

General Jail Delivery

General Jail Delivery. Yesterday afternoon, four prisoners, who were confined in the jail, were taken to the court house...

About a mile from town, Floyd was overtaken by Mr. A. Harris and Gen. Young, and brought back to the jail, where he has been safely imprisoned.

It appears that Wall succeeded in getting the lock of his cell, and then liberated his fellow prisoners, who congregated in the Jailors room on the 2d floor, and when the servants had passed the room to ascend to the 3d story to supply the prisoners with water, they quickly made their escape.

Spurgeon and Cummings. A private letter from London furnishes the following items: "One Sabbath I heard Spurgeon. It is a text was taken. He was very severe in his allusions to Austria and Popery, prophesying the speedy downfall of the latter."

A Father with Three Daughters. The Germans Uppermost. At Marienbad, a village situated on the river Main, in Bavaria, there lives a man sixty-eight years of age, named Johannes S. Schottenbeck.

Thunder Storm in England. The late English papers speak of severe thunder storms as having occurred all over England. At Stoke and other villages, the thunder and lightning continued for upwards of an hour, and children and women, and even men of mature age, were heard shrieking in the houses.

Trees in the immediate neighborhood of Clapham, Merdon, Leversham, Wandsworth, Coborn, Epworth, Lewisham, and Erith, were split in twain by the force of the electric fluid; and many persons were so terribly alarmed at each peal of thunder that followed the flashes of lightning, which occurred almost incessantly, that they rushed from their beds in a state bordering upon frenzy, and took up their positions in the open road, at a time when the rain was descending in torrents, thinking that the open air, although they were exposed to the pelting of a pitiless shower, was safer than remaining in their own houses, which they expected momentarily to be hurled to the ground.

For the Lunatic Asylum. Miss Mary Corina, who was before Mayor Lan a few days ago, and who, after the usual medical examination, was pronounced to be insane, left this morning in charge of Deputy Sheriff M. A. Downing for the Asylum at Raleigh.

While this unfortunate woman was seated in the car, waiting for the train to start, she kept up a continual talking about something. Passing the window near which she was waiting, we heard her say, that 'we are followed at times by invisible spirits, who, unseen and unknown to us, peek and mark our doings.' 'But, she continued, 'they seldom give us any pocket change—that's the very thing they ought to do, too, for it's very useful in buying apples, peaches and cakes, and I owe—'

An Austrian Detachment Taken Prisoners by a Railway Engineer. Among the many lighter passages of the war with which the Parisians amuse themselves, we find in the Sport the story of the capture of a detachment of Austrians, who were taken prisoners by the engineer of the railway. It appears that the Austrians were en route for Poeschke to reinforce General Urban, when the engineer, whose sympathies were naturally on the Italian side, "switched off" and converted the Allied train into the middle of the allied camp. Here they were politely escorted from the railway carriages by the French soldiers, with which that amiable potentate, selected their comrades with "All those who are going to France will please change cars."
