GREENEY M.D.

In speaking of the resistance which the opinion of the New York Tribune ought to be offered to the Nebraska bill, the editor of that sheet delivered himself yesterday of the following sentiment:

WHAT IS ARISTOCRACY? In reply to this question Gen. Favé, a distinguished orator in the French Chambers, gave the following answer:

'Aristocracy in the 19th century is the league, the coalition of those who would do so without preparing, live without working, know without learning, carry all honors without deserving them, and occupy all the places of government without being able to fill them.'

THE LATE FATHER MATTHEWS, OF ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH, WASHINGTON.

The late Father Matthews, of St. Patrick's Church, Washington, has left a fortune of $200,000, a portion of which is bequeathed to his nephew Ex-Senator Merriek, of Maryland, and a large sum to the Church.
