TELEGRAPHED FOR THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN.

NEBRASKA BILL PASSED.

WASHINGTON, March 4, 1854.

The Nebraska Territorial bill has passed the Senate. The following is the vote:

YEAS—Messrs. Adams, Atchison, Badger, Bayard, Benjamin, Brodhead, Brown, Butler, Cass, Clayton, Dawson, Dixon, Dodge of Iowa, Douglas, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Geyer, Gwynn, Hunter, Johnson, Jones of Iowa, Jones of Tennessee, Mason, Morton, Morris, Pettit, Pratt, Rusk, Sebastian, Shields, Slidell, Stuart, Thompson of Kentucky, Thomson of New Jersey, Toucey, Weller and Williams. 37.

NAYS—Messrs. Bell, Chase, Dodge, Fessenden, Fish, Foot, Hamlin, Houston, James, Seward, Smith, Sumner, Wade and Walker. 14.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, March 4, 1854.

Our cotton market was quite firm to-day, at former quotations. The sales footed up 2,750 bales, the market showing no symptoms of weakness.

Rio coffee is in good demand, and prices have advanced ¼ cent. The sales to-day were 250 bags, at prices ranging from 11¼ to 12¾. We have also to report sales of 1,000 bags Java at 14 cents.

Flour remains unchanged. Sales of 8,000 bbls. State brands 7.87½. Ohio 8.12½. 2,250 bbls. Southern brands sold at 7.87½ to 8¼. Wheat is firmer at 86 a 92. Spirits of Turpentine remains buoyant.

Columbia Cotton Market, March 7.

We have nothing new to notice in our cotton market for yesterday; the supply on sale continues light, with prices firm and full. 44 bales changed hands, at 6¼ for inferior to 8 cents for middling.

The following note came to us through the Post Office, this morning. It was written on a beautiful sheet of embossed note paper, in a lady's hand, and put in a fine envelope. It may be interesting to Dr. Bason, who, we believe is at the North, to know these little particulars, as well as that his presence is needed here. Doctor, a lady has the tooth ache, and it were well you could come by telegraph, before the pain ceases.

MR. BASSON, Sir: What has become of Dr. Bason, or when will he return to Salisbury? He is much wanted here. You will oblige several, if not many, of your readers, by sticking this.

Respectfully, &c., A.

Salisbury, March 7, 1854.

The Gardiner Trial Ended.—Dr. Gardiner, whose trial for an alledged perjury touching the expenditure of public money, and in support of a claim against the United States, terminated at Baltimore, a few days since, in the conviction of the prisoner. He was sentenced to the Penitentiary for the term of 10 years.

P. S. Shortly after Dr. Gardiner was returned to the prison, he was seized with violent convulsions, and died. A post mortem examination subsequently held on his body, revealed the fact that he had taken a dose of strychnine. He protested his innocence in his dying moments.

THE MISSOURI QUESTIONS.

PETERSBURG, (Va.) FEB. 21, 1854.

GENTLEMEN: It is not perceived by the writer how it can be said by Mr. Clay himself, or by other persons, that he had no signal agency in the Missouri compromise. The Missouri compromise consist of this, in chief; that the Congress at that time, in 1820 and 1821, decided that negro slavery might exist in Missouri, but should be excluded from all the other territory then belonging to the United States and lying on the north of 36 deg. 30 min. Before Missouri had formed her constitution, that is to say in 1850, the Congress considered and decided the question whether Missouri, in forming her constitution preparatory to admission into the Union, should by that constitution exclude negro slavery. The decision was that negro slavery might exist in Missouri, but should be excluded from north of 36 deg. 30 min. At once Missouri formed a constitution, and in 1821, with that constitution in her hand, she knocked at the door of Congress for admission into the Union. Her constitution was formed in conformity to the decision of Congress in 1820, which decision was that negro slavery might exist within her borders. This constitution of hers, however, under which she sought in 1821 to be admitted into the Union, interdicted the immigration of free negroes.—To this feature of her constitution exception was taken and strenuously urged. If she had been rejected on this ground, the questions of the existence of negro slavery within her borders and its exclusion from the territory north of 36 deg. 30 min. would have been unsettled, and the agitation on those questions would have been kept alive. Mr. Clay's proposition is 1821, in the form of a joint resolution, which was adopted by Congress, and upon the acceptance of which by Missouri should pass no law to exclude free negroes (for that is the true English of it) "from the enjoyment of any of the privileges and immunities to which such citizen is entitled under the Constitution of the United States"—Thus the feature of the constitution of Missouri which was objected to when as a Territory she applied for admission into the Union as a co-equal State, in 1821 was gotten rid of, and she was admitted, and the legislation of 1820 was thus secured by the adoption by Congress and the acceptance by Missouri of Mr. Clay's proposition in the form of a joint resolution. It was in consequence of the adoption and the acceptance of Mr. Clay's proposition, in accordance with which Missouri came into the Union, that the struggle about admitting her and excluding negro slavery from the north side of 36 deg. 30 min. was at that time put an end to, and praises were showered on him: and well did he deserve them, and worthily did he command them again in 1850. I never voted for him, but I can be just to him.

PUBLIUS.

A YOUNG BIGAMIST.

Wm. Forrest aged 19, has been arrested in Brooklyn, for bigamy. He married his first wife two years ago; his second, Margaret McElroy, on the 8th of January last, and the third, Mary Stephens, one month thereafter. When brought before the court all three wives were present, and the charge being sustained by the most convincing evidence he was fully committed to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Right.—Many persons were arrested and fined in Baltimore last week for snowballing in the streets.

For the Watchman.

There was a wonderful freshet in the Catawba River, February 25th, as high as was ever known by the present inhabitants, causing a great deal of damage to farms, covering up small grain and removing fences. Where there was eddy water the land is much improved by the sediment left on it. At Clover Bottom, there is a great quantity of raft left on it—plank, scantling of various kinds, and logs, one sixty and another seventy feet long, supposed to have come from off some small river—Buffalo Broad Creek, which empties in at the same place, was higher than ever known before. It run with such violence that it uprooted trees from two to three feet in diameter, and bore them off into the river. J. H. T.

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS!
GREAT REDUCTION ON COMMISSIONS!
LUTTERLOH'S LINE.

THE undersigned informs the shipping public, that his line of Freight Boats are now in prime order, being the lightest draft and having the greatest number of Steamers. I can say, without fear of contradiction, that I can and do bring goods up the river with more despatch than any other boat line on the Cape Fear. Goods intended for this line, should be marked to the care of T. S. Lutterloh, Wilmington, at which place I will forward them for 15 per cent., being five per cent. less than any other Commission House there charges.—I will also receive and forward at Fayetteville for 10 per cent.; this is 15 per cent. less than the forwarding agents there charge. No goods will in future be received and forwarded at Fayetteville, unless they come up by my boats.

From 1st January, 1853, to 1st January, 1854, the Steamers of my line have made double the number of trips of any other line.

☞ Shippers will recollect, that if they send their goods to the agents of other lines, they do not ship them by my boats, thereby causing detention, and not unfrequently wagons wait at Fayetteville for their goods.

Ho for South Troy and Eagle Mills.

A MINE OF WEALTH!

A little more help and its riches shall be developed to the astonishment of the world and to the enrichment of the South.

THE proprietors of Eagle Mills and South Troy, (the most important real estate in the South, and comprising water powers of inestimable value,) nothing daunted by a degree of public neglect, are pushing forward. Their motto is, "ONWARD! ONWARD!"—and so far, their labors have been handsomely rewarded. $1,000, clean cash, in eleven months, is not to be sneezed at. And if this sum can be realized by a limited investment of capital, what could not be done by a liberal and full handed company! And will not money men give their attention to this locality and its great inducements for the investment of capital? Its intrinsic and prospective value has been estimated at $2,700,000!!! Very comfortable sum, that; and ought not, the subscriber thinks, to be deemed unworthy attention of millionaires. At one time it was within the reach of men of small means—those who boast of their 20, 30, and 50 thousand dollars. They must be satisfied, now, with simply seeing the land of promise. They are invited to come and take a look; and perhaps they may be gratified with a brief talk about trading for interests. But liberal men, with handsome means, are those who will receive greatest attention. Come forward gentlemen, here is the place for your money, and the place that will repay you double for every dollar expended.—$4,000 a year for 25 years, are $100,000—clear—over and above expenses. Money will make money. It strangely multiplies itself, and that very rapidly, when properly used. Will you come? Come if you will. If not, why, we'll go on as we have done: We'll do the best we can: We'll continue to improve this valuable property, slowly and surely. We'll introduce one thing after another until the ground is occupied. We will not only live by it, but make money. Poor men who want work shall find here constant employment and good wages. No difficulty about it. Eagle Mills and South Troy are bound to go ahead, just as sure as the sun shines and that the rain falls to water the earth. The Southern country shall feel its benign influence, and rejoice in its prosperity, and when we have done with it, all men shall call us blessed.

ANDREW BAGGARLY.

January 19, 1854. 35

P. S. The location and other advantages of South Troy and Eagle Mills, properly understood and appreciated, would hardly fail of arresting the serious attention of the friends of the Western Rail Road extension. It is our intention to collect information on this subject, with a view of urging upon the public and the Legislature, the claims of this section; and have but little doubt that it facts of sufficient importance shall be adduced, South Troy and Eagle Mills, will be speedily connected with Salisbury by rail road as it ought to be, and thence with the markets of the world. To this end, a survey of the route between the two places shall be made in due time. South Troy will, ere long become a manufacturing city; and hence the necessity of increasing transporting and travelling facilities. The advantages of such a road would tell powerfully upon the merchantile and mechanical interests of Salisbury. Doctors, Lawyers and Divines, are also concerned; and would all be benefitted. A. B
