July 9, 1836-6w51 Tempting to the Enterprising

THE Subscriber offers for sale on advantageous terms, his Real Estate on the South Yadkin River, called RICHMOND HILL, containing about 800 ACRES of excellent Land, for all the purposes of Husbandry, viz . for Cotton, Wheat Rye, Oats, and Indian Corn .- There is also, a good proportion of first rate meadow land; A good country Residence, and all the usual Outhouses.

And what is no small consideration in our latitude, it is undeniably healthy. But the greatest value of said property consists in the immensity of its WATER POWER, and the great convenience of commanding it: Including as it does, the Celebrated Fulls of the South Yadkin River, 18 feet fall can be had in a distance of 100 yards, and a firm rock foundation for Facry or Mill Seats. There is already a good GRIST AND SAW MILL of Cast Iron machinery, at the end of a race of three quarters of a mile long, all in the best style and newly repaired. The dam, which is at the head of the falls, is pinned down to the solid rock bottom with iron bolts, and is considered impregnable. Any one at a single view, must say, that more power can be here brought into use at a less expense than any other place in the southern country.
