The Fayetteville Observer says -" In the 2d District it is reported that John W Ellis, loco, may be a candidate in opposition to Col. Barringer, the late member."

It is true, this report is common, in this part of the District: but we are not aware that Mr. Ellis is especially prominent as the expected opponent of Mr. Barringer. Mr. Chas. Fisher, is, we think, quite as much talked of. We have also heard mentioned the name of Daniel Coleman, Esq., in this connection; so that, upon the whole, it is quite uncertain who will be the loco candidate.

Statue to Henry Clay at Richmond. The Whig ladies of Virginia are earnestly engaged in carrying out their purpose of erecting a statue to Henry Clay at the capital of his native State. The ladies of some of the other State are manifesting a desire to unite in this worthy enterprise. The Richmond Whig contains a letter from Mr. Thomas S. Dadney, of Raymond, Mississippi, in which was enclosed a draft for one hundred dollars, as the subscriptions of his wife and daughters to the great object in view.

Almost a Row.—The Loco Focos held a meeting yesterday, pursuant to notice, to bring out a candidate for Congress in this District, vice Gen. Saunders. As soon as the meeting was organized, Mr. B. B. Smith rose and proposed James B. Shepard, Esq. as the nominee of the meeting. Whereupon, as we learn, Mr. MacRae rose and protested most vehemently against Mr. Shepard's being nominated-said it would not do at all, &c. &c. Some of the leaders, seeing there was about to be a row, moved an adjournment, which was decided by acclamation, and the meeting adjourned with out action .- Raleigh Register.

From what we hear of current reports, removals from office by the Executive, here and elsewhere, are now going on. We are not able to chronicle them, for some reason or other, the removals and appointments are not published by authority any where, and we hardly know what to believe of what we hear .- Nat. Int.

Steamboat Explosion .- The steamboat Columbia, on her trip from Albany to New York on Sunday last, burst a hole in one of her boilers, when near Van Wie's point. Several persons were severely scalded.

THE RAIL ROAD.

the more we are impressed with its feasibility and importance to Western North Carolina. State pride would make us wish to see our own towns built up by the resources of our State; but from our location it seems as if nature intended Charleston to be the great outlet of the surplus that can be sent from this and the western portion of the State and portions of Tennessee as well as Virginia. And because our own State cannot be benefitted should we neglect to avail ourselves of any favorable opportunity to try and better our condition. Certainly not. Then, we cannot too strongly urge upon the citizens of Mecklenburg and of all Western North Carolina, the importance of the scheme Dr P Henderson 2, Catharine Howard, J W Hartman, and the deep interest they have at stake at the final accomplishment of the undertaking. What would be the benefits likely to accrue to this part of our State from its success? In the first place it would Abey McKinzie, Elizabeth Moore, AC McLeand, enhance the value of real estate in a direct ratio with its distance from the terminus. It would be the means of creating a denser population. Plantations now lytated and delapidated and decayed buildings, would be rebuilt, and a thriving and prosperous population would exhibit itself in every section, and in fine, every class in society would feel its revivifying effects, for we are not one of those who think Charlotte will be the only town that will be benefited.

We regret to find that there are some who, being unfavorable to the Road, predict that it cannot be accomplished. Why cannot the road be brought to Charlotte? Charlotte grater than between Columbia and Charleston? From all the informavor of the location of a road from Camden to Charlotte than it was between Columbia and Charleston. Yet by proper exertions every obstacle was overcome, and the road now stands as a lasting monuthe company to the good of that commu- will be given to punctual dealers.

While there are some in our own community opposed to the construction of the road because it will operate, as they think, against their pecuniary interest, yet we rejoice to hear of many to the west of us who will come to our aid with the utmost stanch old farmers but will be willing to duce, and their is not much prospect of an increase, does not clear their expences .then to have an opportunity of aiding in so debt. (Prs. fee $5-47:6t) JOHN CLEMENT. glorious an undertaking and paying in work is an inducement which few should slight, especially when they are the class in the community which will derive the greatestbenefit.

coldness is manifested which we very much regret. Every man cannot have a rail road at his door, neither can every town have one, yet there is a certain impetus given to business in the neighborhood of every market town which will communicate itself to the surrounding country, and although we are not prepared to say what benefit will accrue to our sister towns, yet we believe they will be benefitted by a rail road coming to Charlotte, instead of being injured; and although they may not be induced to contribute to the undertaking, we hope they will not oppose it.—Charlotte Journal.

CLASSICAL & AGRICULTURAL BC EECO CDE

Valle Crucis lead of Wataga River, Ashe Co., North Carolina.

The Rt. Rev. L. SILLIMAN IVES, Supervisor. The Rev. WILLIAM THURSTON, Rector. The Rev. HENRY H. PROUT, Chaplain.

THE Proprietors of this School were led to its establishment by the following considerations:

In the South-west corner of Ashe county, where the School is situated, there is a populous Valley, unsurpassed in salubrity of climate, richness of soil, and beauty of natural scenery -surrounded, as it is, by sloping hills, deep glens, and lofty mountains, presenting, at once, all that is inviting to the lover of nature, or to the practical Agriculturist. A valley, not pent up by rocky barriers, but of easy access-opening in every direction, through free mountain passes to the large districts of similar country in the adjacent counties of Caldwell, Yancey, and Carter in East Tennessee. But a valley, like the whole region around it-though peopled by a generous and naturally intelligent race -sorely oppressed with the evils of ignorance upon every subject connected with the true interests of man here, or his hopes hereafter; and destitute of means in itself to remedy these evils -to develope its abundant, natural resources, and to recover and elevate its depressed and suffering population. After sufficient, personal acquaintance with this state of things, aided by the careful observations of a resident Missionary, the Bishop of the Diocese has considered it an imperative duty to make an immediate effort to secure to this needy country, the blessings of Christian Education in all its more essential branches.

In doing this, however, it was believed that another important interest in the State might be eminently subserved. That the Schools in our towns and villages are, from their mere position. exposed more or less to peculiar temptations to vice, extravagance and insubordination, is a matter, from painful experience, generally admitted. This has led to the establishment in the country of a number of excellent Schools already. An additional one, it was thought, might, in a still more eminent degree, be freed from the evils complained of, if situated in a Mountain district, remote from all public haunts, at the same time, uniting in its position, health, cheapness, and rural sports and occupations calculated to develope the physical, while they strength. en the mental energies, and thus contribute to a sound and healthy constitution. In connection with this, another no less interesting object has had its influence. The low state of our Agriculture, particularly in the Middle and Western por tions of the Diocese, is, on all sides, recognised and deplored; but with no decided public effort for a favorable change. Our young men, instead of being educated with a view to this honorable, independent, and salutary pursuit, usually come from our Colleges, impressed with the notion, that no gentleman can, in the true sense of the term, be a Farmer. A School, therefore, estab. lished in that of the State, where land and free labor are cheap, and where every advantage is enjoyed for connecting with such an Institution. at the least expense and the greatest facility, an Agricultural Department, seemed in the highest degree, desirable. The Proprietors, therefore, were willing, under what appeared to them a duty of peculiar urgency, to undergo some risk in the undertaking. But they did not hesitate to believe that the people of North Carolina would sustain them in it; -that Parents, in the more settled portions of the country, when they contemplated the substantial advantages of the proposed School to their own sons, would give it their countenance, so far at least, as to entrust to the care of its founders, a sufficient number of these sons, to enable them to extend the blessings of a thorough Education in letters, Agriculture and the Religion of Christ, to one of the most needy, as well as the most fertile and beautiful sections of the State. They determined, therefore, to enter at once and with energy into the project.

To carry out the determination, they have purchased a Farm of some 600 acres-nearly. 100 cleared-embracing the entire Valley, (called Valle Crucis,) where it is situated-less than a mile from the main Valley of Wataga. Upon this Farm is a Grist and Saw Mill already, and plain buildings to accommodate from 40 to 50 persons, to be completed and paid for by the

In respect to Farming, every pupil will be required to labor just sufficient to give him a knowledge of the application of its principles. In short, it will be an object with the School to make the Pupils acquainted, so far as possible. by practice, with the use of every Science taught.

The clothing of the Pupils will be required to be neat, but made of cheap domestic stuffs, suited to the place and the objects of the School .-As no Shops or Stores are near, a supply of all necessary articles, embracing Books and Stationary, will be kept at the School, and sold just as they can be afforded.

To ensure a proper attention to the manners and comfort of the boys, there will be connected with the establishment a number of well-educated ladies-the wives and daughters of Clergymen and Teachers, with others belonging to the Missionary family, within sight of the school the subscriber, MICHAEL BROWN.

There will be no vacation in the school, more than the Christmas and Easter Holidays, with now and then a day, as circumstances and the merits of the Popils may suggest.

For a term of twelve months, and for instruction, board, washing and fuel, and every incidental expense except bed, books, stationary, and clothing, the charge will be 125 dollars—in all cases half yearly in advance. Beds, if desired may be had at the School for $8 cach

Pupil, or $12 for single bed.
In addition to a limited number of Pupils, received free of charge when designed for the Ministry, provision will be made for others, who may desire to pay, in whole or in part, for their education in labor upon the Farm.

The school will be opened on the first of June next. The number of full-pay scholars, for the ensuing Summer, will be limited to 25. Applianting till all the school will be limited to 25. cation till the 1st of April, to be made to the Rev. WILLIAM THURSTON, Pittsboro', Chatham co., N. C. After that, to the same gentleman, Valle Crucis, Sugar Grove P. O., Ashe co., N. C., till the Post Office is established at the

With a delightful temperature in summer, its winters, from its peculiar Mountain protection, are similar in mildness and length to those on the Eastern side of the Blue Ridge—the same products being cultivated and matured equally in both situations, while at a distance of not more than twelve miles north, the products are those of the climate of New York. The climate of this Valley is regarded as peculiarly favorable, from its dryness and softness, to persons of weak lungs. The Carriage Roads to to this Valley, + either from Morganton, (35 miles,) or from Lenoir, (28,) or from Wilkesboro', (40,) are good-from the latter place especially. Arrangements will be made at these several Towns, and also at Jefferson, Ashe co., (25 miles from the Valley,) to take Pupils with luggage, directly to the

A man by the name of William Jones (alias Winingham,) did on the night of the 12th of State of Dorth Carolina March, steal a bay mare from Peyton Colvard. on Reddy's River, Wilkes county, N. C., on the road leading from Jefferson C. H. to Wilkes. borough. At the same time he stole a Watch from James Y. Crawford and an over-coat and saddle bags from Jas. Y. White, travellers staying at his house, and about $10 or $12 in cash from said Colvard, then went down Reddy's River and stole the same night a fine saddle, bridle and martingales from Alex. Whittington. The mare was about six years old, about 4 feet 10 inches high, a very deep red bay, a small snip on her nose, and some white on both hind feet, with a small knot on the inside of her hind right ancle, branded with a small C about as big as a quarter of a dollar on
