"PLAINDEALER," one of the Washington corespondents of the New York Courier & Enmer, and himself a Democrat, though corresponding with a Whig paper, says:

"There is a letter in town from Gen. Tayor, in which he reiterates his preference for Henry Clay, and admits that in early life he had been a Jeffersonian Democrat; but that it now would appear to him that the Whigs of the present day were much more akin to the Jeffertonian Democracy of those days than the Demoenals or the present Democratic Administration. think that the consequence of this declaration will be the nomination of Gen. Taylor by the Whig National Convention, and that Gen. Tayby, though he will not allow himself to be the undidate of a party, will accept it."

The Philadelphia News states that the comlillee of the Whig Taylor Festival, to come Win that city on the 22d instant, has also refived a letter from Gen. Taylor in reply to an vitation to be present on that occasion. "Its Mblication (says the News) at the proper time, will strengthen the hold the old General has on he Whigs of the city and county. Let it suface for the present, that its general tone will bear us out in the position we have long since taken and maintained, as the orthodoxy of his political faith.'

SAMUEL A. BRIDGES (Dem.) has been electto Congress from the 6th Congressional Disvict of Pennsylvania, to fill the vacancy occawoned by the death of Mr. Hornbeck, (Whig.) Mr. B.'s majority is about 150. The demotratic majority last year in the same district as 688, although the deceased member was elected from it in 1846.

We have seen a letter from a Democrat Pennsylvania, in which Bridges is debunced in the most unmeasured terms. de is represented as unprincipled in allost every respect, and totally unworthy the station to which he has been elected.

ALMOST A FATAL ACCIDENT TO HENRY CLAY.

The Sage of Ashland came near meeting with a fatal accident on Thursday evening .-Our readers are aware that he is a guest of Mayor Swift. After he retired to rest, the servant, instead of stopping off the gass in the usual way, blew it out, and then left the room .-Things remained in this state until near daylight, when the worthy mayor was awakened by an insufferable smell of gas. He got up, dressed himself and first thought was to proceed to the room of Mr. Clay, to see if all was right there. He opened the door, and the room was so filled with gas that it was with difficulty he rushed to the window, and raised it, so as to admit a current of fresh air. With terror. he glanced towards the bed. The clothes which covered his distinguished guest moved slightly. The alarmed mayor took courage, and ex-

From the N. Orleans Picayune Extra, Feb. 26. LATER FROM VERA CRUZ.

The steamship Edith arrived this mornng from Vera Cruz, whence she sailed on the 20th inst.

A rumor prevailed in Vera Cruz when he Edith left, that Santa Anna had made an application to Gen. Scott for a passport to Vera Cruz, and permission to leave the country, and that Gen. Scott had acceded to his request. Those who credited the rumor believed that he would arrive in Vera Cruz in four or five days, to embark for Europe or Havana. The Arco Iris of the 18th instant contains the following article:

Gen. Santa Anna.-We are assured that Gen. Santa Anna has arrived within a few days at Tustepec, provided with the passport which he demanded from the Government, countersigned by Gen. Scott. Should this prove to be the case, it is not improbable that we shall see his Excellency in this city, with the view of embarking for a foreign country, in search of an asylum which he has not been able to find in his native land. It is also asserted that he will not proceed to Havana, as the Government of the island has prohibited his entry. We have not much faith in this intelligence, and it would be a pity if it should be true, as it is not easy liberty to his natural inclination for ina correspondent writing from Cordova, now in possession of the American troops, under date of the 15th inst., would seem to confirm the report that Santa Anna was about to leave the country:

"About a dozen guerrillas were seen ag himself at Palo Alto and Resaca, offered on the way up. Santa Anna, with a few mate fruits of your calling. Will you hundred followers, was in this neighbor- bring them as your trophies for His Kinghood a few days since. He has asked for dom and lay them at the feet of Christ permission to leave the country, and it is thought he is on his way to the coast."

Since writing the above we have conferred with a passenger on the Edith, who states that he had been informed by Gen. Twiggs that he had received positive information that Gen. Scott had granted Santa Anna his passport, and that he was expected in Vera Cruz by the 24th

Mexico, Feb. 7, 1848.

The late revolution in Tunascaltepec, in this State, by which Olaguibel, the once popular Governor of Mexico, has been deposed, has some light thrown upon it by official documents published in the Monitor of yesterday. The plan, as published, appears to be similar to that of San Luis-declaring against the peace policy of the Government and in favor of raising troops and money for a vigorous prosecution of the war. Olaguibel, who was at first imprisoned, has been released, but deprived of authority, and Legislature is called upon to elect a new governor and to legalize the measures already taken to raise troops and money.

Col. Withers and Major Lally, with an escort of dragoons and a couple of pieces of artillery, arrived yesterday from Pachuca. They brought about $200,000 in silver with them.

This morning a courier arrived from Vera Cruz, bringing dates to the 27th from New Orleans. Considerable excitement was created by the order from Washington for a court inquiry to be held at Puebla, on the cases of the arrested officers, dated the 17th from Washing. ton, and the letter of "Truth-Teller," in the Picayune, dated the 18th, which directly contradicts the order, and announces the recall of Gen. Scott and the release of the other officers. The knowing ones are bothered. *

Butter, My Dear Friend :- You have not for-Beeswax, gotten, I trust, that in all you do you should have an eye to the glory of God. Any business that leads to the improvement of the mind of man tends to the glory of God. Because the more the mind is improved the more it is capable of understanding the nature and works of God and of appreciating his wisdom and goodness. Science not only gives us exalted and glorious ideas of God, but it has done immensely much to improve the comforts and conveniences of life. The benefits of science and of a proper culture of the mind it is impossible to tell. Does not your bosom swell at the very thought ?-That man who is diffusing the elements of a sound education through society is doing much for the good of man-for the glory of God. Will your business cause more children to be educated than would be without it? Will science in any way Cotton, be improved by it? If it enables one man to educate his children and prevents a half dozen others from educating theirs, the harm is in proportion to the good as six to one. He would be a strange parent that would sacrifice six children to promote the interest of one. And it is a strange thing if God can be glorified by the advancement of one family when six have been ruined that the one may be advanced. The good is like a drop in a bucket when compared to the harm. The question for you, my christian friend is whether it will make men in the aggregate wiser than if let alone. The Whigs of the City and County of Philadelphia held a meeting on Thursday evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the reception of Mr. Clay, who is expected to arrive in that city in a few days. The meeting was very large and enthusiastic, and the folowing resolutions, offered by Judge Conrad. were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That, learning that Henry Clay, the great champion and exemplar of Whig principles, and the stern and steady expounder of the true interests of the American people, is about to visit the city of Philadelphia, this meeting considers it proper that the people should make him their guest, and that he should be received with honors due to one who has devoted the rich energies of the great life to his coun-
