SMITH SIGNS

Temporarily Closed

Fred C. Smith, proprietor of Smith Signs, left Saturday to enroll in Neon School in New York City, where he is engaged in a course of 27 weeks in the subjects of fabrication and manufacture of neon signs.

Upon completion of the course Mr. Smith will return to his business here and will add a complete neon shop to his sign business.

Mr Smith stated here that he appreciated the patronage of customers during the several years he has been in business here, and assures them that he will be in position to render a more complete service upon his return here.

Fred Gaither Wins Guessing Contest

Fred Gaither, an employe of the North Wilkesboro postoffice, won the $59.50 Kingsdown mattress given by Rhodes-Day Furniture company for having the nearest guess of the correct weight of a pile of rocks on a Kingsdown mattress in the show window.

Mr. Gaither's guess was 595 pounds and five ounces. J. Floyd Woodward guessed 595 pounds and four ounces. The correct weight was 595 pounds and eight ounces. The mattress immediately went back into original shape when the load of rocks was removed.
