OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH

The subjoined brief letters from two of the most emi nent men of our country are well worthy of record.-They were recently addressed to the Secretary of the Baltimore Sabbath Association, in response to tenders of honorary membership in that Christian Society :

" ASHLAND, MARCH 7, 1845.

" DEAR SIR: I have received your obliging letter, in forming me that, by the contribution of two Ladics Baltimore of the requisite sum for the purpose, I have been made a member for life of the Baltimore Sabbath Association. As you do not inform me of the names of the ladies, I must request you to be my organ to com-municate to them my respectful acknowledgments for this proof of their valued regard and esteem, and to assure them that I share with them in sentiments of profound reverence for the Sabbath as a religious institution, and that I fervently hope that all laudable endeavors to inculcate the proper observance of it may be crowned with success.

" I have also to thank you for the copy of the pampl let containing the proceedings of the Association which you forwarded to me.

" I am, with high respect, your friend and obedient ervant, "H. CLAY. " To CHARLES W. RIDGELY, Esq., &c."

The following is the material part of the letter of Mr WEBSTER, not being able at present to lay our hands on a complete cons

" The longer I live the more highly do I estimate the importance of a proper observance of the Christian Sabbath, and the more grateful do I feel towards those who take pains to impress a sense of this importance on the community. The Lord's day is the day on which the Gospel is preached; it is the day of public worship throughout the Christian world; and, although we live in a reading age and in a reading community, yet the preaching of the Gospel is the form in which human a-gency has been and still is most efficaciously employed for the spiritual improvement of men. That the poor had the Gospel preached to them was an evidence of his mission which the Author of Christianity himself proclaimed, and to the public worship of the Deity and the preaching of the Gospel the observance of the Sabbath is obviously essential.

" I am, dear sir, with much regard, your obedient ser DANIEL WEBSTER. " CHARLES W. RIDGELY."

MESSES, EDITORS : I herewith send you a copy of the Ordinances passed by the Board of Commissioners, for the Town of Sulisbury, in the year 1839, and which ppose are still in force ; or, I should rather say, are un repealed; for I believe there is not a single article but is daily violated, and no sort of attention paid to the of fence. I hope, gentlemen, you will publish the Ordinances in your paper in order to refresh the minds of our Board of Commissioners, the Justice of Police and the Citizens generally, in relation to their several duties as therein enjoined, and the penalties annexed in case of neglect or actual violation. All good citizens, particularly those who have families and property here, will unnesitatingly admit the propriety of these Ordinances ; and we presume that all will as readily agree that there is too much laxity in their enforcement. None will deny, if carried out, they tend to the security of property from loss by fire, to the promotion of health, good order, and the cleanliness and beauty of our Town. Why then, should any object to them ? Nay, why should their enforcement be neglected ! Will any say that we get on well enough, and that it is a good maxim to "let well enough alone ?" Will any say that it is not worth the while to be particularly careful to prevent fire ? Will any say that it is foolishness to hope for health by being cleanly. Will any dare proclaim themselves in favor of general disorder and the violation of all good laws and systems ? Such are unworthy to be heard ; they have no property to loose by fire ; they intend never to pay a doctor even though they should have his services in sickness; they are better qualified for citizenship with the Algeriens than the people of the " Old North," and Salisbury in particular. In fine, they are those for whom the laws were made. Some of them would plunder, and then run crying through the streets, "stop the thief! stop the thief!" The better part of them would be guilwof the consummate folly of " buying a lock after the horse is stolen," or passing laws after the mischief is done. Nay, Messrs, Editors, the Town Ordinances are good, a far as they go, and I am in favor of their enforcement But I would advert to another subject intimately conmeted with the foregoing, in which all of us, are also, equally interested : I mean the Town Patrol. I have personal experience in relation to it, from which I shall speak. My impression is that it is decidedly deficient, and ought to be modified so as to answer a better purpose, or bolished altogether, and a hired watch substituted, whose aty it shall be to patrol every night and all night. The resent system answers almost no good purpose at all : It is efficient for eight or ten hours, only, during a whole week! All evil disposed persons know what hours the Patrol is on duty, and how long they will continue out, and consequently they know when to sally forth without But the Patrol is rendered a mere form, a shadow, by practice, which is common, of giving negroes permits, time, without specifying the place or places to which " is desired they shall go. The bearer of such a permit goes wherever he pleases. The Patrol may overtake him at the hour of 12, at night, where he has no sort of business, and yet, by a practice which has obtained, and I am astonished to find countenanced by some good men, they must let him pass, unless they are cerlain he has been doing, or is about to do mischief. This is surely wrong, and is clearly contrary to law; and I think ought to be rectified.

The conduct of the Whigs towards Mr. Polk's Administration.

A portion of the democratic party have all at come very fond of the doctrine of trying a man before sentence is pronounced on him. " Mr. Polk," say they, "has been elected President, and his measures should be fairly tried before they are condemned." Now, this we admit is good, sound docfrine, but we must be excused from assenting to the conclusion that our democratic friends draw from it, to wit : "that the Whigs should stand aside and let every seat in Congress and the State Legislatures be filled by Democrats." This would not be trying Mr. Polk at all. It would be blindly supposing that he would do every thing that is right, and placing it out of our power to check or thwart him when he did wrong. This would be the extreme of folly, and would be as much a pre-judging of the administration as to take it for granted that every thing Mr. Polk will do will be wrong.

The true policy of the Whigs is to place themselves in a position to watch and act upon Mr. Polk's measures. When those measures are good let them be as heartily approved as if they had emanated from a Whig Presidentwhen they are evil let them be firmly and energetically opposed. This is the doctrine of common honesty and common sense, and contrasts strongly with the past conduct of those who are now crying out so lustily that "Mr. Polk should have a fair trial." What was their conduct in 1841? Why, Gen. Harrison had hardly taken the oaths of office, when the Van Buren members of the Virginia Legislature published an address, in which they said,-"VIRGINIA GAVE NO AID TO THE E-LECTION OF GEN'L. HARRISON-LET HER NOW TAKE THE LEAD IN OPPO-SITION TO HIS ADMINISTRATION."

This was the democratic policy in 1841but now, forsooth, these same democrats modestly ask the Whigs to prejudge. Mr. Polk's ad-ministration by taking it for granted that every thing he does will be right, and to surrender all the seats of the Legislative bodies in the country to them !!! Is not this modest in the ex. treme ? Does it not conform most beautifully to their own principles of action in reference to Gen. Harrison ?- Pet. Intelligencer.

Our community deeply sympathise with the venerabl parent, of these deceased sisters, who has been strangely afflicted of late, by the loss of four daughters, two grand-daughters and one daughter-in-law, all in the space of five months. its establishment by the following considerations :

In the South-west corner of Ashe county, where the School is situated, there is a populous Valley, unsurpassed in salubrity of climate, richness of soil, and beauty of natural scenery -surrounded, as it is, by sloping hills, deep glens, and lofty mountains, presenting, at once, all that is inviting to the lover of nature, or to the practical Agriculturist. A valley, not pent up by rocky barriers, but of easy access-opening in every direction, through free mountain passes to the large districts of similar country in the adjacent counties of Caldwell, Yancey, and Carter in East Tennessee. But a valley, as peculiarly favorable, from its dryness and like the whole region around it-though peopled by a generous and naturally intelligent race -sorely oppressed with the evils of ignorance upon every subject connected with the true interests of man here, or his hopes hereafter; and destitute of means in itself to remedy these evils -to develope its abundant, natural resources, and to recover and elevate its depressed and suffering population. After sufficient, personal ac. School. quaintance with this state of things, aided by the careful observations of a resident Missionary, the Bishop of the Diocese has considered it an imperative duty to make an immediate effort to secure to this needy country, the blessings of Christian Education in all its more essential branches.

In doing this, however, it was believed that another important interest in the State might be eminently subserved. That the Schools in our towns and villages are, from their mere position, exposed more or less to peculiar temptations to vice, extravagance and insubordination, is a matter, from painful experience, generally admitted. This has led to the establishment in the country of a number of excellent Schools al. ready. An additional one, it was thought, might, in a still more eminent degree, be freed from the evils complained of, if situated in a Mountain listrict, remote from all public haunts, at the WILLIAM THURSTON. Pittsboro', Chutham co., N. C. After that, to the same gentleme Valle Crucis, Sugar Grove P. O., Ashe co., N C., till the Post Office is established at the School, when public notice will be given.

The climate of Valle Crucis presents pecul-iar advantages. With a delightful temperature in summer, its winters, from its peculiar Mountain protection, are similar in mildness and length to those on the Eastern side of the Blue Ridge-the same products being cultivated and matured equally in both situations, while at a distance of not. more than twelve miles north, the products are those of the climate of New York. The climate of this Valley is regarded softness, to persons of weak lungs.

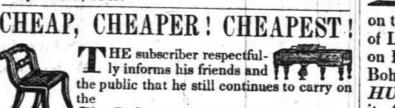

The Carriage Roads to to this Valley, † either from Morganton, (35 miles,) or from Lenoir, (28,) or from Wilkesboro', (40,) are good-from the latter place especially. Arrangements will be made at these several Towns, and also at Jefferson, Ashe co., (25 miles from the Valley.) to take Pupils with luggage, directly to the

This district of country was visited during the last Summer by a number of Families, to enjoy in their fullest measure, the benefits of Mountain air and Scenery. Arrangements within a short distance of Valle Crucis, are contemplated for the comfortable accommodation of visitors during the next season.

pears that all the most ancient and closely-built part of the manufacturing and flourishing city of Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania, has been consumed by fire. The part described as having been destroyed is the southeastern section of the city, extending to and bordering on the Monongahela river.

The fire broke out about twelve o'clock on Thursday, in an old frame shed on the east side of Ferry street, used as a smoke house, immediately surrounded on two sides with old frame buildings. The weather was extremely dry, the wind blowing almost a gale from the west.

The same paper informs us that " Twenty Squares are entirely destroyed, and several parts of squares, besides all of Pipetown, and all the buildings around Bakewell's Glassworks, which were also consumed.

The loss of property must be immense. We shall not ttempt to compute it. The fire spread so rapidly that t was impossible to save property. Among the public buildings destroyed are the Pittsburg Bank, the Monongahela House, the Merchant's Hotel, the Mayor's office, known as Philo Hall, and our Pittsburg insurance offices. The Chronicle and Age offices were removed. The Chronicle lost its presses .-The Presbyterian Advocate and Protestant Unionist offices are both destroyed.

But it is impossible for us to attempt to give the particulars of the dreadful calamity. Pittsburgh has received a dreadful blow, but we trust she will again rise from her ashes.

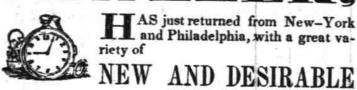

Millions of dollars will not repair the loss experienced. For extent of loss and wide-spread desolation, no fire in this country ever equalled it. To-morrow we shall be able to give more particulars."

The Hillsboro' Recorder of April 17th, says : The business part of our town very narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Tuesday night last. The fire broke out in the saddler's shop of Messrs. Hooker & Philips,' and was fortunately discovered in time to be extinguished before much damage was done."

Fire .- This destructive element we find, from the papers, has been doing a great deal of mischief during the last few weeks, owing in a great measure, no doubt, to the dryness of every thing. Its ravages in the woods in differboad and indefinite, to pass and repass for a month at ent parts of the country, we see mentioned as truly awful. In New Jersey, many dwelling houses have been destroyed by fire from the en the mental energies, and thus contribute to a sound and healthy constitution. In connection with this, another no less interesting object has had its influence. The low state of our Agriculture, particularly in the Middle and Western por tions of the Diocese, is, on all sides, recognised and deplored ; but with no decided public effort for a favorable change. Our young men, instead of being educated with a view to this honorable, independent, and salutary pursuit, usually come from our Colleges, impressed with the notion, that no gentleman can, in the true sense of the John Hall, dec'd, on Saturday the 3d day of May term, be a Farmer. A School, therefore, established in that of the State, where land and free labor are cheap, and where every a lvantage is enjoyed for connecting with such an Institution. at the least expense and the greatest facility, an Agricultural Department, seemed in the highest degree, desirable. The Proprietors, therefore, were willing, unler what appeared to them a duty of peculiar urgency, to undergo some risk in the undertaking. But they did not hesitate to believe that the people of North Carolina would sustain them in it ;

-that Parents, in the more settled portions of the country, when they contemplated the substantial advantages of the proposed School to their own sons, would give it their countenance, so far at least, as to entrust to the care of its founders, a sufficient number of these sons, to enable them to extend the blessings of a thorough Education in letters, Agriculture and the Religion of Christ, to one of the most needy, as well as the most fertile and beautiful sections of the State. They determined, therefore, to enter at once and with energy into the project. To carry out the determination, they have purchased a Farm of some 600 acres-nearly 100 cleared-embracing the entire Valley, (called Valle Crucis,) where it is situated-less than a mile from the main Valley of Wataga. Upon this Farm is a Grist and Saw Mill already. and plain buildings to accommodate from 40 to 50 persons, to be completed and paid for by the 1st of May next.

3. Also, complete Agricultural instruction, theoretical and practical, both in reference to the cultivation of the soil, and the raising of Stock. 4.
