

Roaring River and Dellaplane News

Services were held at Oak Forest Sunday.

In his sermon at Cranberry the second Sunday Rev. L. T. Younger outlined some of the steps in the Christian life as (1) "Babes," (2) "Disciples," (3) Believers,"

(4) "Brethren," (5) "Christians" and (6) "Saints."

The house of Henry and Lilly Parks, colored, was remodelled, not "remembered."

Mrs. Noah Jarvis, Jr., is better and able to be up.

Mrs. Carrie Church, who was buried at Brier Creek last week, used to live in this neighborhood at the Bob Martin place, back of Monroe Smither's. She was much liked.

Miss Ruth Linney has had stomach trouble, sinus trouble, and high blood pressure but seems nearly well.

"Tam" C. Bowie, who died recently, spent part of his boyhood in the Brier Creek community on the old Harrill, Carmichael, or Andrew Bryan farm. Judge Bowie was a grandson of Dr. James Calloway and Mary Carmichael Calloway; a great-grandson of Sheriff Abner Carmichael and Fanny Bryan Carmichael; and a great-great-grandson of Andrew Bryan and his wife, the former Delphia Garnett Jones. Andrew Bryan, his wife, and some others of the family are buried on the Harrill farm.
