Resolved, That the nominee for Governor is not required to canvass the State, unless the candidate of the Democratic party shall commence canvassing, or be required to do so by said party.

The Resolution was supported by Messrs. Ransom, Ireddell and Banks.

Mr. Wynne, of Hyde, moved that said Resolution be laid on the table; which was carried.

The Chair presented a letter from R. S. Bury, appointed a delegate to this Convention from Brunswick County, who was prevented from attending; which was read and laid up on the table.

Mr. Kerr, from the nominating Committee, reported that they had made some progress, and asked leave to sit again, which was granted.

Mr. Banks moved to take from the table the Resolution in relation to the Candidate for Governor, canvassing the State, which was decided in the negative by Tellers—Ayes 27, Noes 11.

On motion of Mr. Gales, the Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 23d.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment.

Mr. Waddell, of Orange, from the Nominating Committee, asked leave to report, which was granted.

Mr. Waddell announced to the Convention, that the Committee had unanimously agreed to support to the Convention, the name of CHAS. MANLY, of Raleigh, as the Whig Candidate for Governor.

The question on agreeing to the report of the Committee was carried unanimously.

nation, and as becoming that magnanimity and sense of justice, which should have marked the course of a great and powerful Government towards a weak and distracted one.

Resolved, That even if this country had had sufficient grounds for war against Mexico, yet, as the Constitution expressly reserves to Congress alone, the power to make war, we view the conduct of the President, James K. Polk, in bringing about and causing to exist a state of war, by ordering Gen. Taylor to invade the territory in dispute, between the United States and Mexico, as a manifest usurpation of the authority of Congress, and as a palpable violation of the Constitution of his country.

Resolved, That this unnecessary, expensive, and unconstitutional war ought to be terminated as soon as possible, consistently with the honor of the country; that too many of our sons have already fallen; that too much of our treasure has already been wasted; that millions of acres of conquered territory cannot compensate us for the loss of the one, and the expenditure of the other; and that, in negotiating a peace, we owe it to our position among the nations of the earth, not to force harsh and oppressive terms upon a conquered and prostrate foe.

Resolved, That we would prefer that the negotiations for peace should be conducted with a view to the establishment of an equitable boundary line between us and Mexico, and the acquisition of a safe and convenient harbor on the Pacific; but that we are entirely opposed to forcibly wresting from Mexico, by conquest, any portion of her territory.

Resolved, That, whilst expressing our condemnation of the authors of this war, and those who favor its continuance with a view to conquest, yet we cannot withhold the commendation and approval of the conduct of those Officers and men of our Army and Navy, who have so gallantly sustained the American flag; and who have exhibited, in an eminent degree, the virtue of loyalty and obedience to superior authority, whilst prosecuting a war upon a system, and for purposes, which many of them, in their judgment, condemn.

Resolved, That we view the course of the Administration, in their warfare upon Generals Taylor and Scott, as evincing a spirit of jealousy and ingratitude, inconsistent with all the high impulses of justice and honor; that we will, as far as in us lies, sustain those gallant commanders against the assaults of malignity and oppression; and we will cherish their names as identified with American prowess and glory.

Resolved, That the position taken by our Senators in Congress, the Hon. WILLIE P. MANGUM and the Hon. GEORGE E. BAKER, in reference to the further prosecution of the Mexican War, merits our entire approbation; and that we fully endorse the sentiments by the latter, in his late able and unanswerable speech, in the Senate, on that subject.

Resolved, That our present Governor, the Hon. WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, is entitled to our highest commendation and our thanks, for the very able, impartial and satisfactory manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office; and that on retiring from the Executive Chair, he will carry with him the esteem and approbation of his all.

Resolved, That the time has arrived when the Whigs of the Union should put forth every effort; that we think upon their success greatly depends the security of our rights, and the perpetuity of our Institutions; and that, at this time, above all others, compromise and harmony should prevail in our councils; that Union is the first great prerequisite to success; and that, therefore, we approve the National Whig Convention to be held in Philadelphia, on the 7th of June next; that we will abide the nomination of said Convention, for the offices of President and Vice President, by supporting its nominees; and that we deem it advisable that the Whigs of North Carolina should be represented in said Convention.

Resolved, That JOHN M. MOOREHEAD, of Guilford, and JOHN KERR, of Caswell, be appointed as Delegates to represent the Whigs of the State at large in the National Whig Convention; and that the Whigs of the respective Congressional districts are hereby advised to hold District Conventions with a view to the selection of one Delegate to represent the Whigs of said District in Convention, and to forming a Whig Electoral Ticket for the State.

Resolved, That our Whig brethren throughout the State, be and they are hereby appealed to, by every consideration that addresses itself to the heart of the Patriot, to arouse themselves, and make a still more vigorous and determined effort in behalf of our principles and our country; to keep constantly in view the fact, that on the next General Assembly will devolve the election of a Senator in Congress for six years; to complete a more thorough system of Whig organization in the several Counties; and that we do hereby pledge ourselves to each other, and call on the Whigs of the State, to ratify the same, that we will use our most vigorous efforts to secure a Whig victory in both August and November next.

The Resolutions were read, and unanimously adopted.

Mr. Rayner introduced the following Resolution:

Resolved, That our admiration and attachment for the great American Statesman, HENRY CLAY, are unaltered; and that we will ever cherish the most profound gratitude for the eminent and distinguished services he has rendered his country.

Which was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Kerr introduced the following Resolution:

Resolved, That we have the highest confidence in the honesty, integrity and patriotism of Gen. ZACHARY TAYLOR, and that we feel profound gratitude to him for the service rendered to his country.

Which was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Kerr nominated the following gentlemen to compose the central Committee, namely: W. R. Gales, Alfred Jones, G. W. Haywood, Richard Hines, T. J. Lemay, John H. Bryan, H. W. Husted, and H. W. Miller.

Mr. Rayner moved to amend the nomination by adding one from each Congressional district and that five should be a quorum for the transaction of business, which was accepted by Mr. Kerr, and the motion and nominations were adopted by the Convention.

Mr. Banks, of Fayetteville, announced that he had just received a Telegraphic despatch from Fayetteville, announcing that the intelligence of Mr. Manly's nomination had been received with great pleasure by the citizens of that place.

On motion of Mr. Kingsbury, E. B. Dudley and Robt. B. Gilliam were appointed alternate Delegates to the Baltimore Convention.

The Convention was then addressed by Messrs. Satterthwaite, of Pitt, Wynne, of Hyde and McLeod of Johnston.

Mr. Satterthwaite moved that a Committee of three be appointed by the Chair, to prepare the proceedings of this Convention for publication in the Whig papers of the States.

The Convention took a recess, until half past 3, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The President appointed the following members of the Central Committee, one from each Congressional District, in pursuance of the Resolution adopted this morning, namely, Messrs. N. Woodfin, N. L. Williams, T. S. Galloway Rufus Barringer, Hugh Waddell, C. L. Hinton, K. Rayner, E. Stanly and E. J. Hale.

The President also appointed the following Committee, on the revival and publication of the proceedings of this Convention, namely: Messrs. Rayner, Gales and G. W. Haywood. Messrs. Banks and Mullins, of Fayetteville, Mr. Kerr, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Waddell then addressed the Convention.

The following Resolution was offered by Mr. Kerr, and laid upon the table, to-wit:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention are due, and are hereby tendered to the Hon. Richard Hines, the President of this body, and to the Vice Presidents and Secretaries, for the satisfactory manner with which they have discharged the duties of their stations.

On motion of Mr. Rayner, the Convention then took a recess until half past 7 o'clock, this evening.

NIGHT SESSION.

After a number of Speeches from various members, the Resolution of thanks, &c., was taken up from the table, and unanimously adopted.

The President made a short address, after which the Convention adjourned without day.

We have seen it stated in the New York and other papers, as if from some authority, that Mr. Clay had positively declined consenting to the use of his name as a candidate for the Presidency, and would, in a few days, under his own hand announce the fact. We believe that these rumors are unfounded, and that, while he has a strong disinclination to the use of his name for such a purpose, he has remained entirely passive, without having formed absolutely any determination one way or the other. We have no doubt that, if Mr. Clay should adopt the resolution attributed to him, he will, under his own signature, announce it. In the mean time, the Public would do well to discredit all rumors not possessing such authority.—[Nat. Int.]

[For the Carolina Watchman.]

To the Christian Stiller—No. 3.

My Dear Friend:—We will now try to examine into the consistency of stilling with doing good to man. I hope you will not get impatient. Men often honestly differ in opinion; perhaps this is a point about which you and I have different opinions. But perhaps if you had thought as much about it as I have we would agree. Any business that increases the amount of substantial nourishment for the bodies of men, tends, when properly pursued, to the glory of God. Farming, gardening, &c., and all mechanical pursuits that prepare instruments to facilitate those businesses belong to this class. By these the wants of nature are supplied. Famine and all its desolating effects avoided.—Does your still provide any thing like food for the bodies of men? You take from man corn which is nourishing to his body and give back your liquor. Is it in this spirit form any more nourishment than it was before? So far from it, that according to the opinion of such as are most capable of judging, it contains no nutriment at all. You then have taken from society much of the staple of life, and have given back to society that which has no tendency to satisfy hunger or to preserve life. If rich harvests and full graneries are causes of thankfulness and praise and glory of God, does your consuming these harvests and exhausting these graneries increase that glory? If they are cause of praise to God, and you destroy them, do you not destroy that cause of praise? You take away what God has given to preserve His creatures alive—to nourish them, and for this you return to the children of God—His creatures, not a particle of nourishment. In what way does your still increase the food necessary for the consumption of man? Does your liquor make laborers stronger? You know its use destroys thousands of constitutions and hurries thousands of strong laborers to the grave before they have lived out half their days. Does drinking the fruit of your still make men more industrious? You know it causes a vast amount of time to be lost. Shall I give you another week to find out in what way your business increases the amount of food to be used by man? It appears to decrease it by actual consumption—by burning it up, by the time it causes to be lost, and by the thousands of working men it destroys.—Does it supply food for one single destitute widow or orphan? Does it not, on the contrary, cause thousands of both widows and orphans to be both breadless and homeless. One great man has said that he that causes two blades of grass to grow where one grew before is a benefactor of his race. Can you claim this honor as a stiller?

All those occupations that provide houses, clothes, &c., for man, tend to the glory of God, because they increase the comfort of man. But does stilling build houses or make clothes for any one? When you send out your liquor is it with the expectation that it increases the comfort of any community? I agree it may make the consumer feel right comfortable for a little while, but ten-fold miserable for the rest of his life. Will it cause the consumer to provide better houses or better clothes for his own family? Have you any belief that it will increase the comfort and convenience of any family where it is used? Do you not believe there are thousands of families now in utter destitution who might have been in at least comfortable circumstances but for the liquor you and others have made and sold? Do you not believe that there would be more bread, more good clothes, more good houses, more of the comforts and conveniences of life every way than there are, if there were no distilled spirits in the world? How then does your business tend to the glory of God? I remain truly your friend,

SIMON COLDWATER.
Davie Co., Feb. 1848.

MARRIED.

In Ireddell County, on the 15th ultimo, by A. P. Graham, Esq., Mr. BENJAMIN R. ATWELL, to Miss MARY E. DEATON.

At Gold Hill, on the 15th ult., by Archibald Honeycutt, Esq., Mr. GEORGE A. E. PAPE, to Miss MARTHA A., daughter of R. H. Umstead.

DIED.

In this County, on the 21st ultimo, Mrs. CATHARINE, Consort of Mr. Christian Bringle, in the 64th year of her age. The deceased was, for many years, an exemplary member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, and evinced the sincerity of her Christian profession by her correct deportment and godly conversation. In her death the Church has lost a friend, and the community a useful member. She was afflicted for several years with almost entire deafness, yet, she nevertheless fulfilled her duty, whenever convenient, to assemble with her Christian friends and unite with them in the worship of her Divine Master. She was ever ready to sympathize with the sick and afflicted, and by her acts of kindness and benevolence, to alleviate their sufferings and distresses.—She was confined to her bed for several months preceding her death, during which time, she often expressed a willingness to die. She departed in the full assurance that "death would be her gain," leaving her husband and children and a large circle of friends to mourn over their sad bereavement.

"The grave is now a favored spot; To saints who sleep in Jesus' blood; For there the wicked trouble not, And there the weary are at rest." [Com.]

In Ireddell County, on Tuesday the 22d ultimo, Mrs. JANE, wife of John N. Lowrance, in the 47th year of her age, after an illness of six days, which she bore with that patience and christian resignation, which have ever characterized the life of this amiable woman. In the death of this excellent lady, the community has lost one who held a large place in the affections of all, and who was greatly beloved by every one that knew her—the Church of God a long tried and amiable member, and her bereaved husband and children a companion and mother, such as few families are blessed with.
