

• SOCIAL NEWS •

Clubs, Parties, Church Activities, Etc.

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL — EDITOR

Miss Patsy Hawkins Dean L. Minton Married Wednesday

Moravian Falls Baptist church, of which the groom is pastor, was setting for the wedding of Miss Patsy Ruth Hawkins and the Reverend Dean Lincoln Minton which was solemnized on Wednesday, June 28, at five o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wade Cornelius Wallace, of North Wilkesboro, are the bride's guardians, with whom she has made her home for a number of years, Mrs. Wallace being her aunt. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Lincoln Minton, of North Wilkesboro.

Dr. John T. Wayland, pastor of the North Wilkesboro, First Baptist church, was the officiating minister, using the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large assemblage. Seven-branched candelabras with gleaming white tapers, and floor baskets of white gladioli and Shasta daisies centered with a white arch, entwined with ivy, was arranged before a background of fern. The ivy was also used on the choir rail.

Mrs. C. H. Pardue, pianist, and Mr. Joe Brewer, soloist, provided wedding music. In prelude Mrs. Pardue played "Indian Love Call" (Friml), "Traumerie" (Schumann), "Poem" (Friebich), "Romance" (Rubenstein), "Liebes-traum" (Listz), and "Serenade" (Schubert). Mr. Brewer sang "O Promise Me" (DeKoven), "Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" (Mendelssohn), and as a benediction "O Perfect Love" (Barnby). The Pianist sounded muted notes of "To a Wild Rose" (McDowell) as the couple pledged their vows, and used the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional.

Mr. Wallace gave his niece in marriage, Mrs. Trealy Harrold, North Wilkesboro, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor; Miss Francis Harris, North Wilkesboro; and Miss Velma Church, Purlear, were bridesmaids, Martha Harrold, daughter of the matron of honor, and Rita Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Summers, North Wilkesboro, were junior bridesmaids.

Rev. Carl Troy Woodbury, Wake Forest, was best man for the groom; Rev. Lloyd Garner, High Point; Rev. Victor Watts, Purlear; Richard Lee Hawkins, Albany Georgia, brother of the bride; and Dwight Nichols, North Wilkesboro, uncle of the groom, served as ushers.

The bride wore a gown of white faille taffeta fashioned with a yoke of nylon marquisette edged with imported lace, fitted bodice fastened down front with self

DOCTOR GOT THEIR TONSILS BUT NOT THEIR SHOES

FEELING AS WELL AS MIGHT BE EXPECTED under the circumstances, the Hynes triplets and the MacBarron twins were quite willing to leave their tonsils at the Carney Hospital, Boston, Mass., but they just refused to part with their soles. Getting set to leave the institution the children (l. to r.) are: Marilyn, Carol and Patsy Hynes, and Hugh and Judy MacBarron, all four years old and all from South Boston. (International) sage of red carnations. A green and white note was carried out in the refreshments, and to further the bridal motif the sandwiches were in diamond and heart shapes.

Miss Hawkins gave a luncheon at her home on D Street Friday complimenting her wedding attendants. A two course luncheon was served at one o'clock with covers laid for eight. Appointments for the small tables, where the guests were seated, emphasized a color motif of yellow and green in keeping with the costume colors of the bridal attendants. The gift at each plate, for the honorees, was tied with green ribbon, while yellow flowers centered the tables. Following the luncheon Mrs. Trealy Harrold, matron of honor for the bride-to-be, was hostess at a theatre party taking the luncheon group to the Liberty to view the picture "Father of the Bride," and later to a drugstore for refreshments.

UP AND UP AND UP
Federal expenditures have risen from $3.4 billion in 1930 to $9.3 billion in 1940 and $42 billion in 1950.

Production of rough rice in the Philippines last year surpassed by a considerable margin the record of a year earlier.

LIN BUMGARNER
3 Miles West on Highway 421
Phone 26-F-21, North Wilkesboro

FOR GOODNESS SAKE!
DON'T MISS 'EM'

Not Just A Few Dozen — But 300
MEN'S COOL-SOLAR
SRAWS
TO BE SOLD
FRIDAY and SATURDAY
At This
Amazing Low Price!
1.98

We bought too many, the manufacturer doubled our order, through error. Our manager called the mills. They offered to do two things—let us return them, or sell the hats for less—Result is you get the hats at a terrific saving—Friday and Saturday.

150 LITTLE BOY'S KNIT SUITS $1
Striped Shirt, Plain Color
Shorts — Size 3 to 6

SOMETHING'S COOKING AT...
PENNEY'S
THE STORE THAT THRIFT BUILT

covered buttons, long sleeves ending in calla points at the hands, and a full skirt falling into full length train. The three-tiered veil of imported illusion was worn with a coronet of handmade miniature calla lilies, and the bride's only ornament was a gold hair-loom pin, which belonged to her paternal grandmother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses tied with white satin ribbon.

Nile green taffeta, designed similar to that of the bride's dress, was worn by all the bride's attendants with green net mitts, and headdresses of small coronets of Nile taffeta and net with band of daisies across the back of the head. They had cascade bouquets of Shasta daisies tied with yellow satin ribbon. The senior attendants wore four strand pearl chockers, and the junior attendants a single strand of tiny pearls, all gifts of the bride.

Mrs. Wallace, aunt of the bride, wore a pure silk white print dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink gladiolias, while the groom's mother chose a two-piece navy blue crepe dress with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

There was no reception but immediately following the ceremony the bride and groom and members of their wedding party received in the vestibule of the church. Later in the evening the bridal couple left for a short wedding trip through the mountains of Western North Carolina, and upon their return will be at home at Moravian Falls in the apartment in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Steelman.

For travel the bride changed to a beige black print dress, of pure dye silk, with small black wool cape, lined with material matching the dress. She wore black accessories and pinned at her shoulder a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The bride, who graduated from the North Wilkesboro high school with a diploma in music, plans to enter Wake Forest College in the fall. The groom, also a graduate of North Wilkesboro high school, attended Mars Hill College, and is a senior at Wake Forest College.

Out of Town Guests
Among the guests from out of town attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Cathey, Statesville; Mrs. Dessie Hawkins, Nitro, Va.; Mr. Richard Lee Hawkins, Albany Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson and Miss Becky Johnson, Savannah, Georgia, Rev. and Mrs. Carl T. Woodbury, Carol and Carl Woodbury, Jr., Wake Forest; Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd Garner, High Point; Mrs. Hubert Bullis and Miss Gay Bullis, Joppa, Md.

Cake Cutting Party
On Tuesday evening following the rehearsal Mr. and Mrs. Wade C. Wallace, uncle and aunt of the bride, entertained at a cake cutting party at their home on D Street honoring the bridal couple and members of their wedding party. Other guests included family members, out of town guests, and a few close friends, having approximately fifty present.

The dining table, laid with a white cutwork cloth, was decorated with white flowers, white candles, and greenery. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by Mrs. Cleve Beshears, Mrs. A. F. Kilby poured punch, and helping with the serving were Misses Peggy Harris, Doris Ann Godbey and, Jean Summers. Others assisting at the party were Mrs. Claude Buchanan and Mrs. W. R. Harmon. A green and white note was used throughout in the dining room, while elsewhere about the home mixed garden flowers made a colorful setting.

Miss Patsy Hawkins Shown Courtesies

To honor Miss Patsy Hawkins, who on Wednesday, June 28, was married to Rev. Dean L. Minton, of this city, Mrs. Harry Summers and her daughter, Miss Jean Summers, entertained at a one o'clock luncheon last Thursday at their home on F Street. Covers were laid for sixteen at four small tables attractively decorated with mixed summer blossoms. Miss Hawkins received from her hostesses a gift of china and a corsage of white gladioli.

On Thursday afternoon, from five to six, Miss Frances Harris received around twelve guests at her home north of the city at a Coca-Cola party honoring Miss Hawkins. Miss Harris presented the honoree with linen and a cor-

RED-BLOODED YOUTH AGAINST THE MONSTERS OF AN ATOMIC AGE!

LARRY BUSTER CRABBE

ROCKET SHIP

EXTRA ATTRACTION!
"Wild Men Of Kalahari"
THIS SENSATIONAL PROGRAM SHOWING SUNDAY ONLY

A WEIRD ADVENTURE
TRIP THRU SPACE
IN AN ATOM-POWERED ROCKET SHIP

THE FIRST GREAT STORY OF WORLD WAR II

The 14 days America will never forget!

MONDAY and TUESDAY

WAKE ISLAND

Special 4TH OF JULY Program

"WAKE ISLAND" with BRIAN DONLEVY
Macdonald Carey · Robert Preston and Albert Dekker · William Bendix · Walter Abel
Directed by John Farrow · Screen Play by W. R. Burnett and Frank Butler

See These Great HOLIDAY WEEK PROGRAMS IN COOL COMFORT

LIBERTY