Miss Naomi Broyhill Harold W. Parks Married Saturday

Little Rock Baptist church was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday, July 15, at 6:30 o'clock in the morning. Miss Naomi Broyhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Broyhill, of Hillsboro, was united in marriage to Harold Wellborn Parks, son of Mrs. Felix L. Parks, and the late Mr. Parks, of Roaring River. Rev. W. Eller, pastor of Little Rock Baptist church, officiated using the impressive double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken in a candlelight setting of green and white before a white ivy-twined arch. Tall floor baskets of giant white gladioli, interspersed with Boston ferns were arranged around the altar, and floor candleabra held tall tapers. Bows of white satin ribbon marked the special pews.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Betty Broyhill, pianist, and Mrs. William E. Stevens, Jr., of Lenoir, as soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, David Parks, who was his brother's best man. Ushers were Herbert H. Greaves, of Greensboro, and Vernon Broyhill, of Boomer.

Mrs. John Andrews of Boomer, was matron of honor for her sister, and serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Greer, of Lenoir, sister of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Alexander, of Wilkesboro and Winston-Salem, a niece of the groom.

The bride wore a gown of duchess satin with a neckline fashioned with a deep bertha of French lace and seed pearl banding a bridal illusion was fastened to a coronet embroidered with seed pearls matching the yoke of her dress. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid, lilies of the valley and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls which she wore as a necklace. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo with a large rounded collar, a fitted bodice, and a full skirt. She carried a nosegay of white gladioli, and the two bridesmaids wore dresses of white silk with a large rounded collar, a fitted bodice, and a full skirt. The bride's mother, wearing a dinner dress of rose crepe with white ribbons, had a corsage of white rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother chose a dinner dress of blue lace, white gloves, and a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to the mountains of Western North Carolina. For travel the bride changed to a mauve and silk shantung suit with white accessories, and pinned at her shoulder the orchid from her prayer book. After their return the couple will be at home in Roaring River.

The bride was graduated from the Wilkesboro High school and the Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. The groom, a graduate of the Roaring River high school and Lees McRae College at Banner Elk, served in World War II. He is now employed by the Chatham Manufacturing Company in Elkin.

For the reception the Broyhill home was artistically arranged with white gladioli and mixed summer flowers, while the bridal colors, green and white predominated in the dining room. Mrs. J. M. Broyhill directed the guests to the gift room where Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McGlammy received. Mrs. L. W. Boddie and Mrs. R. J. Stevens presided at the punch bowl, and assisting with the serving were Mrs. Ralph Swanson, Mrs. James B. Wintree, Mrs. Dick Dudley, Mrs. Clifton Broyhill, Misses Mary Charles Alexander and Mary Sue Henderson. Mrs. C. G. Glass was in charge of the bride's register, and good-byes were spoken to Rev. and Mrs. Dowd Bangie. Others assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Broyhill.

The bride's table was covered with a handsome maderia cut-work cloth with tall white tapers in crystal holders at each end, and centered with a lovely three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Streamers of white satin ribbon used with the traditional tokens added much beauty to the appointments.

NEBRASKA SCENIC SPOT INUNDATED

FLOODWATERS THAT HAVE ALREADY claimed the lives of five Nebraskans and caused damage likely to run into the millions, have inundated these water gardens at Beaver Crossing, Neb. The flash flood, which charged down the Big Blue River, forced the evacuation of approximately 300 persons in the affected areas.

A new fruit spread for smooth creamed texture which may be kept without refrigeration has been developed from fruit juice and honey. The spread was developed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
