

THE GARCIA CASE.

The National Intelligencer, of Monday, gives the following interesting summary of the circumstances connected with the demand by our Government, and the delivery up, by the Spanish authorities, of "the abducted" Garcia.

THE CASE OF GARCIA, THE ABDUCTED.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

In the recent case of Juan Garcia, the President of the U. S. did not suffer himself to be embarrassed for one moment by the established rule in Cuba refusing to hearken to the representations of any Diplomatic agent.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

In the recent case of Juan Garcia, the President of the U. S. did not suffer himself to be embarrassed for one moment by the established rule in Cuba refusing to hearken to the representations of any Diplomatic agent.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

The Spanish Government, jealous of all foreign interference in Cuba, have adopted a rule which, persevered in, might at some day cause them the loss of their Island.

Spanish Government has accepted the difficulty and embarrassment of its own rule refusing diplomatic intercourse at Cuba.

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

Salisbury, N. C.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 11, 1848.

Central Rail Road.—It will be seen by a notice in this paper that a meeting is to be held here on Saturday, the 22d inst.

It is not alone for the credit of the country that we urge so earnestly an attendance at this place on the 22d.

We will conclude what was at first intended as a mere notice of the proposed meeting, by copying the following description of a speech delivered at Hillsboro.

Gov. Swain followed in a most impassioned appeal—full of stirring eloquence and withering satire.

The gain of a Whig member in Rhode Island, gives the Whigs three majority in the House thus far, viz: Whigs elected 100, Democrats 105.

The gain of a Whig member in Rhode Island, gives the Whigs three majority in the House thus far, viz: Whigs elected 100, Democrats 105.

The gain of a Whig member in Rhode Island, gives the Whigs three majority in the House thus far, viz: Whigs elected 100, Democrats 105.

The gain of a Whig member in Rhode Island, gives the Whigs three majority in the House thus far, viz: Whigs elected 100, Democrats 105.

The gain of a Whig member in Rhode Island, gives the Whigs three majority in the House thus far, viz: Whigs elected 100, Democrats 105.

GENERAL TAYLOR.

Never since the foundation of the Government, we believe, has the President of the Nation been so violently assailed by the opposition, as General Taylor has been.

Resolved, That a conciliatory course should be pursued by this Convention, and one which, if properly met by the Convention to assemble at Utica, would be the means of uniting the masses of people of this State.

Resolved, That the Democratic State Committee be directed to withdraw any of the nominees presented by this Convention, excepting those for Comptroller, Attorney General, Canal Commissioner, and State Prison Inspector.

A Gentleman in one of the upper Counties, a subscriber to the Watchman, writes to us the following, which is an extract from his letter.

There are only a few persons in my neighborhood who take a paper, and they have done so for years gone by.

The reason, I believe, why they at the North can publish papers cheaper than printers at the South, is because they have more reading people, and consequently, a greater number of persons who subscribe and pay in advance for their papers.

We refer the reader to the neat farewell address of this gentleman to his constituents, in to-day's paper.

CHOLERA IN NEW YORK.—The Board of Health in New York have issued a card in which they state that the cholera has ceased to be an epidemic.

In many parts of Europe the disease still rages with increased violence.

Gen. Taylor was at Albany on the 6th inst., and at New York on the 7th.—Thousands upon thousands assembled to welcome him wherever he has been.

NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

The old Hunkers held their Convention on the 5th and nominated candidates for all the State Offices, viz: for Appeal Judge, Comptroller, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Treasurer, Canal Commissioner, Prison Inspector, and State Engineer.

Resolved, That a conciliatory course should be pursued by this Convention, and one which, if properly met by the Convention to assemble at Utica, would be the means of uniting the masses of people of this State.

Resolved, That the Democratic State Committee be directed to withdraw any of the nominees presented by this Convention, excepting those for Comptroller, Attorney General, Canal Commissioner, and State Prison Inspector.

A Gentleman in one of the upper Counties, a subscriber to the Watchman, writes to us the following, which is an extract from his letter.

There are only a few persons in my neighborhood who take a paper, and they have done so for years gone by.

The reason, I believe, why they at the North can publish papers cheaper than printers at the South, is because they have more reading people, and consequently, a greater number of persons who subscribe and pay in advance for their papers.

We refer the reader to the neat farewell address of this gentleman to his constituents, in to-day's paper.

CHOLERA IN NEW YORK.—The Board of Health in New York have issued a card in which they state that the cholera has ceased to be an epidemic.

In many parts of Europe the disease still rages with increased violence.

Gen. Taylor was at Albany on the 6th inst., and at New York on the 7th.—Thousands upon thousands assembled to welcome him wherever he has been.

THE NEWS FROM HUNGARY.

Disastrous, indeed, beyond all parallel, says the New York "Express" of Thursday is the news we publish from the scene of European warfare; this nation which will reverberate and respond to the quiverings of the electric telegraph, from the Bay of Fundy to the Gulf of Mexico.

The drama is done! The last act of the European tragedy is before us, and the curtain drops upon a scene terrible enough to alarm the friends of liberal principles, in whatever part of the world they are to be found.

Resolved, That a conciliatory course should be pursued by this Convention, and one which, if properly met by the Convention to assemble at Utica, would be the means of uniting the masses of people of this State.

A Gentleman in one of the upper Counties, a subscriber to the Watchman, writes to us the following, which is an extract from his letter.

There are only a few persons in my neighborhood who take a paper, and they have done so for years gone by.

The reason, I believe, why they at the North can publish papers cheaper than printers at the South, is because they have more reading people, and consequently, a greater number of persons who subscribe and pay in advance for their papers.

We refer the reader to the neat farewell address of this gentleman to his constituents, in to-day's paper.

CHOLERA IN NEW YORK.—The Board of Health in New York have issued a card in which they state that the cholera has ceased to be an epidemic.

In many parts of Europe the disease still rages with increased violence.

Gen. Taylor was at Albany on the 6th inst., and at New York on the 7th.—Thousands upon thousands assembled to welcome him wherever he has been.

TO MY LATE CONSTITUENTS.

About to leave my own for a foreign and distant country, on the public service, I cannot but feel the separation of the ties which have united us together without a more formal, though brief and cordial expression of my lasting gratitude for the confidence and kindness you have so long and so often reposed in me.

The drama is done! The last act of the European tragedy is before us, and the curtain drops upon a scene terrible enough to alarm the friends of liberal principles, in whatever part of the world they are to be found.

Resolved, That a conciliatory course should be pursued by this Convention, and one which, if properly met by the Convention to assemble at Utica, would be the means of uniting the masses of people of this State.

A Gentleman in one of the upper Counties, a subscriber to the Watchman, writes to us the following, which is an extract from his letter.

There are only a few persons in my neighborhood who take a paper, and they have done so for years gone by.

The reason, I believe, why they at the North can publish papers cheaper than printers at the South, is because they have more reading people, and consequently, a greater number of persons who subscribe and pay in advance for their papers.

We refer the reader to the neat farewell address of this gentleman to his constituents, in to-day's paper.

CHOLERA IN NEW YORK.—The Board of Health in New York have issued a card in which they state that the cholera has ceased to be an epidemic.

In many parts of Europe the disease still rages with increased violence.

Gen. Taylor was at Albany on the 6th inst., and at New York on the 7th.—Thousands upon thousands assembled to welcome him wherever he has been.

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including "KODAK" and other markings.