SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina, Wilkes County. In the Superior Court

T. J. Frazier vs. Robert L. Huffman and The Northwestern Bank

To the defendant, Robert L. Huffman, a non-resident:

The defendant, Robert L. Huffman, in the above-entitled action, will take notice that the plaintiff in said action did, on the 31st day of October, 1947, commence an action against the said defendant in the Superior Court of Wilkes county, North Carolina, by the issuing of summons, complaint and warrant of attachment against the property of the said defendant in Wilkes county, North Carolina; that the said warrant of attachment was served by the Sheriff of Wilkes county, North Carolina, by levying upon certain property of the said defendant in the Northwestern Bank, Inc., North Wilkesboro, N. C. And that summons in said action was returned unserved as shown by the said summons.

That said action is brought by the plaintiff against the defendant, Robert L. Huffman, to recover money on contract in the amount of $2,150.00.

The defendant, Robert L. Huffman, is further notified that he is required to be and appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wilkes county, North Carolina, on or before the 30th day of December, 1947, to answer or otherwise plead to said complaint, a copy of which is deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wilkes county for the use of said defendant.

And he will further take notice that if he fails to answer or otherwise plead to said complaint on or before the day hereinbefore set forth, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief asked for therein.

This 6th day of November, 1947.

C. C. HAYES,
Clerk Superior Court
