FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Thick and fast the news from Europe rowds upon us. Hardly have we had time to announce the arrival of one steamer before another arrives upon our shores with information of still more important and interesting events transpiring. What the issue of the struggle now going on will be, no one, as yet can tell. Every thing seems to be involved in mystery, but we trust that correct principles may vet triumph, and the despots now rioting in the blood of the people be made to feel the folly of their wicked and unjust course. The Hungarian territory seems to be the great theatre of operations between Auscourage and skill manifested by the Hungarians have so far baffled the power of both nations.

THE TRUE GROUND. The Alexandria Gazette makes the following wise remarks respecting the present position and views of Mr. Benton, as expressed in his late speech on the Wilmot Droviso

"We fire very much pleased at the manner in which Mr. Benton and his demonstrations, have been received by the Wnig press of the country, generally .---There is no atttempt to propitiate, concilate, or yield to him, in any quarter; and o appearance of courting his aid or defiting his alliance. Mr. Benton has his ion, which entitle him to the sympathies or consideration of the Whig party, We repeat that whenever he does right we are prepared to applaud his action-but not one step further. His dogmatism. conceit, and arrogance, are not passports to the favor of the Whig party-nor will his Present overtures to and quasi defence of Wilmot Proviso and his Free Soil altes, contribute towards that end."
