Presbyterians Hold Youth Retreat

"Retreating to Advance" was the theme for the Youth Retreat of the Presbyterian church held Saturday and Sunday on the Brushy Mountains at the Finley and Gwyn cottages. Around Twenty-two attended including Miss Ruth Wood, director of religious education, and the four counselors, Miss Corinne Faw, Miss Mary Lena Colvard, Sam Vickery, and Gordon Ogilvie.

The program for Saturday afternoon consisted of three planning sessions and a vesper service conducted by the pastor, Rev. Watt M. Cooper. Following the supper folk games were enjoyed.

Sunday morning Mrs. Pat Williams, Jr., taught a Sunday School class, after which the group came down for the eleven o'clock servic at the church, returning for a picnic dinner provided for by the parents. Another planning session, a hike, and a short worship service Sunday afternoon closed the retreat. Some visitors from Lansing attended the event Saturday evening.

Union W.S.C.S. Enjoys Program

The W. S. C. S. of Union Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. George Sale Monday evening, Sept. 12, with several members and two visitors present. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Claud Laws. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, dues were paid and the treasurer gave her report. The program for the evening was directed by Miss Mary Nichols, being assist-

Celebrate Their 54th Wedding Anniversary

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Welborne, of Cycle, celebrated their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary on Sunday, September 25th. Children and grandchildren spread dinner on a large table in the yard.

Open house was held from two until four p. m. The guests were received in a room decorated with begonias and sultanias by Mr. and Mrs. Locke Penniger, of Concord. Mrs. Alma Prevette presided at the register. Cake and punch were served by two granddaughters, Miss Clara Lee Hayes, of North Wilkesboro, and Miss Frances Welborne, of Greensboro.

Baker-Shepherd Vows Are Solemnized

Miss Mary Frances Shepherd, daughter of Mrs. H. F. Russell and the late Charlie Shepherd, of North Wilkesboro, and Gwyn Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Baker, of Wilkesboro, were married Friday, Oct. 7, in the home of Rev. S. L. Blevins.

The bride is a graduate of North Wilkesboro high school and is now employed at the Dixie Home Store. The groom is employed in Wilkesboro at Kennedy Pottery. The couple will make their home in Wilkesboro.

Euzelian S. S. Class In Monthly Meeting

Forty-one members attended the monthly meeting of the Euzelian Sunday School class of the First Baptist church held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jay Hartley with Mrs. Tom Jenrette, Mrs. Ben Bentley, Mrs. Robert Trogdon, and Miss Marceal Deal as co-hostesses. Mrs. Allie Hayes, the president, was in charge of the business session; Miss Deal conducted the devotions, and Mrs. Floyd Woodward, offered the prayer. Program leader, Mrs. J. H. Armfield, was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Venable and Mrs. Homer Brookshire, in presenting some thoughts from the book, Abundant Living.

The date of the meeting marked Mrs. Woodward's birthday and during the social hour, a birthday cake with lighted candles was brought in, while the group sang "Happy Birthday." Mrs. Woodward was also presented with a gift, the cake and gift both coming as a complete surprise to her. The cake was cut and served with the refreshments.

Yadkinville Theater Is Damaged By Blaze

Elkin, Oct. 4.—Fire of undetermined origin occurring in Yadkinville, Saturday night resulted in an estimated loss of five to eight thousand dollars to the owner, J. E. (Crip) Shew.

R. H. Goforth, projectionist for several years, suffered second degree burns. The projection booth equipment was a near total loss. No theater attendants were injured.

Mrs. Ed Anderson Hurt In Accident

Elizabeth City, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Ed M. Anderson of West Jefferson, president of North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Arthur W. Greene, second vice president of the organization, were injured Thursday afternoon while en route to Elizabeth City for a meeting of the Woman's Club.

The two women were rounding the curve at Morgan's Corner when their automobile skidded on the wet pavement and overturned several times, throwing Mrs. Green out of the vehicle.

According to Albemarle Hospital attaches this morning Mrs. Greene had a "very poor" night last night, while Mrs. Anderson was reported to have had a "fairly good night." The hospital officials described Mrs. Anderson's condition as about the "same."

Mrs. Greene was the most seriously hurt. She received a severe gash on the top of her head when thrown out of the car. It was reported that she received a deep gash on her skull about eight inches long, and a number of cuts and abrasions about the head and face. She also was treated for a slight concussion.

Mrs. Anderson, driver of the car, told investigating officers that she lost control of the car as it rounded the curve. The vehicle traveled about 200 feet from the point where it went into a skid and turned over. The car was completely demolished.

C. M. Welborne were greatly appreciated. Events of the day were thoroughly enjoyed by all.
