Cotton Gins,

Packing Screws, Horse Mills, Chain Bands, and Still Repairing.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the public, that he is now building between 15 and 20 COTTON GINS, of good materials, part of which will be steel saws and the ribs or bars faced with steel.

PACKING SCREWS, of the usual size, and larger than any now in use in the State, and no doubt superior—they will be made in an engine erected for that purpose.

HORSE MILLS will be built at a short notice, on the improved perpendicular plan, or any other.

CHAIN BANDS & WHEELS, of a superior quality, which are extremely well calculated for the propelling of both Gins and Mills.

Persons desiring any of the above articles, will please apply to
JOHN WILSON.
Tarboro', Sept. 1830.

JOHN S. ROBBINS,

RESPECTFULLY informs the inhabitants of Edgecombe and the adjacent counties, that he is now prepared for Repairing Cotton Gins, making & repairing riding Chairs, Gigs, &c. at his shop, about 18 miles from Tarborough, on the waters of Town Creek, near the road leading from James Bridges's to the Widow Taylor's. He will also make Bedsteads, Tables, desks, &c. at the shortest notice. All of which will be done cheap for cash, or on a short credit to punctual customers.

He would refer those having Cotton Gins out of order, to Messrs. Bedding Sugg, John R. Scarborough, James Barron, and others, for satisfactory assurances of his ability to repair them.
14 Nov. 1830.

NEW GOODS.

Tarboro', Oct. 13, 1830.

CAUTION.

SOMETIME in the month of March last, a man calling himself ALEXANDER J. MAURICE, came to this place, professing to be a Universalist Preacher, and as such, was cordially received by the friends of Universalism. Some short time after his arrival, his friends becoming his sureties, he was enabled to purchase one half of the Printing Press, Types, and other materials used in the office of the Carolina Sentinel, together with some other articles, amounting all together to about $1500. Scarcely had the money been paid, when this same unprincipled scoundrel has shamefully absconded, and left his friends to pay his debts. Since his departure from this place, he has been heard of his having carried a gold watch entrusted to his care, and secretly in the country, for the purpose of having it repaired in this place; of his endeavoring to pass a note forged by himself to the amount of $300, of his purchasing several watches on the eve of his departure, for which he gave his notes; of his borrowing several sums of money, and finally leaving his tavern bill unpaid.

This notice is therefore to caution the public (particularly in Philadelphia and New-York, where he has been seen,) to discountenance such a villain.

Said ALEXANDER J. MAURICE is about five feet five inches high, dark complexion, black hair and grey eyes, with a very prominent forehead.

Prospectus of the NORTH-CAROLINA SENTINEL.

THE undersigned announces to his former subscribers and the public, that he will, in a few weeks, resume the publication of the NORTH-CAROLINA SENTINEL. He has been induced to this determination by the discontinuance of the paper on the part of its late Editor, and the improbability that its publication would be undertaken by any other person. He is already sufficiently familiar with the responsibilities and inadequate support connected with a Press in Newbern, and in again subjecting himself to their operation, he yields more to a sense of duty, than to any hope of pecuniary emolument. His expectations will be realized if the business affords but a moderate profit; and this, he trusts, will be secured by the kindness of his friends.

That the Sentinel may be rendered more acceptable to its readers, the Editor is making arrangements to issue it on an imperial sheet, with a handsome new type. If a corresponding improvement should not be effected in the general character of the Paper, the deficiency will be attributable to the imperfect qualifications of the Editor. His judgment, however deficient, will be honestly applied to the promotion of what he conceives to be the public good.

CONDITIONS.
The North-Carolina Sentinel will be published once a week, on an imperial sheet, with a handsome new type, procured for the purpose.

The subscription will be Three Dollars per annum, payable in six months from the time of subscribing.

Advertisements inserted on the customary terms.

- " American Coaster, G. R. Dixon, Master, 88 tons.
- " Nonpareil, W. Dixon, Master, 81 tons.

They are first rate vessels, commanded by men experienced in the trade, and will take freight at the lowest rates.

All Produce addressed to me, and shipped in these vessels, will be received free of storage and wharfage to the owners; and from the number of vessels employed, early shipments will be made. Should the business require it, an additional number of vessels will be engaged. All Produce, while here, will be deposited in good warehouses.

JOHN MYERS.
Washington, N. C. Nov. 1, 1830.

$40 Reward for Guy.

GUY is a cooper by trade, he was formerly owned by Joseph Phillips, dec'd, of Edgecombe county; he has been hired by Edwitt Whitehead formerly of Nash county, for the last two or three years, and has a wife at William Bellamy, Sen.'s in Nash county, and it is supposed he is lurking in that neighbourhood. I will give the above reward for the delivery of said negro in Tarborough Jail, or to me in Martin county. If he said Guy is well known in Nash and Edgecombe counties as a cooper.

The "Old Dominion."

THE Subscriber having become interested in the office of the "Old Dominion," respectfully informs those who have hitherto patronized that establishment, and the public generally, that he has undertaken to conduct the publication of that paper, which will be resumed at an early period—probably on Tuesday morning next. He deems it only necessary to say that, under his management, the "Old Dominion," will continue to advocate the cause of the present Administration, and strenuously urge the re-election of Gen. Jackson, as the surest means of perpetuating the liberties of the People, and the best interests of the Government. To this end, he solicits the aid of the friends of the establishment, either original or selected.

A Prospectus will be issued in a few days, when he hopes to meet with such further encouragement from those who are not already its patrons, as will secure him success in the prosecution of labors.
NATH'L O. BLAKE.

HAVING withdrawn entirely from all interest in the Establishment of the "Old Dominion," I beg leave to recommend Mr. Blake to their consideration, and to solicit for him a share of public patronage. As a native of Petersburg, he has some claim upon the friendship of the good people of the town; and from his capacity as a Printer, will no doubt give satisfaction to those who may favor him with their custom.
E. PESCUD.
