who said they were deputies.

In two instances, officers

One Killed, Three Hurt In This Auto

Here is a picture of Buster Staley's coupe where it wrecked on highway 421 three miles east of Wilkesboro Sunday. The car traveled on the bank 50 yards, overturned twice on the highway and stopped in an upright position but headed west. Mr. Staley and two other occupants were thrown from the car, which retained its shape through the crash. Walter Sparks, Eugene Parks and Norwood Segraves, in the car with Staley, were not seriously hurt. Staley was killed instantly. (Staff photo by Dwight Nichols).

Wilkes Schools Will Close Term Next Week; Graduation Programs Schools Announced

Wilkes county high schools, getting ready to graduate their first 12th grade classes, have planned commencement programs.

Supt. C. B. Eller, of the county school system, said today that figures for the 7th month show a total enrollment of 8,855, of which 1,272 were high school pupils. Total enrollment of the North Wilkesboro schools would make the grand total in Wilkes county over 10,000.

At Wilkesboro, largest of the county schools, Rt. Rev. Robert E. Gribbin, bishop of the Western North Carolina diocese of the Episcopal church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 4, 3:30 p. m. The senior class will present a variety show on Tuesday night and Former Governor J. Melville Broughton will deliver the commencement address Thursday night, May 8. There are 38 seniors.

Rev. C. C. Holland, pastor of Front Street Baptist church in Statesville, will preach the commencement sermon at Millers Creek Sunday, May 4, at 2:30. Graduation exercises will be on Friday night, May 9.

Baccalaureate sermon at Ronda will be on Sunday, May 4, with graduation on Thursday night, May 8.

At Roaring River Rev. Watt M. Cooper, First Presbyterian pastor here, will preach the commencement sermon on Sunday, May 4. T. C. McKnight, secretary of the Elkin Y. M. C. A., will be the final speaker on Thursday, May 8.

Dr. P. E. Monroe, president of Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, will be the commencement speaker at Mountain View on Monday, May 12. The baccalaureate sermon will be on Sunday, May 11.

Traphill will close on May 14 with graduation exercises. The commencement sermon will be on May 11.

Commencement sermon at Mount Pleasant will be on Sunday, May 4, with graduation exercises on Friday, May 9.

At Ferguson Dr. Wallace Smith, of A. S. T. C., Boone, will be the commencement speaker on Friday night, May 2, eight p. m. The high school play will be presented on Thursday night. On Saturday night will be another of a series of enjoyable recreation parties at the school for the benefit of the gymnasium fund.

North Wilkesboro Baseball Team Will Open Season With Boonville

said, motorists had been stopped and accused of speeding. The men had demanded $25 in cash to settle the charges and were paid.

The highway patrolmen have asked that any others who were stopped and robbed get in touch with Sgt. A. H. Clark at North Wilkesboro, or Yadkin county jail, where the Bell brothers are being held.

Allen Theatre Will Be Closed Mon.-Tues.

The Allen Theatre will be closed Monday and Tuesday, May 5th and 6th.

During this time new seats will be installed and the theatre redecorated. The theatre will reopen on Wednesday, May 7th with the mightiest of western epics since "Cimarron" and "The Covered Wagon"—"The Trail Street," starring Randolph Scott and George "Gabby" Hayes.

North Wilkesboro Will Play Elkin

North Wilkesboro high school baseball team will meet their arch rivals from Elkin in a baseball game Friday, 3:30, on the fairgrounds field. Sturdivant will be on the mound for North Wilkesboro.

North Wilkesboro lost to Statesville 12-0 at Statesville Wednesday.

Call Child Dies

Funeral will be conducted Friday, two p. m., at Hunting Creek church for Gene Louise Call, age 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Richard Call, of North Wilkesboro route three. The child died Wednesday. Surviving are the father and mother, three brothers and three sisters.

Veterans Foreign Wars To Sponsor An Air Show Here

Decision Reached In Meeting of Blue Ridge Post Held Tuesday Night

Blue Ridge Mountain post of Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor an air show to be held in the near future on the North Wilkesboro airfield, it was decided in the meeting of the post Tuesday night.

No date was set for the air show, but committees are working on preliminary arrangements. S. L. Whitaker, commander of the post, said.

In the V. F. W. meeting to be held Tuesday night next week Army Recruiter Sgt. Earl Triplett will show some special recruiting and Pacific war films. A large attendance of veterans is desired.

School Children Given Movie For Clean Up Work

As a special reward for their splendid work in the Clean Up-Paint Up Campaign sponsored by the Wilkes Chamber of Commerce, school children of North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro schools were given a free show today.

Both theatres here were used to entertain the many school children, which included the entire student body here and the Wilkesboro high school.

The Clean Up campaign is progressing well with many worthwhile projects being carried out under direction of Jerry Derr, general chairman.

F. D. Meserve, health day chairman, has made some worthwhile recommendations, which will be published Monday.

9 Stills Raided During The Week

During the past week Alcohol Tax Unit agents in Wilkes destroyed nine stills with a total capacity of 965 gallons. C. S. Felts, in charge of the ATU office, said today.

They seized 50 gallons of whiskey and 7,750 gallons of mash. The stills had a total capacity of 11,950 gallons of mash.

Ted Johnson was arrested on manufacturing charges and placed under bond for trial in the May term of federal court.

Bishop Gribbin At St. Paul's Sunday

On next Sunday morning, May 4th, at eleven o'clock, the Right Reverend Robert E. Gribbin, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina, will visit St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Wilkesboro. At this service he will preach and administer the Rite of Confirmation. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this service.

Community House Sale at Pores Knob

On Saturday evening, May 3, beginning at 7:30 there will be a sale of hand made articles, canned foods, home made cakes, pies, candies, etc. at the Pores Knob community house. The proceeds of this sale will go into the building fund of the community house. Everybody is urged to attend, with something to sell and buy the things they need and want.

Gate City Shows To Move to Jonesville

Gate City Shows, which had been showing on Fairplains ball park for two weeks, moved this week to Jonesville, where they will operate Friday and Saturday this week and all next week under auspices of the Jonesville fire department.

Included in the attractions are a number of thrilling rides, shows and amusement concessions. Gate City Shows are operated by Mr. Baxter.

License Examiner Not Coming Friday

J. C. Spencer, driver license examiner, will not be at the town hall here Friday but will be back on regular schedule next week.

Community Singing At Second Baptist

A community singing will be held Sunday, one p. m., at the Second Baptist church in this city. All singers are invited to take part in the singing.

An emergency allocation of two million pounds of flour has been made to Brazil, for use in schools and state institutions of Sao Paulo.