

Address by the Hon. George P. Marsh on the Occasion of his Arrival in America.

From the Washington Free Press, 14th.

A large and appreciative audience filled the spacious Town Hall, Tuesday afternoon, to hear Hon. Geo. P. Marsh.

After a few words of grateful introduction, in which he spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be back once more in his former home, and the comparatively slight changes he found in the village, and especially in the faces of his friends, or in number of their circle, Mr. Marsh announced that he should speak of the opinions held abroad of us as a nation, and some of the questions involved in the great contest now going on in Europe.

In general, abroad on every question, the Governments entertain one class of sentiments, and the people another; and there, as well as here, the Government is usually less worthy than the people.

By the Governments of Europe, then we are regarded as a daring, unscrupulous, and unscrupulous nation. The chief grounds of this opinion are, 1st, Our belief in the extension of territory.

2d, Our disposition to acquire territory by force. 3d, Our disposition to acquire territory by purchase. 4th, Our disposition to acquire territory by conquest.

5th, Our disposition to acquire territory by treaty. 6th, Our disposition to acquire territory by gift.

7th, Our disposition to acquire territory by discovery. 8th, Our disposition to acquire territory by prescription.

9th, Our disposition to acquire territory by cession. 10th, Our disposition to acquire territory by conquest.

ing the status quo. No exception can be made in the case of the English Government. Before France suppressed by force the Roman Republic, she consulted England, and was formally notified that the English Government had no objection.

Lord Palmerston afterwards stated in Parliament that the whole Cabinet agreed in this sympathy with that most atrocious act of despotism. Thus far the Turks have been left to defend themselves, and they have done it gloriously.

France and England war for Austria, not because they fear her, but because they sympathize with her. In this sympathy the English people do not share.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

but the men were soon controlled, and confined themselves to the village which always takes place on the battle-field. One villain, with a red coat on his back, I regret to say, was seen to exchange his rifle for a musket on the north in the rear of the 7th regiment, and before we could say a word, he discharged his rifle right through the wretched creature's brain.

Lord Palmerston afterwards stated in Parliament that the whole Cabinet agreed in this sympathy with that most atrocious act of despotism. Thus far the Turks have been left to defend themselves, and they have done it gloriously.

France and England war for Austria, not because they fear her, but because they sympathize with her. In this sympathy the English people do not share.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

The Christians of Turkey are mainly of the Greek faith. The Greeks have no idea of nationality aside from unity of faith. Every man of their religion, that is, who abhors graven images and adores painted ones, is a Greek.

REPORTS FROM THE MILWAUKEE SENTINEL, WRITING FROM LAWRENCE, KANSAS TERRITORY, UNDER DATE OF OCTOBER 4, 1854.

I would not omit the farmer from my exhortation to come here, as there are yet hundreds of thousands of acres, unclaimed of as valuable land as the Union contains.

The immediate occasion of this action was an exhibition in our camp a few days since of some drunken Indians, who got into a regular Indian fight, and had been committed before our faces.

We have frequent exhibitions of frontier life. A few days since there came into our camp, and crossed the ford at this place, some three hundred Sac Indians, on a visit to their friends, the Delawares, on the other side of the river, some four miles below us.

Disputes and collisions with our Missouri neighbors—squatters from Missouri—are becoming daily more frequent, and open ruptures more probable.

The prisoners are all shaven cleanly on the skin and the cheeks; only the mustache is left, and the hair is cropped as close to the head as possible.

The poor fellows had a notion that our men were more than their own, and they were very much surprised to find that they were not.

The poor fellows had a notion that our men were more than their own, and they were very much surprised to find that they were not.

The poor fellows had a notion that our men were more than their own, and they were very much surprised to find that they were not.

We shall set a strong guard to night on the detached camp, and around our camp, as they will be in it, I doubt not, in a moment, if they can. These details will show you some of the plumes of our pioneer life.

The military company has been formed, and called the Regulating Band, to be armed with a rifle, revolver, and bowie knife. About thirty joined of these present.

A gentleman here yesterday from Fort Leavenworth, we learn that it was currently reported there that a grand attack was to be made on yesterday by the Missourians, with the intention of exterminating us, and they were very anxious to hear the result.

The Rowan Agricultural Fair came off at Mineral Spring, on Thursday last. The annual address, delivered by LUKE BLACKMER, Esq., we have heard spoken of in very high terms.

The award of premiums indicate rather a small exhibition, but we learn there were numerous evidences of the good results flowing from this organization in our country.

It is to be regretted, however, that so few have taken part in this effort for improvement. There is no lack of men—intelligent and good men—to organize a County Society which should equal, if not excel, that of any other county in the State.

OUR DEPOT AND THE RAIL ROAD. We find that the Contractors to build the Railroad Depot at this place, have got the foundation laid, and we suppose aim to run up the superstructure by the time the track is completed to this Town.

Dr. W. F. BASON. The numerous friends and acquaintances of this gentleman, in this State, will learn with satisfaction and pleasure, that he is not dead, as has been very currently reported here.

The Mountain Torrent, a Temperance paper at Hillsville, Va., pours out a "torrent" of words and arguments in favor of the "Knox Nothing," whose aims, so far as the editor can find out, are in opposition to the Catholic influence in our Government, and liquor shops for foreigners in our country, &c.

THE SEEKERS AND THE SOUGHT. The above caption we apply to two distinct classes, viz: Those who seek office, and those who are sought by their fellow citizens on account of their ability and integrity, to fill stations in the public service.

Washington was invited and urged, against his inclination, to take one of the most responsible stations ever held by man; and he yielded to the aspirations of ambition, which his modesty forbade, but prompted solely by a patriotic devotion to his country contending for liberty and the rights of man.

These cases illustrate our views of what should be the practice in regard to the servants of the Republic. Those who make politics a trading matter, and engage the services of those to electioneers for them, who are bought and sold as the offices and their dollars may incline, go into high places with a pledge on their part and an expectation on that of the drugged, that a host of political scamps are to be quanted on the public Treasury, whose chief merits consist in the arts and deceptions of the demagogue, and unworthy hold office to the exclusion of the honest and patriotic citizen, whose heart and mind and noblest aspirations are all for the interest, the honor and glory of our America.

AGRICULTURAL IMPROVEMENT. Under this heading, and in reference to the State Agricultural Society, the Raleigh Post says: "It is contemplated to knock at the door of the treasury, in the name of the farmers of the State, for a sum which will be sufficient to enable the agricultural society of the State here to place a remunerative encouragement before competitors for premiums at its annual fairs.

Mr. Spenser, the publisher of the Baydell Standard, received a verdict in his favor this morning for $1,250, against Daniel, the editor of the Richmond Examiner, for libel.—N. Y. Evening Post.

VERDICT AGAINST MR. DANIEL. Mr. Spenser, the publisher of the Baydell Standard, received a verdict in his favor this morning for $1,250, against Daniel, the editor of the Richmond Examiner, for libel.—N. Y. Evening Post.

OUR DEPOT AND THE RAIL ROAD. We find that the Contractors to build the Railroad Depot at this place, have got the foundation laid, and we suppose aim to run up the superstructure by the time the track is completed to this Town.

Dr. W. F. BASON. The numerous friends and acquaintances of this gentleman, in this State, will learn with satisfaction and pleasure, that he is not dead, as has been very currently reported here.

The Mountain Torrent, a Temperance paper at Hillsville, Va., pours out a "torrent" of words and arguments in favor of the "Knox Nothing," whose aims, so far as the editor can find out, are in opposition to the Catholic influence in our Government, and liquor shops for foreigners in our country, &c.

Episcopal Church in this place, on Friday and Sunday evenings last. Several persons received confirmation during the attendance of the Bishop, and the rite of ordination to preach the Gospel, was administered to Mr. Mason, on Sabbath morning.

A New Fog Alarm. After long continued experiment, Mr. Dalzell, of Connecticut, has succeeded in constructing a mechanical Fog Trumpet, for light houses and light ships, so arranged that it blows at stated intervals, and so loud that it is said to sometimes send the sound a distance of eight or ten miles.

A New Test.—A capital thing that was of A. F. Bell, of Iowa, who, by the way, never said a bad thing in his life.—A knot of democratic politicians were collected after the Congressional Convention of Kansas, on Thursday, when the subject of State officers came up, and the name of Sullivan, of Cass county, was mentioned in connection with the office of Attorney General.

A Model County.—The Superior Court of Warren was adjourned on Tuesday last, all the business before it having been dispatched. A friend informs us that some time since, Judge Manly on the Circuit, Warren Superior Court was opened on Tuesday and adjourned the same day, no cases being on docket, and the Grand Jury having reported that they had no pre-terments to make.

Death of the Catholic Priest who was Tamed and Feathered. The telegraph yesterday announced the death of the Rev. John Bapst, the German Catholic priest, who was tamed and feathered and ridden on a rail in Ellsworth, on Saturday night last, while on a visit to that place.

Mr. Bapst was staying with one of his people at Ellsworth in the name of Kent, whose house is near the Catholic chapel. Mr. Kent's house, around one o'clock on Saturday evening, was surrounded by a large crowd of whom some thirty or thirty, mostly young men, entered the house, they searched from top to bottom for Mr. Bapst, who had retired to the cellar, and then out of doors, ran him down the street, and having got some distance from the house, stripped him of all his clothing except his pantaloons, and in that condition put him astride of a fence rail, and carried him upon it some three or four rods, when the rail broke.

VERDICT AGAINST MR. DANIEL. Mr. Spenser, the publisher of the Baydell Standard, received a verdict in his favor this morning for $1,250, against Daniel, the editor of the Richmond Examiner, for libel.—N. Y. Evening Post.

OUR DEPOT AND THE RAIL ROAD. We find that the Contractors to build the Railroad Depot at this place, have got the foundation laid, and we suppose aim to run up the superstructure by the time the track is completed to this Town.

Dr. W. F. BASON. The numerous friends and acquaintances of this gentleman, in this State, will learn with satisfaction and pleasure, that he is not dead, as has been very currently reported here.