

The Old North State

HALSBURY FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1871

THE TAXATION QUESTION

Many think that under the present constitution of the State the Legislature is compelled to levy a tax sufficient, not only to defray the expenses of the State Government but for the "prompt payment of the interest on the public debt."...

A careful reading of the above section will show that the Legislature is not confined to taxation alone whereby to meet the interest on the public debt; but that it may also, and first, resort to "appropriate legislation."...

CLOSE OF THE IMPERIAL TRIAL

On the 17th inst. the Imperial Trial closed with the conviction of the Emperor and Empress. The Emperor was sentenced to life imprisonment, and the Empress to 15 years.

THE CONVENTION BILL

On Tuesday the vote was taken in the House of Representatives on the convention bill. The bill was passed by a vote of 70 to 40.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION

The election in New Hampshire last week resulted in a complete political revolution in that State. The Democrats elected all three of the Representatives in Congress and both Houses of the Legislature.

A NOBLE EXAMPLE

A young man in Western North Carolina who had, by hard labor, acquired some money, which he had invested by loaning it to his neighbors and taking their notes therefor, entered in the first regiment that left North Carolina for the scene of conflict in the late civil war.

THE BANKRUPT LAW

We learn that Hon. James M. Leach, representative from the 5th District, has introduced a bill to amend the Bankruptcy Law so as to make the State exemptions of 1869 the exemptions under said law.

A SENATOR SWINGING ON A GATE

Says the Washington correspondent of the Norfolk Journal in his last letter: "I have some facts to relate about Senator Pool of North Carolina, which, if true (and I am assured they are) do not reflect creditably upon his official character."

THE DEATH OF GEN. CHAUVIN

General Chauvin was sent with a large body of troops to Montserrat to suppress the demonstration there. The troops, however, the most part went over to the insurgents, and Chauvin was taken to the Garden of the Roses, where the Central Revolutionary Committee was sitting, and after a short trial, was shot.

THE FUNDING SYSTEM

Mr. Boutwell begins on Monday next his effort at new loans, when he attempts the redemption at the pleasure of the Government. It is proposed to redeem these 5-20's by the sale of bonds drawing 5, 4, and 4 per cent.

THE WAR IN EUROPE

THE REVOLUTION IN PARIS

London, March 20.—The general tenor of the Paris news indicates that the National Guards and insurgents still fraternize.

GRANT TO BELAND ON THE SHELF

Speaking of the Grant-Seward rupture, the New York Sun says: "Of course no sensible Republican doubts that this quarrel has destroyed the last vestige of a chance for the re-union of the party."

WHISKERS

The address of the Lancaster Zephyr Gazette says that it would soon receive news of a visit of a single man, or allow a man whatever he likes her, to which the New Orleans Times somewhat indignantly replies: "We don't believe a word of it."
