Industry Looks at Our Town

Maybe you read how a group of industrial experts have decided that the small town is the place for industry—not big cities. Reasons they give are better housing, pleasanter living, and more opportunity for wholesome recreation. Well, looking around our town I'd say that was about right. Most of us own our homes, and keep them looking nice; we enjoy each other's company; and our recreations are mostly simple outdoor sports, and in the evening a mellow glass of beer with pleasant company.

Newby-Parker Vows June 7

High Point.—Impressive in its charm and simple dignity was the marriage of Miss Betty Sue Newby and John Henry Parker on Saturday, June 7, at Pleasant Grove Methodist church. The ceremony was at six o'clock in the evening with only immediate relatives and close friends of the contracting parties in attendance.

The bride's pastor, the Rev. I. L. Sharpe, performed the double ring ritual in a setting of bridal green and white. A background of greenery, baskets of white lilies and a soft illumination shed by cathedral candles featured the nuptial scene.

Along with the traditional wedding marches, appropriate nuptial music was furnished by Polly Smith, vocalist and niece of the bride, and Harley Cecil, pianist and cousin of the bride. Fred P. Newby and Waldo C. Newby, brothers of the bride, served as ushers.

Mrs. Percy E. Smith, only sister of the bride, attired in pink bemburg with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias, was matron of honor. Serving as best man to the groom was his brother-in-law, Luther Hedrick.

The bride wore a street length dress of pale blue crepe, featuring a scalloped sweetheart neckline and a full peplum. Wearing white accessories with white lace mits, the bride carried a white prayer book topped with a purple orchid bearing white streamers interspersed with baby breath.

The mother of the bride wore blue bemburg while the mother of the groom wore teal blue crepe. Both pinned corsages of gardenias at their shoulders.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Newby of 215 Chestnut Street. She is a graduate of the local high school and attended High Point College.

The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Cora Parker and the late Mr. Parker, of North Wilkesboro. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European Theater for two years. He is now employed by Burlington Mills, Lexington, N. C.

After a short wedding trip, the couple are now at home in High Point.

Following the wedding rehearsal on Friday night, the parents of the bride entertained the bridal party at a cake cutting at their home on Chestnut Street.
