Zone Meeting Held In Wilkesboro Church

The fall meeting of Zone Number One of the Statesville district held at the Wilkesboro Methodist church Tuesday, September 30, was largely attended, and was presided over by Mrs. F. C. Smathers, of Lenoir, with Mrs. W. I. Pitts, also of Lenoir, acting as secretary. For the opening devotions Mrs. Pitts read the scripture and offered the prayer, after which Mrs. Clifton Miller, Wilkesboro, sang "This Is My Task." Words of welcome were spoken by Mrs. J. W. White, president of the hostess society. Roll call showed ten of the seventeen societies in the zone represented along with encouraging reports of their work. Mrs. Ralph Sherrill, of Statesville, district president, made a short talk and gave the message for Mrs. T. V. Goode, Statesville, the promotional secretary, who was unable to attend. Mrs. Goode in her message stressed the necessity of the Societies checking goal charts, the beginning of the fourth quarter, sending reports in on time, electing officers at the November meeting and mailing her the names immediately.

order literature as early as possible and have in hands of all officers by the beginning of the new year. She also asked that each Society try to secure three new subscribers to the Methodist Woman and World Outlook during the fourth quarter.

Mrs. J. P. Hornbuckle, Newton, led the noonday devotions, which was followed by communion in charge of Rev. H. M. Wellman, Wilkesboro pastor, being assisted by Rev. J. L. A. Bumgarner, Millers Creek. The offering, for starving children overseas, received at this time was $31.12.

For the afternoon session, which was opened with prayer by Mrs. Gilbert R. Combs, the district officers present spoke briefly of their work. Mrs. John B. Steele, Hickory, secretary of Missionary education; Mrs. Roy Lazenby, Statesville, Supplies; Mrs. Hornbuckle, Spiritual Life chairman, urged the women to use the book, "Great Prayers of the Bible," and to observe the "Week of Prayer"; Mrs. H. A. Poston, Mooresville, literature and publications, said the goal for the Statesville district was thirty Societies with all officers taking the two publications, Methodist Woman and World Outlook; Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, North Wilkesboro, youth work, stressed the importance of training our youth of today for tomorrow; Mrs. Lloyd Rash, Lenoir, children's work, said the children in the district had given $242.00 on the $1,200.00 the conference is raising for the Lorena Kelly piano fund. She asked for the fourth quarter that the children send boxes of canned goods to the Bethlehem house at Winston-Salem, also coupons; Mrs. Ross Bunch, Statesville, missionary personnel, asked the societies to send their study grant fund at once to Mrs. Forest Sharpe, the quota for the district being $600.00, and Mrs. Mack Goforth, of Lenoir, on status of women.

During the noon hour a plate lunch was served in the Community House by the hostess church. Twenty-one women attended from the North Wilkesboro society.

The battleship USS Washington, flagship of Admiral Lee in the great sea victory in the Solomons that helped save Guadalcanal five years ago, has joined the "Mothball Fleet."

Jordan-Jackson Vows Are Solemnized

The marriage of Miss Mary Kathleen Jordan and Reginald Pickens Jackson, Jr., was solemnized at 5 p. m. Saturday, September 27, at the home of Rev. Dewey L. Temple, Arlington, pastor of Arlington Baptist church, with the Rev. Temple officiating using the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of brown gabardine with matching accessories, and an orchid corsage. Her only ornament was a cameo necklace gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of B. C. Jordan, Roaring River, and the late Minnie Harris Jordan. She is a graduate of Roaring River high school and Jones Business College, High Point, and at present holds a position in the office of S. V. Tomlinson, wholesale grocer in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Jackson is the son of Mrs. Reginald P. Jackson of Roaring River, formerly of Rock Hill, S. C., and the late Mr. Jackson. He is a veteran of World War II. Having served 2 1-2 years in the European Theatre. He served in Africa, Sardinia, Corsica, Italy, England, Germany and France. He received his education in the South Carolina schools.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for an unannounced wedding trip, and upon their return they will be at home at present at Roaring River.
