The official news from the army included in he despatches of tien. Taylor and other officers, detract a good deal from the extravagant statements before published. The engagement was much more severe than it has been reported to be and much more destructive to our men, 150 of whom were killed and wounded instead of 62, as before published. The number of Mexicans killed is 500 instead of 1200, and the engagement was most severe to the end of the battle. But for the bold and successful feat of Captain May (a son of Dr. May, of this city,) the battle would have been much more bloody and considerably prolonged. The severity of the contest, it is supposed both at the camp and here, will have the effect of keeping the Mexicans upon the right bank of the Rio Grande. The next news will probably be a successful attack upon Matamoras, and if this is done, and a fierce engagement ensue, the great body of the Mexican forces will be routed. There appears to be nothing like definite information here as to the number of Mexicans in the sersice upon the Rio Grande, or on the march .-There must be a hard battle if Paredes is really on his way to Matamoras from Mexico, with 10,000 men.

The National Fair was crowded to suffoca tion last night. It is supposed that six thous and persons were in the building. Hundreds could not gain admittance, and it became necessary to suspend the sale of tickets. Not witstanding the half dozen extra trains to and from Baltimore yesterday, the number of visiers appeared to be not at all diminished.

The investigating committee make slow work, but the committee to investigate facts in relation to Mr. Ingersoll, will report at an early day. The disbursing clerk, (Mr. Stubbs) will probably be regarded as one of the principal offenders, and will no doubt lose his office. Mr. Tyler will have certain interrogatories submitted to him, to answer in writing, (the other committee have summoned him in person to be pre-

Mr. Adams, Mr. J. Y. Mason, and Mr. Cush. as to the practices of the committee on foreign relations. This subject, from long delay, lost much of its interest, but the time of reporting will give it freshness. Mr. Webster will be entirely acquitted, and the charges fall with sewere indignation upon the heads of those who made them.

One of the specifications you will remember, was the corruption of the public press. This is entirely disproved. The only money paid to

Mr. Tyler, I learn, was expected to reach the city this evening.

I hear it said this evening that in consequence of Gen. Taylor's great success, he will be suffered to remain at the head of the army.

The law introduced by Mr. Berrien, of Ga., to day in the Senate provides that the receiving of any letters of marque from any foreign Prince or State, in violation of treaty with the United States shall be punished as piracy, and the circuit courts of the United States are empowered to try and determine accordingly.

The President to-day nominated Gen. Taylor to the Senate as Brevet Major-General, and the nomination was unanimously confirmed by the Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 27.

The National Fair continues to draw crowds of visiters to the city, and the evening and day exhibitions are both crowded. The school children visited the Fair to-day, to the number of five or six hundred.

The House of Representatives acted upon the Civil and Diplomatic Bill to-day, and the Senate upon the Bill supplementary to the War Bill, for increasing the number of officers and the efficiency of the Army.

The war policy of the Administration was pretty clearly demonstrated this morning in a vote rejecting a proposition to send a special Minister to Mexico whenever the Mexican Government would receive such a Minister. The

THE DEMOCRACY AND THE TARIFF.

The subjoined article from the Washington Union, will give the reader a pretty correct idea of the harmony existing among the Locofocos at Washington on the Tariff question :

"But it is not beneved that either House of Congress will adjourn without doing their duty It is certain that one House will not: and it is equally certain that every democrat in the Senate, except two, will go for a reduction or modification of the Tariff to the revenue point .-Upon the House of Representatives, therefore, will rest all the awful responsibility of attempt. ng to adjourn without completing the reforms which a majority of them were elected to carry But we look confidently upon that body for the most active and decisive measures. If tween the Bravo del Norte and the river these reforms be not completed, let no man say it is our fault; that our "chains are gilded. We will continue to strike at the tariff, and will risk everything upon the cause.

organ of Pennsylvania, says, in reply to this

This kind of logic may suit the southern theorist, but in good old Democratic Pennsylvania we eschew all such nonsense. Let us first drive the enemy from the soil, and talk of encouraging the manufactures of foreigners afterwards.

THE MEXICAN WAR.

The following speulations, from one of the most enlightened of the Democratic journals which support the measures of the Adminstration, cannot fail to interest our readers at the present moment:

"If, as some seem to expect, the demonstration of strength which the U. States have made on the Rio Grande should discourage the Mexican Government in the further prosecution of the war, and lead them to accept an envoy from our Government, the war will have been brought | luxurious and matrimonial life of the young to a speedy and fortunate termination. - have gloriously vindicated their character We earnestly hope that this will be the from the aspersions which have been east result, both for the interest of the two nations concerned and for the interest of humanity. On the other hand, should animosity of the Mexican population towards this country disincline their Government to an immediate accommodation, the close of the war may be adjourned to a very distant day. We incline to believe that ing are summoned to answer certain questions the war will either be a very short or a rian Church for many years,—giving evidence at all a race consisting mostly of aborigines or of mixed breeds with a large infusion of original blood, is that of dogged endurance. The nation has no commerce for us to harass or plunder; the productions of the country suffice for their imperfect state of civilization; they have no magazines of provision for an invader to seize, and if they were deliberately to adopt the poliany press was for printing some blank forms of cy of attempting to weary us out with that sort of flying and desultory hostilities which in their language are called by the term guerilla, we may have a war of long duration before us."

THE MEXICAN WAR.—PURPOSES OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

The following more than semi-official disclosure of the views and purposes of the Administration in its war with Mexico is so frank and full, that the Public to be enabled to make up its opinion of their merits, requires only to know, in addition, from the same authority, what it is, on the part of the Mexican Republic, that the Executive would consider as manifesting "a sense of justice."-Nat. Int.

From "the Union" of yesterday Morning. The New York Albion invokes all the friends of peace to exert their best efforts for its preservation. It thinks the danger imminent. We sympathize in our wishes with the Albion. We, too, deprecate any war between Great Britain and the United States, and we invoke as sincerely as it does the blessings of peace between the two nations. But why does it indulge any fears at this moment? Why suppose that the call for fifty thousand volunteers points to a war with England? We mean to conduct the war against Mexico with all the vigor in our power. We may want twenty-five thousand volunteers, or even more, to strike such a blow peace-offering the party in power are not will- as may compel her to make peace. We shall invade her territory; we shall seize her strongholds; we shall SHALL TAKE EVEN may want fifty thousand Volunteers, not against England, but for the Mexican war. Why need the Albion, then attribute our military energy to any covert design of waging a war against England?

> How their names are pronounced .- A correspondent of the St. Louis Reveille, says that as the names of the following Spanish officers are likely, at the present juncture of affairs, to be frequently in the mouths of our citizens, for the satisfaction of those not already familiar with the pronunciation, the follwing is given:

> "Gen's Arista, Ampudia, Mejia and Canales. Col's Carasco and Carabajal, are pronounced by Spaniards, as follows :- A.rees.ta, Am.poo. dia, Ma-hee-a, Co-na-les, Ca-ras-co, Ca-ra-vuhal-the vowel a, in each instance, having the sound of that letter in the English word far .-The j be-comes h, the b, v.

A Good Hit .- The New Orleans Tropic in. serts the figure of a 'runaway,' and adds:

Gen. Ampudia, the great Mexican hero, who cut off the heads of our citizens in Tobasco, and boiled them in oil, in running away from the battle of the 9th, opposite Matamoras, got wounded LOW DOWN IN THE BACK. This information is authentic. We hope that when Gen. Taylor takes Matamoras, that Gen. Ampudia will be LEFT BEHIND, as a rich prize. There are those in the American ranks who

CAPTAIN WALKER. - The officers of the United States Army of occupation have raised a purse of $1,000 as a compliment to Captain Walker, the gallant Texas. CAUSE OF THE WAR.

A writer in a northern paper gives some ditable to those who were instrumental in bringing it about. The holders of Texas scrip relied on the public lands for payment. On investigation, it appeared that in Texas proper, the whole public domain had been squandered away by the Government, and the holders of the great amount of Texas scrip, lost all hopes of payment from that source. To secure them, it became necessary to plunder Mexico of a large portion of three States of New Mexico Coahuila and Chihanhau, and all of New Mexico which lies be-Nueces; west of which stream the Republic of Texas never had either jurisdiction, civil or military, or the shadow of a claim, except that arising from an act of The Harrisburg (Pa.) Union, the Loco Foco its Legislature, which declared the Bravo to be the western boundary of the Republic. We do not know who, of the violent leaders of the party that projected this scheme, are holders of scrip, or how far the possession of this article has influenced them. An Editor, distinguished by his present position, was said to have had many scrip-holders among his connexions, and was charged with being incited to battle for annexation on this account.-We cannot rely upon all we hear in such cases, but we have no doubt whatever about the influence of land speculators upon the measures of the administration. Wil. Commercial.

> A letter from an Officer of the Army to his friend in this citty, dated at Point Isabel on the 14th instant, after describing the late bravely fought actions, says:-"The Military Academy is in the ascendant. The imbecility of the old, and the upon them in high places."

Obituary.

DIED in Salisbury, on Tuesday, May 26, Mrs. Lou-ISA HORAH, aged 49 years, consort of William H. Horah, Esq., after a protracted and painful illness of mearly twelve months, supposed to be a disease of the lungs. Mrs. Horah was a consistent member of the Presbytetimes, by her daily walk, that she loved, and served her Redeemer. Although she was naturally retiring in her "The temper of the native Mexicans, disposition, and domestic in her habits-mingling less with the world than many others, still her light was not concealed. All who knew her, were led to believe that she felt that there was truly a reality in the religion of Jesus. She seemed to be convinced early in the progress of her disease, that her end was fast approaching, but manifested no fear. She gave all to understand that her little children, which needed a mother's care, were the only objects which seemed to bind her to the shores of time. And as she still approached the crisis, her faith seemed to triumph in a remarkable manner. When asked by her pastor if she could realize the fact, that Jesus Christ was then peculiarly her Saviour, she replied in the affirmative; and repeated in a low, but distinct tone of voice, the verse, "Jesus can make a dying bed," &c., Again she exclaimed as in a triumph, "O it is a blessed thing to die when our sins are pardoned." Thus departed one truly loved by all who knew her, leaving a devoted companion with a number of little children to mourn and weep over an irreparable loss .- [Com.

IMPORTANT TO MILL OWNERS Hotchkiss's Vertical Water Wheel.

N consequence of the very great popularity which these wheels have attained by the use of nearly 4000 of them in different parts of the country, the subscribers have sold about 100 Rights in North Carolina, thirty of which are in full and successful operation in Cumberland When properly introduced, they nearly double the value of the mill, and in quantity of work generally far exceed the most sanguine expectations of the owners, many of whom are gentlemen distinguished for their science and practical skill, who have attested to the value of this improvement. The wheels are more durable, and easily kept in order, when properly put together, than the common flutter wheel. They will save one-third of the water, and run well in back water when there is a head above. The speed of the saw is increased to more than double the strokes per minute. The price of an individual right for one pair of wheels,

We refer, among others, to the following gentlemen, some of whom had the wheels in operation 12 months or more, and from many of whom we have received certificates highly approving of these wheels, and stating that their saws, with this improvement, cut 2500, 3000, 3500, and even as high as 5000 feet a day, according to the
