Smith-Billings Vows Are Announced

The marriage of Miss Annie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, of North Wilkesboro, and Herbert Odell Billings, son of Mr. H. O. Billings, of North Wilkesboro, and the late Mr. Billings, took place on Saturday, August 16, at the home of Rev. Jesse Yale, who was the officiating minister. Those present for the ceremony were Mrs. Yale, and Mrs. Mable Love, of Millers Creek. The couple are now at home at 210 1 Street, North Wilkesboro.

Garden Club Met Tuesday Afternoon

The November meeting of the Garden club, a department of the North Wilkesboro Woman's club, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Forester with Mrs. R. J. Hinshaw and Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes as associate hostesses. Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, the president, was in charge of the business part of the meeting. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

For the program Mrs. Forester presented Mr. John Ford, farm forester, who made a most interesting and helpful talk on trees.

Mr. Ford, in the beginning of his most informative talk divided the tree into its different parts, its root system, trunk and crown. He told the function of each part. There are several ways of classifying trees. Some distinguish them by calling them evergreens, which do not shed leaves every year, and the deciduous trees which do.

Mr. Ford was very disturbed about the treatment we give our trees. We haven't learned to prune them properly. He says to prune a tree no stubs should be left on, they should be cut so close so that rot will not set in.

behind the newly cut places. Limbs of finger size will usually heal and leave a small callous. He brought samples to illustrate proper and improper pruning. He brought several booklets published by U. S. Department of Agriculture on the care of trees and shrubs which he gave to the members of the club.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies Extended Miss Hix

A series of parties were given for Miss Mary Moore Hix, who was married Saturday afternoon, four o'clock, to James Franklin Dalton, of Asheville, the wedding taking place at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr.

Miss Mary Louise Newton was hostess at a dinner party at the Wilkes Hotel Thursday evening honoring Miss Hix. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock with covers laid for eight. Guests, besides the hostess and honoree were Misses Pat McNeil, Lucille Casey, Harriett Crutchfield, Elizabeth McNeil, Geraldine Caldwell, and Mrs. Robert Smoak. Honor gift for the bride, whose place was marked with a corsage of white carnations, was lovely linen.

On Friday afternoon Miss Pat McNeil and Miss Lucille Casey were hostesses at a "Come-and-Sit" tea at the McNeil home on Sixth Street as a courtesy to Miss Hix. Around twenty-four guests of the younger set came at 4:30 o'clock and during the hour were served a tea course by the hostesses, who were assisted by Mrs. Russell Gray, Jr. The honoree received from the hostesses a Bride's Book and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Robert Smoak, the former Miss Gordon Reins, was also remembered with a gift. The decorations and refreshments emphasized the bridal note.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hix, grandparents of the bride-elect, gave the wedding breakfast at their home on D Street Saturday having as guests members of the bridal party and out of town visitors here for the wedding. Covers were laid for sixteen. A color scheme of yellow and white predominated in the table appointments, the dining table being spread with a yellow cloth, and the flowers furthered the accepted motif. Mrs. Jack Brame and Mrs. William Marlow, daughters of the hosts, assisted in serving the breakfast.

Mrs. Gordon Finley Book Club Hostess

Mrs. Gordon Finley was gracious hostess to the members of Friday Book club at her home on E Street Friday afternoon. Mrs. Watt M. Cooper, the president, presided for the business session, and roll call was made by Mrs. Joe E. Johnson, members responding with interesting news items. Books were exchanged during the afternoon. At the close of the meeting the guests were seated at the dining table, where a dessert course was served.

Wednesday Sewing Club Met With Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr.

A called meeting of the Wednesday Sewing club was held with Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Jr., at her home on Ninth Street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Coffey, the outgoing president, presided for the business session during which time plans for the club were discussed, and Mrs. W. J. Bason was elected as the new president. Light refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Norris Huffman Feted at Shower

Mrs. Norris Huffman, the former Miss Virginia Eller, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Eller, of Purlear, was given a kitchen and linen shower at the home of Mrs. Taft Foster with Mrs. Fred Eller as associate hostess on Wednesday evening, November 5. The entertainment for the evening was provided by the Wilkes county Entertainers, and was enjoyed by the large number of friends present. The bride received many beautiful gifts. The hostesses were aided by Mrs. Jack Eller and Mrs. Jack Triplett in serving refreshments.

Legion Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

Mesdames W. R. Absher, J. G. Bentley, Tal Barnes, Ray Barnes, W. J. Bason, Ralph Bowman and Homer Brookshire were hostesses for the monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary held at the Legion hut Monday evening. Mrs. Edward Bell was in charge of the business session. Commander Ray Stroud, of the American Legion, talked to the group on the plans of the American Legion in regards to the newly organized National Guard unit, also the plans for the district meeting of the American Legion to be in North Wilkesboro Legion hut, November 20. The Legion Auxiliary is to put on the supper for the meeting, and much time was spent in making arrangements for same. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Carl Buchanan, recording secretary, resigned from their offices. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

The hostesses for the December meeting were announced and are as follows: Mesdames Joe Barber, Walter Brewer, Edd F. Caudill, W. C. Carrington, Jake Church, Rufus Church, J. B. Carter, C. D. Coffey, Jr., A. H. Casey, and A. A. Cashion.

Euzelian S. S. Class In Monthly Meeting

The Euzelian Sunday School class of the North Wilkesboro First Baptist church met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Flake Cook at her home in Wilkesboro with Mrs. Bill Johnson as associate hostess. Mrs. Bill Miller was the devotional leader, and Mrs. Charles Manship was in charge of a Thanksgiving program. The president, Mrs. B. F. Bentley, presided for the usual routine of business. Fifteen members were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. Williamson Is Given Shower of Gifts

Twenty-three members were present for the business and social meeting of the Fidelity class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Claude Kennedy with Mrs. Roy Barnes as associate hostess. Mrs. Charles McNeil, second vice president, was in charge of the business session and the devotionals were led by Mrs. Elmer Lowe. During the social hour Mrs. A. A. Sturdivant directed some contests, and Mrs. Dwight Williamson, who is leaving to make her home in Yadkinville was given a miscellaneous shower of gifts. At the close of the evening the hostesses served refreshments.

APRICOT PORK STEAKS
Here pork shoulder steaks are baked in an apricot sauce subtly flavored with spices and lemon juice. To make the sauce: Wash 2 cups dried apricots, cover with boiling water and let soak for 1 hour. Add a few grains salt and simmer until tender. Add 1/4 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves, and cook 10 minutes longer. Flour 3 pork steaks and brown in a little hot fat. Sprinkle with salt. Pour apricot sauce over steaks, cover pan and simmer 35 minutes, or until tender. (Or bake at 350 F.) Add a little more water during cooking. Serve with apricot sauce (as is, or pressed through a sieve to make a smooth sauce.)
