THE WHIG PARTY AND THE MEX-

ICAN WAR. The subjoined article from the Baltimore American, is the Petersburg Intelligencer of the 5th instant, adnisters a very proper rebake to the official Organ for he unjust charges brought against the Whig Party. If the Editor of the Union were in Petersburg, he would have proof, which even his jaundiced vision could not overlook, of the injustice of his charges. Here, in il the speeches and harangues which have been made, he question has never been once asked, " is the war ght of wrong, just or unjust?" but the prevalent sentiment his been—"our country is in war, and must be sus-mined, never mind who brought the war on, and never nind what were the causes of the war." And if the Eder of the Union were to look down the ranks of the company raised here, he would see Whigs and Democrats. tanding shoulder to shoulder, and as ready to co-operate of the field as if they had never been arrayed against sch other at the Polls.

From the Baltimore American. THE WHIGS AND THE ADMINISTRATION. It seems to cause great uneasiness to some of the Adistration journals that the Mexican war has not been made deproductive of political capital to their side. The regon adventure proved an entire failure ; it ended in a s of both capital and credit. To retrieve the disaster that speculation the war with Mexico might do some-bing. But when it was found that the exclusive claims patriotism, arrogated to the party of the Administram, were utterly set at naught by the ardor with which en of all parties came forward to fight in a war actualexisting, the self-styled proclaimed guardians of the natonal bonor discovered that they were talking nonsense, and some of them had the discretion to stop. Sail it would not do to give up the war cry without further efforts to make something out of it. Accordingly he official paper at Washington, as the leader of a fororn hope, goes on. With all the energy and with all the lindness of desperation it now labors to produce the impression that the opponents of the Administration are the friends of Mexico, and that to censure any measure of Mr. Polk in reference to the war, how short-sighted or handering soever is to take the part of the Mexicans end to play into their hands. Here follows a specimen of official denunciation :

Sach is this war thus far. In rallying to oppose it, e Federalists make war upon the patriotic feelings of the country. In denouncing as insufficient causes the umges which produced it, these same men-the woriccessors of the Federalists of 1812-avow themlives meensible to their country's humiliation, and pro-much as the poverty of its own resources. Language this port falls flat and stale. The readers of the offial paper, in this community and elsewhere, who know all political distinctions were forgotten when the ummods came for volunteers to the field, will escape from feeling of indignation at the sight of the paragraph hove quoted only by passing it hastily in a sort of comphinise between an instinctive impulse of disgust and the fire of political predilections. What honest man who give his vote for Mr. Polk will listen to the calumny which denounces the Whigs as the "Party of National nigrace," when he knows that his own son and the son of his Whig neighbor and friend stood side by side at Momercy! There is blood enough already shed in this ar under the rational standard by gallant men cherishing the name and principles of their revolutionary fathere to cry from the ground against so foul an imputato and to reflect its own color upon the faces of the camilithe who may yet retain the faculty of blushing. But it is painful to recognize even by allusion the exstence of any political divisions or party designations when the cause of the country against a foreign enemy involved. These allusions are compelled by such diect and unqualified charges as the official paper chooses orgive forth. We may undertake, however, to say that he whigs, with or without denunciation from official succes, will adhere to the cause of their country both aninst fees abroad and an incompetent Administration at They will justify no clandestion intrigues with Mexican chief, no inglorious shuffling out of difficulties by brought on yet actually existing. They will do their best to terminate this war honorably and advantaground, and they will rejoice when it is over. Of their patriotism making no boast, they will confine their efforts to the doing of useful service to the country, in which they include the duty of setting aside the Polk dynasty and its surroundings, at the first opportunity. Against the errors and the weaknesses of the Administration, in this behalf—the country at large, we are persuaded, looks with hope, and trust and confidence to the intelligence, the practical discretion and the true patriotism of the Whigs of the Republic in view of our present ex-gencies and a future deliverance.

The great "breach of promise" case, which was tried last week in Louisville, has resulted in the jury giving a verdict defendent to pay the costs. The parties were Miss Nano Hayes (aged about 30) vs Mr John Hays (aged about 54) There was no promise proved in the case-but there was a good deal of attention, much firtation, and a great desire on the part of the plaintiff to " catch the rich old bach. elor," She did not catch him, but she has got some of his money—he being reputed to be wonth fifty or sixty thousand dollars. The Louisville Courier says that the an-Incement of the verdict in the case d several gentlemen who have been coustomed to think they could do pretty much as they pleased, " to shake in their

NEW COUNTY.

The bill to establish a new County, by the name of Gaston, composed of portions of old Loncoln and Catawba, passed its final reading in the House of Commons. on Wednesday last, by 87 to 24. This is a most important decision to the people of that section of country, but it has yet to undergo the ordeal of a discussion and vote in the Senate.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

On Wednesday last, Charles L. Hinton. Esq. was re-elected, without opposition, Public Treasurer of North Carolina for the ensuing two years. And, On Wednesday last William F. Collins, Esq. was reelected Comptroller of Public Accounts for the same period also, without opposi-

The re-election of these two gentlemen so favorably known to the people of our State, will, we doubt not, be hailed with general satisfaction.

[FOR THE WATCHMAN.]

'Twas a vision of bliss, how lovely, how bright How merrily flew the gay hours, Twas a rapturous dream-a trance of delight In Eden's own beautiful bowers!

Thou hadst taken thy seat, as I asked thee to sing, But still, as the pleasure delaying, Began o'er the keys thy soft fingers to fling And my favorite waltz, wert now playing.

As I drank in that music, and gazed on those charms Which to angels, not mortals, are given, Such charges as these in the "Union" prove nothing What wonder my fancy made wings of thy arms, And deemed thee descended from heaven!

> For my soul was transported, and ravished my eyes, Like a strange spell thy beauty stole o'er me, A scene of enchantment before me!

Fairy forms seemed to flit round thee, loving and fond, Joining hands, in the dance, with the Hours. There was Mirth waving o'er thee his rosy wreathed

And Joy bringing baskets of flowers. Now the measure was changed, and advancing along Came Music, slow moving. A tear in Her tender eye stood, as she breathed a low song

In tones like the "wild harp of Erin." It ceased-and-there followed a livelier strain While Hope with the joy beaming e'e: Advanced to thy side, with his spirited train, And turned his bright glances on me.

awoke-and of all the bright forms which had been And the sounds in my ear which were ringing, There was none but thy own lovely self to be seen, And naught to be heard but thy singing.

THE LEGISLATURE. The subjoined articles we find in the Register of the 8th.

THE SUPREME COURT.

It will be seen that the Bill to authorize the holding of the Terms of the Supreme Court of the State, alternately at Raleigh and Morgan ton, has passed the Senate by the casting vote of the Speaker.

A Bill has also been introduced to divide the State into nine Judical Circuits, and provides, in addition, that the Supreme Court shall here the meantime, they will bring the best remedies they can after consist of all the Judges, as well those of athe shape of wise counsels and the inpulses of an enthe present Supreme Court, as of the Superior larged public spirit. The accounts brought from Liverpool by the steamer Caledonia, which we announced yesterday as having arrived at Boston on Saturday, are to the 19th ultimo; but, except the commercial news, there appears to be little that is of importance.

The grain markets, both in England and on the Continent, are depressed. United States free flour was worth 32s. a 33s. in London, and in Liverpool 31s. 6d. Duty on Wheat 4s. Cotton has declined ad. Mobile was selling
