The guests, consisting mostly of friends of the two honorees, were received from four until six o'clock. Mrs. Hunt, the former Miss Myrtle Norris, and Miss Church to wed Walter Morphis, of Lexington, both received from the hostesses corsages and linen.

Friends assisting the hostesses at the tea alternated during the first and second hour. Mrs. Joe Pearson and Miss Norma Stevenson welcomed the callers at the door and receiving with the hostess trio and the two honoree guests were Mrs. Stokes Hunt and Mrs. Rufus B. Church.

Millers Creek Home Club Has Meeting

Millers Creek Home Demonstration club met July 21 at the home of Mrs. Ruff Dockery as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Q. O. Kilby and Mrs. Allen Phillips as co-hostesses. Mrs. M. F. Bumgarner, president, had charge of the devotionals and presided during the business session.

Announcement was made of the Farm and Home Week to be held at Raleigh in August; also the club to have an auction sale of home-made articles at the regular August meeting. Nineteen members were present to enjoy the splendid hospitality and lovely flowers of their hostesses.

"Know Your N. C. Property laws" was the program discussed and carried out very interestingly by our county agent Mrs. Green. Whom do you want to receive your property after you are through with it? Now is the time to make your will, or deed, while you live. Too late after you are dead.

A little wish written down in black on white, might save law suits, and lots of hard thoughts some day.

In all it was an interesting program and one that brought out many points that most of us didn't know.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments.—Reported by Mrs. W. P. Bumgarner.

Sans Souci Club Met With Mrs. Swofford

McNeil. The club presented going away gifts to two of their members, Mrs. A. H. Clark and Mrs. Fred Clark, both of whom are leaving soon for future residences at Wilmington and Charlotte.
