H. H. HELPER.-This gentleman fig ares extensively in our advertising col umns this week as special agent for th Connecticut Mutual Life and the North Carolina Home (Fire) Insurance Companies. Mr. Helper is well known to the citizens of this part of the State as an amiable and clever gentleman as well as an honest and an energetic business man. The companies who have engaged his services could not have procured the services of one more fitted to their business, and we hope he will have the success which the merits of the companies and his own efforts will deserve.

The Connecticut Mutual is believed to be equal to any Life Insurance Company in the United States in every respect. Of the North Carolina Company the Raleigh Standard of a recent date speaks as folation a little over four months, it has already issued considerably more than three hundred policies, and the number every day is rapidly increasing. This is a subcitizen of the Old North State. Every man who feels an interest in the future of this State should give his unhesitating support to this home company. It has already proven itself a success beyond a peradventure, and now is the time for the people to come forward to its support. It is a home institution in the fullest sense of the word, and is one of the many such which we need at the South, which will keep thousands of dollars in cash at home to be immediately dispensed again amongst our people within our own State, which if not entrusted to this company, must go to fill the coffers of the companies North and Northeast. You can depend upon this as fully as any company doing business in the State, as it is in every way worthy your support and confidence.— Then let every North Carolinian give his patronage to this reliable Home Company, and we will have an institution at home of which every citizen of the State, will have reason to feel proud. It is the only Home Fire Insurance Company in the State and we appeal to the State pride of our people to come forward at once and give their support to this most reliable Home Institution and make it the Ætna of the South."

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Atlantic and N. C. R. R. Company took place in Beaufort last week. The old officers were re-elected.

The Company voted in favor of consolidation. Col. William J. Clark appeared as State's proxy, appointed by Governor Holden, but the Stockholders recognized the right of C. L. Harris, Esq., Superintendant of Public Works, to represent the State. Col. Harris, we are informed Clark was opposed to it; hence the action at the meeting of the Stockholders of the Road at this place next week. If the right of Col. A REMINISCENCE.-We were shown a few days since, by Mrs. David McLean, some interesting relics of a past age in the shape of ball tickets found among the papers of the late Miss Holland of this place. They embraced various periods of time from 1803 to 1820, and to them were appended the names of some of the most distinguished citizens of the olden time as SPECIAL TERMS.-His Honor, Judge ball managers. Among these were the Brooks will hold special terms of the U. names of Gen. John Steele, of Revolution-S. District Court for the Cape Fear Dis- ary memory, Dr. Stephen L. While looking over them and lamenting that society is far from being what it was in those days, we could but remark that if society had not improved the art of printing had. The typography of the tickets, as compared with what we see now-a-days, is quite rude.

CONSOLIDATION .- We had intended to have written an article on this subject this week, but the communication of President Smith, who has evidently paid much attention to the subject, contains a much abler argument against consolidation than any we could have made. We therefore all concerned to the able and conclusive argument of Mr. Smith which appears in our columns this week.
