Carpenter-Hodges Vows Exchanged

Miss Louise M. Hodges, daughter of Mrs. Bertha R. Hodges, of Moravian Falls, became the bride of Troy Edwin Carpenter, of Lincolnton, on Thursday afternoon, June 1, 5:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride.

Rev. C. C. Holland, a former pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony. Latham Carpenter, brother of the groom, and Mack Brock, a cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. The ring bearers were also cousins, Mrs. Mack Reavis and Walter Revis.

The bride and groom entered the room together. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of ferns and gladioli, with seven-point candelabra on each side and on the mantle.

The bride wore a white taffeta gown, cornered with a velvety organza, designed with a portrait neckline, outlined with a bertha collar. A fitted bodice was above a full skirt that extended ballerina length into 5 scolops. Her white hat was a halo effect with a shoulder length veil attached. She wore white mitts, and carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and sweetpeas.

The mother of the bride chose a summer dress of soft rose and wore a bouquet of white carnations at her shoulder.

The mother of the groom wore a white suit with accessories to match, with a shoulder corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Carpenter is a graduate of Wilkesboro High School, and is a student in Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Mr. Carpenter has a B. S. degree from Lenoir-Rhyne college and plans to teach in the public schools.

For going away the bride changed to a two piece blue and green suit with blue accessories and wore a corsage of rose buds.

After a wedding trip to Western North Carolina and parts of Virginia, the couple will be at home at Moravian Falls.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Z. S. Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Max Mosteller, of Lincolnton, Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, of Kings Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Lathan Carpenter, of Dallas; Mrs. Gene Terres, Lincolnton, and Mr. S. L. Carpenter, of Lincolnton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Revis and Miss Blanche Revis, of Charlotte.

A reception followed the wedding. The dining table was spread with a white cloth, centered with a wedding cake topped by the miniature bride and groom. The bride cut the first slice of the cake and it was finished for serving by Mrs. Perry Lowe. Others who assisted in serving were Mrs. Mack Revis, Mrs. Myrtle Fletcher, and Mrs. Floyd Jennings.

HAWAII VOLCANO VIOLENT AGAIN

STREAMS OF INCANDESCENT LAVA flow down the side of Hawaii's Mauna Loa, one of the world's most active volcanoes, as the famous crater erupts for the second time within 17 months. Two native fishing villages on the coast were completely engulfed by the white-hot mass of steaming lava which flowed down a 100-foot cliff into the ocean. Late reports indicated no immediate casualties. (International Radiophoto)
