port News the latter part of August and enter the Georgia School of Technology, Atlanta, Ga., in September.

D. A. R. Chapter in Monthly Meeting

Mrs. C. H. Cowles, Mrs. C. T. Doughton, and Miss Rebecca Moseley combined hospitality to the members of the Rendezvous Mountain chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in their monthly meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Cowles home in Wilkesboro. Mrs. Russell G. Hodges, the regent, was in charge of the business session, and for the program Miss Moseley read an interesting article on old fans. During the social hour the guests were invited into the dining room where a sweet course with tea was served, tea being poured by Miss Moseley. A large number of the members were present for the meeting.

Woman's Bible Class Met On Tuesday

The May meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Z. O. Eller with Miss Lizzie Hise as associate hostess, having nineteen members present. Mrs. Joe E. Johnson gave the devotion, Miss Jo Lassiter another chapter in the book on Stewardship, and Mrs. C. B. Lomax, the president, was in charge of the business session. The hostesses served tempting refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., Entertains Her Club

Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., was hostess to the members of the 8th Column club at her home on Eighth Street Tuesday evening. Contract rummy was played at two tables with the top score prize going to Mrs. C. C. Faw. Jr. A salad course was served at the conclusion of play.

Mrs. Isaac Duncan Entertains Her Club

The members of the Pastime bridge club and some extra guests were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Isaac Duncan at her home on C Street Friday evening. Bridge was played at two tables and was followed by a dessert course. High and second high score prizes within the club went to Mrs. Johnson Sanders and Mrs. Joe Canter, with the visitors high going to Miss Edna Bullis. Miss Betty Smith, public school teacher of Malinda Duncan, young daughter of the hostess, won the bingo prize and received an honor gift from Mrs. Duncan.

Gordon Finley, Jr., Entertains For Teachers

Mr. Gordon Finley, Jr., high school student, was host at a dinner party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Finley, on E Street Thursday evening honoring his teachers, and had as extra guests their husbands and wives. Dinner was served at seven o'clock with the host being assisted in the serving by his aunt, Miss Lucy Finley. Covers were laid for the following, Mr. Paul S. Cragan, superintendent of the school, and Mrs. Cragan; Mr. Melvin Stahl, high school principal, and Mrs. Stahl; Mr. Howard Bowers, coach, and Mrs. Bowers; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bell, Misses Mary Speer and Lois Eddinger, and Mr. and Mrs. Finley.

Associational W. M. U. Meet

The Woman's Missionary Society of New Hope Baptist church will be hostess to the annual meeting of the Brushy Mountain Associational W. M. U. on Tuesday, June 3rd. The morning session will open promptly at ten and the meeting will close at three.

Miss Vivian Nowell, of Wendell, who is on furlough from the Nigerian Mission field in Africa, will tell of her work there. Miss Ruth Providence, W. M. U. Secretary for the state, will make her first visit to this section and will speak in the afternoon. Mrs. C. N. Myers, of Elkin, will bring the Divisional Superintendent's message. It is urged by the associational officers that members of the local Woman's Missionary Societies and other women of the churches in the Brushy Mountain Association attend this important meeting, which promises to be one of the most interesting in the history of the association. Mrs. Gilbert Foster is superintendent, Miss Madge Lewis, Young People's Leader, and Mrs. Warren Miller is Secretary-treasurer of the local organization.

RIGHT TO DRIVE!

There has been enacted by the General Assembly of North Carolina, effective July 1, 1947, House Bill No. 63 known as the "Motor Vehicle Safety and Responsibility Act".

This Act Provides:

- (1) After involvement in an automobile accident causing bodily injury or death of any person or damage to property in excess of $50.00, such damages must be satisfied within 60 days after judgment has been rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) The commissioner of Motor Vehicles of the State of North Carolina upon receiving proper evidence that a person has failed to satisfy a judgment within the prescribed period shall suspend the person's driver's license and registration plates.
- (3) In effect the law provides further such person's driver's license and registration plates will not be reinstated until such judgment is satisfied and further that such person furnish the State of N. C. proof of financial responsibility.
- (4) Proof of financial responsibility means the taking out of a Liability Insurance Policy or posting bond or cash or securities for ($11,000) as prescribed by the law.

Note:—

To all persons carrying automobile insurance policies with the undersigned agents, such policies are NATIONAL STANDARD POLICIES and therefore comply with the law mentioned above and with laws of all other states having such a law or one similar.

The following Agents are in a position to provide the needed insurance for careful and responsible car owners. Unless you can satisfy a judgment up to $11,000 we urge that you consider the desirability of securing liability and property damage insurance for the protection of your driving rights.

Nothing like it for looks...
nothing like it for thrills...

PEOPLE see things they like in all the 1947 cars. But the low-slung new Studebakers are the cars everybody remembers.

Each 1947 Studebaker is unmistakably a showpiece—excitingly different—thoroughly postwar. Even more thrilling, say many owners, is the way the new Studebaker handles and rides.

See it now! Only car with "black light" dash dials—self-adjusting brakes—unique new wide-vision windows and windshield!
