Miss Lillian Hope Rhodes is bride of Clyde Revis Lowe

Miss Lillian Hope Rhodes, daughter of Mrs. Earl D. Rhodes, and the late Mr. Rhodes, of North Wilkesboro, became the bride of Clyde Revis Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lowe, Sr., of Pores Knob, on Wednesday, November 26, at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. Roger C. Gwaltney, former pastor of the groom and ex-chaplain in the Army, officiated using the double ring ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends.

Prior to the ceremony hour, Canney Len Lowe lighted the candles while Miss Marie Eller rendered a program of nuptial music.

The vows were spoken at two o'clock before an improvised altar of green with seven branched candelabra holding white candles, and flanked by tall baskets of white chrysanthemums. Attending the couple were Miss Pat Rhodes, sister of the bride, and Mr. Perry Lowe, Jr., brother of the groom.

For her nuptials the bride chose a dress of moonstone blue with brown accessories. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations centered with a white orchid.

After the rehearsal on Tuesday evening the bride's mother entertained at a cake cutting. The table covered with a lace cloth had as its centerpiece the wedding cake, encircled by fern and chrysanthemums.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida and other southern points. For travel the bride added a winter white coat and wore the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride, a 1947 graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school, is a receptionist in the office of Dr. A. C. Chamberlain.

The bridegroom, who attended the Wilkesboro high school, served 18 months in the navy part of which was in the Pacific area. He is now associated with his father in Perry Lowe Apple Orchards at Pores Knob.
