Lord-Leyshon Vows Are Solemnized At Plano, Illinois

The marriage of Miss Emily Julia Lord and William Edward Leyshon was solemnized in a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride's mother on Sunday evening, October 16, at six o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Arthur Lord, of Plano, Illinois, and the late Dr. Lord. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Leyshon, of North Wilkesboro, both of whom attended the wedding.

Rev. Wilbur Hopkins, pastor of the First Methodist church at Plano, conducted the double ring ceremony before a background of palms, ferns, and baskets of white chrysanthemums lighted by Cathedral candles. Only immediate families and relatives were present. The wedding music consisted of piano and violin numbers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, W. K. Hennings, was attended by her three sisters, Misses Sallie, Mimi, and Marilyn Lord as maid of honor and bridesmaids. The groom had his father for his best man.

The bride's wedding gown of ivory satin was fashioned with a basque, finished with heart-shaped neckline embroidered with seed pearls, and a full skirt with train. She wore a full length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. Her three attendants were dressed alike in American beauty velvet made with off-the-shoulder necklines and bouffant skirts. Their bouquets were also of white roses.

Following the wedding the bride's mother entertained at a dinner at a hotel in Aurora, Illinois, at which time the cake cutting was held. After a wedding trip to Florida the bridal couple are at home at Oak Ridge, Tenn. The bride, a graduate of Stephens College and the University of Wisconsin, is a research chemist at Oak Ridge, Tenn. The groom graduated from the Ohio State University, where he was a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity, and the Sigma Phi Sigma Physics Fraternity. He is employed at Oak Ridge as a nuclear physicist in research.

Social Calendar

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the Wilkesboro Methodist church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening, November eight, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Kyle Hayes with Mrs. James Bean as co-hostess.

Stemmer-Martin Vows Announced

Relatives in Wilkes have received announcements of the marriage of Miss Mary Adelaide Martin and Albert Nicholas Stemmer, which took place October 6 at Rockville, Md.

Mrs. Stemmer, who grew up in Bluefield, W. Va., is the fourth daughter of the late Dr. J. Everett Martin, native of the Delaware community, and of the late Mrs. Emma V. Baker Martin, native of Warrensville, Ashe county. She graduated from Beaver high school, Bluefield, and attended Westhampton College and the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts. She later took a secretarial course. She has been working in Washington, D. C. for several years. The bridegroom, who was in the army during World War II, is also working in Washington.

They are living at 4502 South Dakota, Ave., N. E., Washington, D. C.

The bride is a niece of the late Mrs. Laura Martin Linney and the late Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, of Roaring River, Route 2, and of Mrs. D. S. Lane, of Washington. She is a granddaughter of Capt. Augustus Martin, C. S. A., of Wilkes, and of Sheriff John Baker, of Ashe County.

"Nothing beats Italian rye-grass for a winter lawn," says John H. Harris, the "Tar Heel Gardener."

Reception Held For The Coopers

Charlotte.—A reception was held in the community house of Steele Creek Presbyterian church Wednesday night in honor of Rev. Watt M. Cooper, new pastor of the church, and his wife and son, Larry Cooper. Elaborate decorations of fall flowers and autumn leaves were used.

Those receiving were Rufus A. Grier, clerk of the session, Paul Cathey, Rev. Mr. Cooper and Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Robert E. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McGinn, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Boyles, Miss Margaret Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Rush B. Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Brown, representing the officers and various organizations of the church.

Four bowls were used for fruit punch, each banked with flowers. Cookies were also served.

At 9 o'clock Rev. and Mrs. Cooper were given an old-fashioned pounding of pantry supplies by Joe M. Boyles from members of the congregation. Three hundred or more members of the church attended the reception.

The November meeting of the Episcopal Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Harvel, Jr., the president, who presided for a business session. The devotions for the meeting were conducted by Mrs. Dudley Hill. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

The Hall Family Held Reunion Sunday

A reunion was held Sunday of the family members of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Lowe in Wilkesboro. The home was attractively decorated with roses and chrysanthemums, and at one o'clock a four course dinner was served. The guests were as follows: Mr. Fred Hall, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Robertson, Jr., all of Knightdale; Mrs. W. E. Keeter, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Keeter, Jr., and son, William III, Mr. and Mrs. James Corbett, all of Charlotte; and Mr. and Mrs. David Hall, of Wilkesboro.

Many Singers At Blue Ridge Meet

The Blue Ridge Singing Convention met with Welcome Home Baptist church Sunday, Oct. 30. Chairman T. A. Eller presided. The meeting opened with a song by the congregation and prayer by Rev. George Osborne.

The following choirs and quartets participated in the singing: Welcome Home Choir, led by Sherman Shumate; Arbor Grove Choir, led by T. A. Eller; White Oak Choir, led by Ira Pilkenton; Fishing Creek Quartet, led by C. B. Mayberry; Harmony Quartet, led by Rev. Noah Beshears; a special quartet composed of Balmer Hayes, W. A. Blackburn, T. A. Eller, and Worth Vannoy; and a special quartet composed of A. M. McGee, Balmer Hayes, W. A. Blackburn, and Joe McNeil.

Two rounds of good spiritual singing were enjoyed by a large congregation, considering the inclement weather.

The meeting closed with a congregational song led by W. A. Blackburn and prayer by Rev. Irdell Osborne. Next meeting will be held at Harmony Baptist church, January 29, 1950.

Service Hour Changed

Rev. Tommy Luffman, the pastor of New Hope Baptist church of the Gilreath community, announces the change in services time from the first Saturday and Sunday to the second Saturday and Sunday in each month.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, It has pleased God, the Master of Life, and death, to call into his eternal rest our beloved Brother Council Member, Harry Lee Mechem,

Be It Resolved, That we, the members of North Wilkesboro Council No. 51, Jr. O. U. A. M., record this memorial in acknowledgment of our grief and profound sorrow.

The "old guard" is gone—on a journey that knows no return. His presence was always felt, standing firmly for all that was loyal and right. No praise of him can be extolled too highly; it is difficult for his friends to find words of sufficient appreciation and love for his memory.

We mourn his departure, but know that we and the world are better because he lived.

His loss will be sincerely felt, especially by those rich in his love, loyalty and regard. And when his time came to go, "Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams," he passed away into eternity, and we are sure, with that rare satisfaction of having lived a life of worth-while and valuable assistance to his fellow man.

We condole with the sorrowing family and extend to them our sincerest sympathy in the hope that our Lord will extend to them the consolation of His Divine Peace.

Be It Resolved, That this resolution be extended on the memorial records of our Council and copies transmitted to the bereaved family and to the newspapers.

Respectfully submitted,
C. B. ELLER,
C. A. CANTER,
J. B. WILLIAMS,
Committee.
