Capture of Prisoner Near Lenoir; Third

Raleigh, Sept. 29 .- State prison department officials today reorted that the third of five prisoners who sawed their way out of the Alleghany County prison camp last week had been re-

YOU KNOW THERE WOULD

BE MORE GOOD MOTHER

INLAWS IF THERE WASN'T

SO MANY BAD

HUSBANDS!

State Highway Patrolmen recaptured Ray Hegler, 27, early today near Lenoir. Hegler was serving a 15-year sentence from Mecklenburg county for assault with intent to commit robbery, and robbery with firearms. He was convicted in 1942. Prison officials said the two Club Met Friday prisoners still at large were being hunted near Lenoir.

Putting new life in bad en-gines is our job! And if you have a car that's not what it used to be . . . that's giving you storm warning! You'd better see our expert mechanics . . . and soon! Keep your transportation going— drive by the Gaddy Motor Co. for regular inspection.

WRECKER

SERVICE

Call us for fast-

GADDY MOTOR CO.

We Lead In Service Because We Put Service First
SERVICE PHONE 112
WEST D' STREET
NORTH WILKESPIPO N

Wilkesboro Woman's

To begin the new club year B. Pharr.

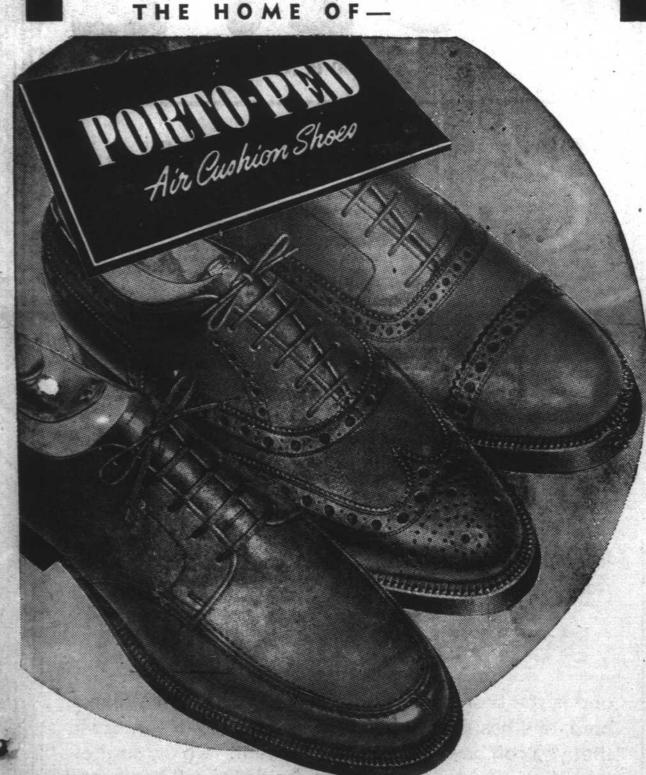

for the party will be a sale of Mesdames Edison Norman, Charles McNeil, and W. H. Jones. members were appointed.

The United States Navy has slightly more than 4,000,000 000 fingerprints on file, dating back to 1907.

following a summer's recess, the Wilkesboro Woman's club met at the Community House on Friday evening having twenty members and three visitors present. Hostesses for the meeting, who served gingerbread with whipped West Jefferson, on Tuesday evecream and apple cider at the close of the evening, were Mesdames N. O. Smoak, J. B. Hendames N. O. Smoak, J. B. Hencelebrating her birthday on that derson, Walter M. Irvin, and R. date, and Mrs. Ivey Moore, ident, was in charge of the bus- and Mrs. Swofford and Mr. and iness session during which time Mrs. Moore, all of North Wilplans were made for a benefit kesboro, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. card party to be held at the Com- Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mcmunity House on Friday evening, Millan, of West Jefferson, and October 10th. An added feature Mrs. Anderson. homebaked foods. A number of plans were made for the year's work, and three new members Met On Monday were welcomed into the club, Committee chairmen and their

THE FAMILY SHOE STORE

Let your feet relax in

AIR CUSHIONED COMFORT

Treat your feet to the luxurious comfort of Porto-Ped's resilient air cushion and flexible Arch Lift. Treat yourself to the eye-appealing style that makes Porto-Peds so distinctively smart. Come in today for a comfort-proving try-on.

'ROBIN HOOD' AND 'BUSTER BROWN' SHOES FOR THE CHILDREN

'PHYSICAL CULTURE', 'MODERN MISS' AND 'VICTORIA CROSS'

FOR THE LADIES

THE FAMILY SHOE STORE

Howard Wellman, Manager

Use Our Lay-Away Plan For Your Convenience

Social Calendar

The Wilkes Valley Guards chapter of the U. D. C. will meet Monday afternoon, 8:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Blanche Ferguson in Wilkes-

Local People Given Dinner Party At Black Bear Inn

Mrs. Edd M. Anderson, of West Jefferson, gave a dinner party at Black Bear Inn near ning, September 23, honoring Mrs. Jack Swofford, who was whose natal day was the twenty-Mrs. Lawrence Miller, the pres- fourth. Covers were laid for Mr.

Woman's Bible Class

Around twenty-five members were present for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe E. Johnon with Mrs. Scott Kenerly as associate hostess. Mrs. R. M. Brame, Sr., led the devotions, Mrs. Gilbert R. Combs gave the prayer, and Miss Jo Lassiter gave another chapter in the study of stewardship. Mrs. C. B. Lomax, the president, presided for the business session. At the meeting a shower of miscellaneous gifts was given for the Wilkes County Sanitorium, including linen, waste baskets, and jellies and preserves. During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious sweet course.

Methodist Young People Held Retreat On Sunday

"Christ Above All" was the theme for the Methodist Youth Fellowship retreat of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held Sunday afternoon, September 28, at the Hix-Hutchen's cabin near Boone. Thirty-one young people attended the Retreat, which was under the direction of Miss Dot Bell, M. Y. Counsellor; Miss Jo Lassiter, director of religious education; Mr. Jay Anderson, church organist; and Misses Margie and Nellie Gabriel.

The schedule of activities for the meeting were as follows: Group singing, Commission assignments and commission study, business session, mid-afternoon snack, discussion, "Why Do You Worship" by Mr. Anderson; Workshop, directed recreation, weiner roast, Vespers led by Miss Margie Gabriel, closing with the friendship circle.

The officers for the year were chosen as follows: president, Miss Agnes Kenerly; vice president, Miss Peggy Jean Sebastian; secretary, Miss Margaret Anderson; treasurer Miss Betty Lou Kenerly, M. Y. F. treasurer, Miss Tony Marlow.

The USS North Carolina, first of the new battleships to get into action in this war and veteran of many victories in the Pacific, has been put in the reserve fleet to be kept against future emer-

FRIDAY, OCT. 3

North Wilkesboro Circus Grounds Highway No. 18

AN ECLIPSING EPOCH IN THE WORLD'S GREATEST

600 PEOPLE--250 WILD ANI-MALS-IN GREAT 5 CONTINENT MENAGERIE-FEATURE, 6 FOLD 2 FLYING ACTS

WICE DAILY 248 P.M. POPULAR

Increased Corn Yield Is Highly Valuable to Tar Heel Farmers

acre over last year would mean three million bushels. nearly eleven million extra dollevel, according to Director I, come at no better time, he said, with a serious feed shortage this O. Schaub of the State College in view of the corn shortage in winter. Extension Service.

the Midwestern states.

pushels per acre brought about yields, North Carolina farmer a production of 58,914,000 bu- are urged to supplement their shels, Director Schaub said. With feeds by producing more forage the present forecast of 29 bush-crops, and hay, and planting els per acre, on approximately the more temporary grazing crops. same acreage, this two bushel North Carolina is still a feed-im-North Carolina's 1947 average per acre increase would mean porting state, and unless farm-corn yield of two bushels per a production of more than sixty- ers get rid of the laggards in their flocks and herds and make The extra four million bushels the best use of land available lars in Tar Heel farmers' pockets of corn, which is expected to for producing more feed for their if it was sold at today's price be produced this year, could livestock, they may be faced

Last year's average yield of 27 Despite the increase in corn SUPPORT THE Y. M. C. A

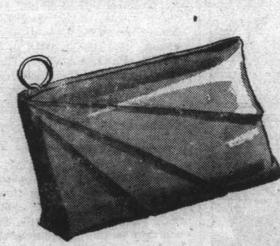

29.75

This year coats are longer, fuller, luxurious looking—made of wonderful woolens! Choose from suedes, coverts, gabardines needle points, alpaca lined cotton gabar-dines! They're dramatic, elegant. practical!

Long, Slim All-Wool

Fashion-new suits with a long, slender look! Rounded hiplines minimize your waist-give you the '47 all silhouette. Superb fabrics add luxury, durability to these beautifully tailored suits at 29.75.

Now! Many, Many New

Fall Handbags

Expensive-looking dressy and tailored pouches, top-zippers and underarm styles! Shining plastic patents and plastic leather grains! All in important Fall colors: wine, red, green, black 2.98

For All Ages! Women's Moccasin Oxford

For sportswear, with sweaters and skirts, suits — the classic brown moccasin tie — oxford with brown rubber soles and heels, attractive stitching trim.

Teeners' Top Classic! Saddle Oxford

Your favorite brown and white saddles with white rubber soles and heels, stitchdown construc-tion! Rugged enough for the hardest wear. You'll like our selection. 4½-9.

Women's Comfortable

Walking Shoes

The smartest thing for Fall! Handsome, good-fitting step-ins of soft leather. Medium heels. Goodyear welt. Flexible, moisture-resistant soles and heels.