THE RAILROAD

A Great Institution!!

EVERY BODY SAYS SO, and so it must be. It almost annihilates time and distance, by the speed of its trains, which, as they thunder along through hills and over the plains and valleys, drawing their long lengths and enormous freights, the gaping world stands and looks—they can't help—with wonder and delight; and then it is they are most impressed with the Great Institution. People used to say that such and such a man "is a loss." If he were (not a politician, as a lawyer, a preacher, a merchant or a tradesman), he is now no loss—he is a gain. That is the appellation. A good loss, in these times, was, perhaps, more the pride of men, than since the Iron Horse came upon the world's great stage; not because he was better used for he never was, but because it is some of their uses they have been put.—Well, in considering these comparisons in their application to men, we hold that there are some men who rise far above even the Great Institution. Take for instance Mister Ex Gov Mouldbar, who, as mental strength and moral power, put into operation the great forces which heaved out the earth from the deep "cuts" and filled up the ravines and valleys from Charlotte to Goldsboro', and made the high way, with all its appendages. We might instance others, many others, who rise above them; but let it suffice there are other men whose modesty will not allow them to aspire to any thing beyond. For ourself, we are perfectly content to be accounted like the Great Institution.

Gentlemen, let us reason together on this subject can't be beat in selling CLOTHING. His Coats, and P nts, V sts and Neck-Ties; Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes; Shirts and Drawers, cannot be excelled in quality, neither can any one sell their Goods at lower prices. The fact is, there, HOFFLIN'S CLOTHING STORE has become to be, to this whole region of country,

HOFFLIN,

A Great and Indispensible Institution.

Look where you will, and you will see gentlemen wearing garments from his House.

Does a gentleman want a fine and good COAT, or VEST, or HAT, and feel he has need to make the best use of his money? He goes to HOFFLIN, of course. Hoffl n's Store comprises every thing of every quality. He displays a good deal of taste, and, indeed, in person all former purchasers, and in the HOFFLIN CLUB is the Clothing line. The fancy and fashionable man; the man who prefers the solid and durable; the laboring man in search of tough, strong and comfortable garments—all can be suited at HOFFLIN'S. And all at the lowest prices, which distinguish his Store, and entitle it to be regarded as the Store, the GREAT INSTITUTION, in that line. Call at HOFFLIN'S, will you, at the ☞ CORNER OF THE MANSION HOUSE.

What! Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.

Because it is the ornament God Himself prohibited to all our race. Speeder, which digs the root half blown ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the age be prior or up-rolling the locks be those of jocund, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be sunken and shriveled. Arouse and stay it, or worse still, it quickly falls with grief, before all but more than half the charms—Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore the original beauty to gray hair, and will cause it to grow upon bald heads, if any hair remains. Read the following, and believe. The widow of the first in the celebrated Patrick Henry, testifies:

Dr. Wood: New York, April 10, 1858.

Dear Sir:—Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the restoration of my hair to its original color, about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon resumed its original hue. I conceive your Hair Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Deeds a-v Go[illegible]."

Welch Newspaper office, 13 Nassau st., April 12, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir:—[illegible] I purchased a bottle of your Hair Restorative, and gave it to my wife, who commenced to use it on the first night. On the morning of the second application, to our astonishment, a fine growth of hair appeared on the gray locations, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the Restorative to all persons in want of such a thing, as one of their best.

CHARLES CAMPBELL.

New York, July 5, 1857.

Prof. O. J. Wood—With satisfaction do I recommend your Hair Restorative. [illegible] I was troubled with dandruff, and my hair was falling out very fast. A few applications [illegible] my hair from falling out, and restored it to its former color, health and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend it to the public.

J. D. HOSE.

Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

The Restorative is now up to barrels of 2 gallons via large, medium and small bottles. Prepared only by O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and for sale by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded entirely from GUMS,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE AND LIVER MEDICINES in use. Containing the principle, that does not debilitate the system, but gives tone to the organs, and restores them to healthy action. It is the most active vegetable cathartic and liver remedy, acting first on the liver to free it from obstruction, then on the stomach and bowels, thus relieving them from all impurities. It is a mild, safe and sure purgative, and will suit a delicate constitution as well as vigorous.

The Liver is one of the largest, and, when in health, the most important organs of the human body, and from it depends the health or sickness of almost every other organ. Therefore, in curing diseases, we must commence by setting the Liver right, and then the blood will be pure, and the whole system will be healthy. Nine-tenths of all the diseases that afflict mankind originate in the Liver.

In Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Jaundice, Costiveness, Piles, Fever and Ague, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, it has never been known to fail, when taken according to the directions.

In Affections of the Kidneys, Dropsy, Gravel, Retention or Incontinence of Urine, Diseases of Females, Nervousness, Sick Headache, Loss of Appetite, Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Breast, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Bad Breath, Costiveness, Blotches on the Skin, Worms of all kinds, Scald Head, Ringworm, Scurvy, Humors, Neuralgia, Consumption (in its early stages), Night Sweats, Chills, Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Typhus Fever, Bilious Fever, Scarlet Fever, Yellow Fever, Spasms, Colic, Pain in the Stomach, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Sick Stomach, Vomiting, Purifies the Blood, Female Complaints, Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Dropsy, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, Ague, Chill Fever, Intermittent Fever, Typhus Fever, Bilious Fever, Scarlet Fever, Yellow Fever, Worms in the system, Jaundice, Piles, Costiveness, Blotches on the Skin
