

Miss Kerbaugh Heads Honorary Society At Wake Forest College

Wake Forest, May 24.—Tasleadership society which corresponds to Omicron Delta Kappa, men's honorary leadership society, has recently been organized at Wake Forest. The new society is under the sponsorship of the faculty and Omicron Delta Kappa. Seven coeds have been selected for charter membership. Among them is Miss Vivian Kerbaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kerbaugh, of North Wilkesboro. The group elected the following officers: Miss Kerbaugh, president; Miss Williams, vice president; and Miss Haworth, Secretary.

The organization was founded as a result of a need felt for a society recognizing campus leadership among women corresponding to Omicron Delta Kappa for the men. The charter members were selected according to an arbitrary point system based on scholarship, leadership, and character. Tassels has held several meetings and has adopted a constitution.

The three-fold purpose of Tassels is "to recognize women who have a high standard of leadership in their college work, and to encourage them to continue in these activities and to inspire others to strive for similar attainments; to bring together the most representative women in all phases of college life and thus create an organization which will aid in molding sentiment on questions of local and intercollegiate interest, and to bring together members of the faculty and student body on a basis of mutual interest."

Raner Wiles' Home Is Totally Destroyed

The home of Raner Wilkes near Mountain View was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles were away at the time and origin of the fire, which burned the home and all contents, was not known. Some insurance was carried on the property.

Bethel News Items Of the Past Week

Max B. Pardue was seriously injured last Thursday afternoon when he fell from a tree 30 or more feet.

A large tree that he and his son had sawed down fell into the branches of another tree and became lodged. He climbed to cut it loose when the accident happened.

Mr. Pardue is being treated in the Wilkes Hospital, North Wilkesboro, for fractures, bruises and internal injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ingram, accompanied by Mr. Ingram's mother, of Jonesville, spent the past week-end at Stony Point visiting relatives.

Miss Kathleen Gilliam had as her week-end guest Miss Syble Lovette, North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Clifford Settle entertained at dinner last Sunday for her husband, who was celebrating his birthday anniversary, having as her guests their children and grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Settle have nine sons and two daughters.

D. S. Gilliam attended the funeral rites held for Mr. Joe Brandon at Jonesville Baptist church last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Julia Pardue passed away at the home of her sons, Robert Pardue, Cycle, last Saturday night. Mrs. Pardue was a sister of Mr. T. N. Greene and the late J. B. Greene of this place.

"Noah Walked With God," was the subject used by the pastor, Rev. L. M. Cook, Elkin, here at Bethel church last Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Cook preaches each second Sunday morning and evening and the 4th Sunday evening.

Mrs. N. E. Burchette has improved right much after suffering a light paralytic stroke recently.

Miss Mildred Pardue, Winston-Salem, spent the past week-end here at her home and to be with her father, Mr. M. B. Pardue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Armstrong and Eddie Burchette, of Winston-Salem, were here at their country "home" Spring Valley, for the past week-end.

Cemetery Working New Hope Church

All who have loved ones buried at New Hope Baptist church and others who are interested in the cemetery are asked to be there Wednesday afternoon, June 4, to work on the cemetery.

Cattle should not be turned into a pasture until a good growth of the pasture mixture has been made.

DO YOUR FAMILY'S VITAMINS VANISH INTO THIN AIR?

Vitamin C will do just that, if you let your leafy vegetables wilt at room temperature.

So pop your vegetables and fruit into the refrigerator just as soon as they reach your kitchen . . . and save the vitamin that protects teeth and gives pep (health surveys show that most of us need more of this vitamin in our diet).

Our Home Service Specialists give these cooking hints to help you conserve important vitamin C:

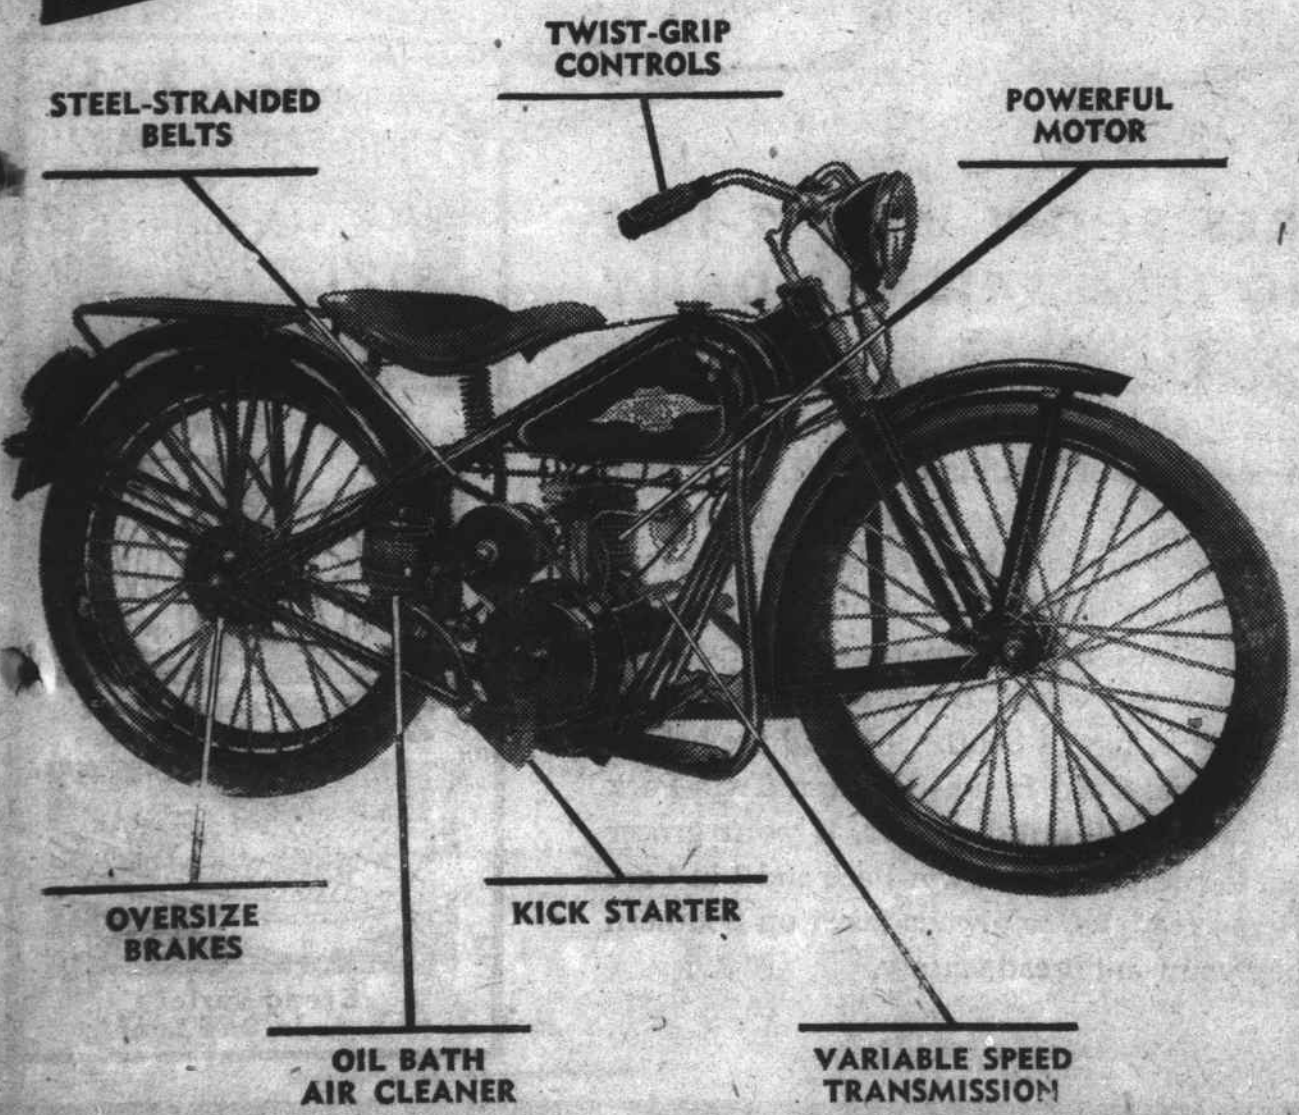

- Use as little water as possible.
- Cover closely.
- Cook as short a time as possible.
- Stir as seldom as possible.
