ing a lateral on the kickoff); Freeman, of Jonesville, (carrying ball around the Rambler right end for a score); Brad Davis, (plunge through the line for the Mountain Lions' six points). The Ramblers were behind in scoring in only one game for the season—the first quarter in the game with Jonesville.

Seniors In Lineup Last Play Hartsell Game

Eight seniors were in the Ramblers' lineup for the last play of the Hartsell game, seven of whom were first stringers. The seniors playing their last Rambler game unless they enroll for another year, are: Ends Lowe and Craig; Tackles Gambill and Hubbard; Guard Danlard Foster; Quarterback Bill Whittington; Right Half Back Jack Groce. Don Pardue was the eighth senior completing the Hartsell game.

Beautiful Watch Presented Coach Adelman

Just before the second half of the game started, Captain Jack Groce presented Coach Eddie Adelman with a beautiful Lord Elgin wrist watch, a gift from the members of the football squad and the cheer leaders. This was graciously received by Coach Adelman, who said "that he didn't believe any coach could have a finer group of boys to work with than those on the Rambler team."

MORE ABOUT LIONS STARTS ON PAGE ONE

Andrews talked briefly and suggested that the club sponsor construction of a grandstand for professional baseball here this year. A club for North Wilkesboro is assured if facilities are provided, he said.

The club, at the suggestion of Staton McIver, asked the secretary to write a letter of appreciation to fire departments of the Wilkesboros for the assistance to motorists at the North Wilkesboro-Wilkesboro football game.

Wm. T. Long, Wilkesboro school principal, thanked the club for handling ticket sales at the Wilkesboro-North Wilkesboro football game.

Roy Forehand spoke briefly and suggested that the club have as guests at a future meeting the Wilkesboro football team, which closed an undefeated and untied season Friday and set a new record for a high school team in Wilkes.

Paul Cashion and Dr. Jim Willis gave a report on the Statesville Lions conference held earlier in the week, at which Melvin Jones, secretary-general and Lions founder, of Chicago, was the feature speaker, and in which there was an address by Oscar Ivanisovich, ambassador from Argentina. Those from North Wilkesboro attending were Bill Marlow, Jack Swofford, Shoun Kerbaugh, Dr. Jim Willis, W. O. Absher, Paul Cashion, Gilbert Bare, Frank Allen and Edward S. Finley.

Jim Henderson was a guest of Jim Somers and Ira T. Newton, of High Point, was the guest of Frank Stafford at the meeting Friday.

Juniors Contribute To Children's Home

North Wilkesboro council of the Junior Order is now accepting contributions to the children's home of the organization, which is located in Lexington. Last year $175.50 was contributed through the council here. In addition W. H. H. Waugh for several years has given a truck load of apples and several have helped with gathering and transportation.

All members are requested to attend the meeting Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at which time degree work will be carried out.
