

by their own... they have, in common with every Northern State...

country's strength and independence... The old Union was not merely a political...

CAROLINA WATCHMAN SALISBURY, N. C. MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 7, 1864. We have with much difficulty, and at heavy cost, obtained the paper on which we print this week...

WAY-SIDE HOSPITAL.—The Committee of Managers of the Way-Side Hospital... TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. At a public communication of Mockville Lodge, No. 134, held in Masonic Hall on Friday, the 15th February, A. L. 5864, A. D. 1864...

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

CONCLUDED NEXT WEEK.

YANKEE RAID.—An official dispatch was received at Richmond, from Gen. Lee, on the 1st March, stating that the enemy's army was marching on both flanks...

LOOK AT THIS. I SHALL not consider myself bound by any former agreement made between myself and the doctors of this town...

by their own... they have, in common with every Northern State...

country's strength and independence... The old Union was not merely a political...

CAROLINA WATCHMAN SALISBURY, N. C. MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 7, 1864. We have with much difficulty, and at heavy cost, obtained the paper on which we print this week...

WAY-SIDE HOSPITAL.—The Committee of Managers of the Way-Side Hospital... TRIBUTE OF RESPECT. At a public communication of Mockville Lodge, No. 134, held in Masonic Hall on Friday, the 15th February, A. L. 5864, A. D. 1864...

The sole communication on Tuesday night fell far to extend to the space of several days to come. The South Carolina men stand a far better chance than the wealthy Wall street men...

Can the peace matter press that her children may be brought to associate with the men who make the Word of God contemptible...

GOV. VANCE'S SPEECH. It will be seen, occupies nearly all our small sheet, and yet we are able to give only about one half of it. It is a very important document, however, and we could not feel that we had done our duty if we were not to lay it before our readers...

Resolved. That in token of our respect and esteem for the memory of our deceased brother we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that the Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

Notwithstanding the inducements offered to the white troops, the colored men are the principal buyers. In fact, they have the reputation of carrying more money in their pockets than the white men can easily count...

These are another aspect of the question to which I wish to call your attention and one which deserves much consideration. I desire you to mark my prediction. There never can be peace on the Continent of North America until the North and South are independent and distinct nations...

Judge Battle and Manly have each given expression to their views in regard to the Constitutionality, &c., of the law, concerning the principles of morality, and applicability of the law regarding false oaths to the cases of those who attempt by this means to escape service in the army...

Resolved. That we tender the widow and family of the deceased our most heartfelt sympathies in their sad bereavement and hour of affliction.

Your lands confiscated and sold to your own slaves! Now you see what is in store for you. This is but the beginning of what would be the end. If they do this in the great tree, what will they not do in the dry?

Such a peace as you have seen effected by overpowering a gallant man, putting machetes upon his limbs and throwing him into a dungeon. Such a peace as exists until he reaches the bars, strikes the walls and strikes terror into the hearts of his enemies when they dream they are most secure...

Socks for the Soldiers. We learn that the ladies in School District, No. 21, have agreed amongst themselves each to knit one strong pair of cotton socks for the soldiers; and have, through a gentleman of the District, requested us to announce this project to the ladies of Rowan, and request them to unite with them in it...

Resolved. That we devote a page of our Record to the memory of our deceased brother; and that the above Resolutions and Resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of the Lodge, and that they be published in the Carolina Watchman.

Is there any other way to become as to imagine the only possible way to make his negroes to make terms of peace, with the United States and place them under the care and protection of Mr. Lincoln? Why, a more successful proposition is not to be made...

If you think, fellow citizens, as a great many of you do, that proper efforts have not been made during this warfare, to obtain the peace which you desire, why, there cannot be any valid objection to such efforts being made...

TRANSIENT BOARDING. Travellers now pay for boarding and lodging in this section $20 per day—$5 for each meal and $5 for a night's lodging. We paid this price at High Point, last week and we believe all the hotels are charging the same.

Trustee Notice. THE Trustees of Michael Brown are prepared to make a payment to the creditors of said Brown, according to the terms of the Trust. Persons interested will please call at the office of Love & Caldwell during the week commencing the 14th March.

There is only one more program to consider under this head. It is a program which a great many, that possibly the all order of things could be restored, that our rights under that Constitution could be guaranteed to us, and everything move on peacefully as before the war.

Resolved. That in token of our respect and esteem for the memory of our deceased brother we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that the Lodge be clothed in mourning for thirty days.

Jenny Locke, an old and most faithful servant of the late Moses A. Locke, of this town, died a few days ago, aged 108 years. She had a very good recollection of incidents of the old revolutionary war, and for many years has lived more in passed times than the present.

NOTICE TO NON-CONSCRIPTS. I NOW have a Company of non-conscripts permanently stationed at Salisbury, N. C., as Private Guards, and will receive 25 or 30 more recruits if an early application is made to me. This Company will not be removed from this place.

My friends, there are a great many desirable things, but the question not what may be possible, but what may be obtained, in the most reasonable and wise manner. It is desirable to have a lovely wife and plenty of pretty children, but every man can't have them. I tell you now candidly, there is no more possibility of reconstructing their old Union and restoring things as they were four years ago...

Resolved. That we tender the widow and family of the deceased our most heartfelt sympathies in their sad bereavement and hour of affliction.

MARRIED. At the residence of M. S. McKenzie, Esq., in Rowan county, N. C., on the 29th of Feb., by E. J. R. BROWN, L. GEO. HORAH, of Salisbury, and of the 46th N. C. Troop, of War SOPHIA A. KLUTTS, of Rowan.

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE AT AUCTION. WILL be sold to the highest bidder on Saturday the 12th day of March, 1864, at 12 o'clock, in front of the Court House door in the town of Salisbury, the House and lot on which I reside, situated on main street, opposite to the residence of John Horah, Esq. The lot is handsomely situated in a choice neighborhood, well shaded, house almost new and just enclosed with an excellent new fence. Possession given first of April or sooner. Terms cash, in Confederate money. J. W. WATSON, 1141

There is only one more program to consider under this head. It is a program which a great many, that possibly the all order of things could be restored, that our rights under that Constitution could be guaranteed to us, and everything move on peacefully as before the war.

DIED. In Davidson county, on the 25th February, 1864, ISABELLA M. YOUNG, the wife of B. Y. Young, aged 19 years. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn their loss. In this county, on the 27th ultimo, SAMUEL FEELER, aged 59 years and 4 months. Also on the 17th October last, JOHN D. FEELER, aged 19 years.

YANKEE RAID.—An official dispatch was received at Richmond, from Gen. Lee, on the 1st March, stating that the enemy's army was marching on both flanks...

LOOK AT THIS. I SHALL not consider myself bound by any former agreement made between myself and the doctors of this town...

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

CONCLUDED NEXT WEEK.

YANKEE RAID.—An official dispatch was received at Richmond, from Gen. Lee, on the 1st March, stating that the enemy's army was marching on both flanks...

LOOK AT THIS. I SHALL not consider myself bound by any former agreement made between myself and the doctors of this town...