Workers Council In Dinner Meeting

The members of the Workers Council of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held a dinner meeting Monday evening at the Carolina Restaurant with covers being laid for twenty.

Following the dinner Miss Rebecca Raper, director of religious education, directed a worship period, Mr. Robert Morrow, the church school superintendent, presided for a business session, after which Rev. Russell L. Young, the new pastor, spoke to the group.

Fidelis Class Met Tuesday Night

The members of the Fidelis class of the First Baptist church held a business and social meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Rufus B. Church with Mrs. W. R. Harmon, Mrs. Claude Buchanan, and Mrs. T. J. Frazier as associate hostesses. Twenty-three members were present.

Mrs. Fred Emerson, the president, presided for the business period, Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Sr., led the devotions, and Miss Lillian Stafford conducted a quiz on the church constitution in which Mrs. J. Q. Adams was the winner of the prize. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Oakwoods W.M.S. Holds Meeting

Mrs. Mont Jones was hostess to the Women's Missionary Society of the Oakwoods Baptist church Friday evening at her home. Miss Nora Laws presided at the meeting. Following the business session a song, "Send the Light," was sung by the group. Mrs. Charles Steelman gave the devotional, followed with prayer by Miss Laws.

Mrs. Rex Stroud was in charge of the program on "Christ, the answer for the Pagan People." Discussions were by Mrs. Carl Canter, Mrs. Glenn Anderson, Mrs. Archie Anderson and Mrs. Raymond Minton. Closing prayer was by Mrs. Charles Steelman.

Mrs. Jones was assisted in serving by her daughter, Mrs. Archie Anderson.—Reported.

First Methodist To Have Mission Study

The annual fall mission study of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church will be held in the educational building Tuesday evening, October 18. "Japan Beings Again" is the theme for study to be presented by Mrs. Don Moffatt and Miss Rebecca Raper. Mrs. H. M. Bivins is to be the devotional leader.

All women of the church are urged to attend the study, which will begin at 6 o'clock, and to be held in the chapel. A buffet supper is to be served during a short intermission.

Garden Club Met Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. W. F. Gaddy, Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, and Mrs. Thurmond Kenerly combined hospitality to the members of the Garden club in their monthly meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Gaddy home in Finley Park. Fourteen members were present. Mrs. H. G. Duncan, the new president, presided for the business session during which time it was decided to have for the club theme for the year, Appreciation of Flowers.

Interesting discussions were engaged in of the recent meeting of District Two of the Garden club held here at the Woman's clubhouse and followed by a luncheon at the Carolina Restaurant. The meeting, attended by approximately seventy-two people, was featured with a talk by Dr. John T. Wayland, pastor of the First Baptist church, who spoke to the group on "Hobbies and Health." At the meeting Mrs. Edd F. Gardner was elected as president of the district and Mrs. Frank Tomlinson as secretary, both of North Wilkesboro. Special visitors at the meeting were Mrs. George W. Little, of Lilesville, first vice president of the State Garden club, who made a talk; Mrs. C. A. Graham and Mrs. Ben Smith, both of Ramseur, director and secretary of District Six. Mrs. Graham brought greetings from her district.

For the program at the meeting Tuesday Mrs. Arthur Venable told about the restoration of old buildings and gardens making special mention of the famed Colonial Ogelthorpe garden at Savannah, Ga.; a block in Little Rock, Arkansas; and some old buildings in her home town at Cheraw, S. C.

Mrs. Gardner made a talk on suitable containers and flower arrangements for various places. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.
