Miller-Caudill Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller, of North Wilkesboro, Route One, announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Joyce, to Kiffian C. Caudill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Caudill, of Mt. Airy, on Thursday, December 22.

The bride, a graduate of Millers Creek high school, was employed at the Crest Store. Mr. Caudill holds a position with the Duke Power Sub-Station in North Wilkesboro, where they will make their home.

Pastime Club Met With Mrs. Choate

The members of the Pastime bridge club were entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Page Choate at her home in Wilkesboro. The top score prize in the game of bridge, played at two tables, went to Mrs. Flake Cook and the second high score award to Mrs. Robert Gambill. Mrs. Johnson Sanders received the bingo prize, and Mrs. Goodwin Bloomfield, a visitor of the club, was remembered with a gift. The hostess served a dessert course.

Wilkesboro Club Has Dinner Party

The members of the Wilkesboro Book club enjoyed a dinner party at the Carolina Restaurant Thursday evening at seven o'clock. Covers were laid for eight. Following the dinner the group went to the home of Miss Eloise Starr for a game of bridge.

Sunday School Class Has Party

The members of the Willing Workers Sunday school class of Welcome Home Church enjoyed a Christmas party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Dick Thompson. The second chapter of Luke was read for the devotion and several Christmas carols were sung. Games and contests were held with prizes going to Misses Geraldine Ashley, Aretta Ashley, Joan Huffman, Gwendolyn Eller, Joan Owings and Annie Lee Vannoy. Delicious refreshments were served.

Duncan-Johnson Vows December 30th

Miss Bertha Mae Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Johnson, of Oakwoods, and Mr. Shuford Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Effner Duncan, of Route 2, Wilkesboro, were united in marriage at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. J. W. Powers, in North Wilkesboro Friday evening, December 30, at 6:30 o'clock.

For her wedding the bride chose a dress of white gabardine with which she used black and white accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds at her shoulder, later adding a full length coat of Hunter green gabardine for travel.

Mrs. Duncan is a graduate of Wilkesboro high school and now holds a position with Duke Power company in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Duncan, who also attended the Wilkesboro school, has been assisting his father, who is a prominent farmer of the Oakwoods community.

Upon returning from a wedding trip to unannounced parts, the couple will be at home in their apartment near Moravian Falls.

Parsons-Phillips Vows December 27th

On Tuesday, Dec. 27, Miss Marjorie Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Parsons, of Millers Creek, became the bride of Mr. Jack Phillips, son of Mrs. Grace Phillips, of Wilkesboro.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. L. T. Younger, former pastor of the groom.

The couple left January 2 for Seattle, Wash., where Jack is serving with the Marines.

Millers Creek W. S. C. S. Meets

Millers Creek Women's Division of Christian Service met Wednesday night, Dec. 21, with Mrs. Van Caudill. The home was beautifully decorated in keeping with Christmas.

Following the business session, Mrs. Caudill delightfully entertained with a rendition of the "Christmas Story," aided by members and several girls from the community. Little Miss Dolores Foster read "The Night Before Christmas" and sang, "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

"Sunshine Sisters" were revealed and names were drawn for the coming year.

The hostess served delicious refreshments and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Music Lovers Club Has Two Meetings

The Juvenile and Junior Divisions of the Music Lovers Club held interesting Christmas meetings the latter part of December. The Juvenile group was entertained by Linda Godbey and Buddy Caudill at the Godbey home. Jessica Marlow presided for routine business, after which a program of Christmas music, customs, and stories of Carols were enjoyed. Piano solos were played by Linda Godbey, Buddy Caudill, Margaret Ann Sidden, Norma Sue Tester, and Jessica Marlow, and the group sang carols.

Nancy Sturdivant was hostess to the Junior Group, and Walter Myers, Jr., presided for the business session during which time some plans were made for the New Year. The program featured Christmas carols sung by the group, and the following played piano solos, Ginnie Brame, Nancy Sturdivant, Ann Hoover, Patricia Caldwell, and Martha Gilreath. The members also had an exchange of gifts.

Following each meeting refreshments, suggestive of the holiday season, were served with the same note being carried out in the decorations.

Wilkesboro Young People Enjoy New Year's Party

A group of Seniors in the Wilkesboro High School entertained at a New Year's Eve party in the Community House in Wilkesboro Saturday evening. Approximately fifty young people were present including Seniors in the high school and the young college set. Dancing and games were enjoyed during the evening in a festive setting of balloons and other suggestions of the New Year. Cookies, candy, and punch were served by the hostess group. Chaperones for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bryan, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foster, Miss Jeanie Gerwood, and Miss Norma Smoak.

Leonard And Pugh Vows Are Spoken At Tabor City

Tabor City, Dec. 31.—The marriage of Miss Addie Luray Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leonard of Tabor City, and Walter Battle Pugh of North Wilkesboro, son of Mrs. Addison Delbert Pugh and the late Mr. Pugh of Graham, took place this afternoon at the home of the bride. Rev. G. W. Crutchfield, pastor of the Saint Paul Methodist church, used the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a dressmaker suit of groto blue milateen with a mauve velour hat and brown accessories. Her corsage was a lavender orchid.

Mrs. Pugh attended Louisburg College and was employed at Montaldo's in Winston-Salem prior to her marriage. Mr. Pugh has been associated with the State Highway Commission in North Wilkesboro for several years. He served three years in the armed forces.

The bride formerly held a position in this city with the Spainhour's store.
