Batchelor-Combs Vows Solemnized

Wallace, May 6 — Miss Edith Batchelor of the Young Women's Christian Association Residence, Greensboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Batchelor, became the bride of William S. Combs of 218 North Cedar Street, Greensboro, son of Willie Combs of North Wilkesboro and the late Mrs. Combs, at 7 o'clock last night at Cypress Creek Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Gresham, pastor, heard the

Mrs. Sam Gurgenus of Richlands, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elma Batchelor, sister of the bride, and Miss Hazel Cole; both of Greensboro. Music was by Mrs. Frank Jones and Rifton Raykesbor.

Burnis Cockran of Draper was best man. Raymond C. Stiles of Wadesboro and Robert Brant of Greensboro ushered.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon marquisette styled with a fitted bodice which had a yoke of lace outlined in a ruffled lace bertha and long sleeves of lace, a full skirt with a plupl of lace at the waistline and a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a satin crescent studded with seed pearls and clustered with orange blossoms. She wore pearls and carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

A frock of light blue organdy styled after that of the bride was worn by the matron of honor with nylon mitts and an arm bouquet of white roses. The pink and green organdy gowns of the bridesmaids were similar. They carried arm bouquets of roses.

Mrs. Combs is employed by Sears, Roebuck and Company and the bridegroom is employed by Duke Power Company. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home at 419 North Edgeworth Street, Greensboro.

Miss Mary Hulet James Galloway Exchange Vows

Miss Mary Corpening Hulet, daughter of Mrs. Faye Hulet, of Charlotte, was married to James Caswell Galloway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louise A. Galloway, of Charlotte, on Saturday afternoon, May 13th, at four o'clock at the First Methodist church in North Wilkesboro. Rev. Russell L. Young, pastor of the church, officiated using the double ring ceremony, the vows being spoken before a background of ferns, baskets of white gladioli, and white candles in floor candelabras.

Before the ceremony hour Miss Lois Scroggs, organist, played a program of wedding music which included Debussy's "Clare de Lune," "Indian Love Call", and Schubert's "Ave Maria", and a sounded muted notes of "Schubert's Serenade" as the vows were spoken. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin was used for the processional and the wedding march from Midsummer Night's Dream for the recessional.

Entering the church together the bride and groom were unattended. The ushers were Don Coan, brother-in-law of the groom; Frank S. Worthington and Dick Rudisill, all of Charlotte; Frederick Gaddy and Gilbert Wendland, both of North Wilkesboro.

The bride wore a Sapphire blue summer satin suit with high turn-back collar, self-buttoned fitted bodice and full circular skirt. Her hair-tip veil was worn with a matching tufted satin halo, and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and white satin streamers having stephanotis and lily-of-the-valley at the ends.

Mrs. Hulet, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Galloway, mother of the groom, chose a navy dress, black accessories, and had a corsage of white roses.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gaddy in Finley Park honoring the wedding party. Later the couple left for a wedding trip south, and upon their return will make their home in Charlotte. For traveling the bride wore a navy gabardine suit with navy and white accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

The bride, a native of the state of Washington, was reared in North Wilkesboro, and for the past six years has been a laboratory technician for the Gilmour-Hodges Clinic in Charlotte. The groom, a native of Georgia, was reared in Tennessee, and is now sales manager for Delph Hardware Company in Charlotte. He was a First Lieutenant in World War II, serving in the European Theater with 766 Field Artillery Battalion.

The Reception
At the reception guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Gaddy and receiving with Mrs. Hulet were the bridal couple, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Coan, Messrs. Robert and Ed Galloway, and members of the wedding party. Miss Cora Caudill directed to the dining room where Mrs. Edd F. Gardner and Mrs. Gwyn Caudill presided at the bride's table. Assisting in serving the wedding cake and ices, which carried a color note of green and white, were Mrs. Paul Cox, Mrs. Hyde Waller, Mrs. Frederick Gaddy, Misses Geraldine Gaddy and Nellie Gabriel.

Mrs. J. B. McCoy showed the way to the guest register which was in charge of Mrs. Russell L. Young, and good-byes were said to Mrs. R. J. Hinshaw.

In the dining room the decorations featured the bridal motif while elsewhere about the home mixed flowers were used. The dining table, spread with a white cut-work Maderia cloth, had for its centerpiece an arrangement of white gladioli and snapdragons about which green candles gleamed in two silver triple candelabra. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

"DIRTY POLITICS!"

Who Is Responsible?

1. The Lawbreakers who get rich when the law is not enforced.
2. Citizens who sell for money their blood-bought American right to vote.
3. Politicians and officeholders who are in league with and responsible to the lawbreakers.

But Mainly Responsible Are:

4. The good citizens who cry out "dirty politics" and then refuse to, or neglect to exercise their rights as citizens.

What Good Are You When You Are Good For Nothing? (Read Matthew 5:13-16)

WOMEN! If your house were filthy dirty, would you gather your skirts about you and go out the door and slam it behind you? You might feel like it, but you wouldn't do it, because it's your house and the home of those you love.

MEN! If your field was full of weeds, would you neglect it and go fishing?

Wilkes County Is Your Home and Your Field.

The majority of the citizens of Wilkes County are good citizens. It is high time that they exercised their franchise and cleaned up this county.
