

Power of Conscience.—A few days since, two letters were deposited in the post-office of this city, addressed to the partners of a firm which recently transacted business at Smithfield, Johnston county, but a dissolution of which has subsequently taken place. On opening them each envelope was found to contain seven dollars and fifty cents, without a word intimating why the enclosure or from whom it came. There is little doubt however, but that it proceeds from some individual who having defrauded the firm took this method of making restitution.—Raleigh Reg.

Fire.—The store of W. W. Steelman, Esq. in Gates county, with its contents, valued at several thousand dollars, was entirely consumed by fire a few weeks since. There is no doubt of its having been the work of an incendiary.—ib.

FOREIGN.

Late from Europe.—By the ships President at New-York, and Nimrod at Charleston, we have Liverpool dates to the 18th June. We regret to find that the Cotton market was still in a depressed state.

Mr. McLane, late Minister at London, and now Secretary of the Treasury, returned with his family in the President.

POLAND.

The Poles—and they now absorb the main interest of all European arrivals—are still nobly facing their foes. The movement of Skrzynecki, which led to the bloody battle of Ostrolenka, appears to have succeeded in its main object, that of giving support and vigor to the insurrectionary movements in Lithuania, an advantage not too dearly paid perhaps by the loss sustained by the Poles in that battle. On the very day of the combat at Ostrolenka, Gen. Chlapowski, in Lithuania, obtained a victory over a Russian corps opposed to him. The head quarters of the Polish army were at Praga, divided only by the Vistula from Warsaw, with which a bridge connects it. Gen. Diebitsch does not seem to have made any forward movements since the 25th of May. The Poles 100,000 men, concentrated at Praga, determined to save Warsaw, or perish in the attempt.

The London Courier gives the following important article, on the authority of a respectable house in the city:

Memel, June 4.—Letters from Tilsit mention that the Russians, under Gen. Sacken, have been completely beaten, and driven into Prussia. Great apprehensions were entertained that the cholera would be introduced into the Prussian territory by this corps of Russians. A Russian Colonel has arrived at Gambunow with the military chest. The main body of the Russian army is retreating in all directions, followed by the Poles. The insurrection gains ground; and the insurgents have beaten and routed Count Pahlen, and are again at Garstin. Insurrection has broken out in Podolia and Kiow.

FRANCE.

In France, an expedition to the Levant, to act in conjunction with the British expedition, was seriously talked of. Paris had again been disturbed by commotions, which large bodies of the police and military were necessary to suppress. A considerable fall in the French funds, caused doubtless by the disturbance, had occurred. No adequate cause is assigned for these commotions, which indicate undoubtedly much restlessness.

PORTUGAL.

This miserable country seems worse off than ever. Advices to the 4th June from Lisbon, inform us that the French have commenced reprisals and have captured seventeen sail of vessels, under the Portuguese flag.

BELGIUM.

In Belgium, no progress had been made to a settlement of the government. The English and French Ambassadors had left Brussels, an infallible sign that the Congress had refused to comply with the terms which the Conference of London had dictated.

ITALY.

Executions of the Italian patriots had commenced at Modena. The noble victims Manotti and Borelli, (a barrister,) were hanged on the 26th May. More than 1000 persons have been arrested, and 4000, at least, are to be handed over to the Courts.

ENGLAND.

Parliament met on the 14th June. It was opened by commission, His Majesty not having thought fit to appear in person. Mr. Manners Sutton, was, for the sixth time, elected Speaker of the House of Commons, and his election was approved by his majesty. No business of any importance had been taken up, as late as the 17th, nor was it expected much would be transacted, with the exception of the Reform Bill.

We regret to learn, as we do from the London Journal, that an order for 200,000 muskets for the Russians, had been taken up by the consent of the government in England, and that a part of this supply had actually been furnished from the Tower!

SCOTLAND.

The Glasgow Chronicle states that the emigration from the Highlands this year is unprecedented. From three parishes in Argyshire there were about 2000 souls preparing to embark for America, and from Islay 1000. It was generally supposed that there would not be a sufficiency of shipping to take out all this season.

IRELAND.

The Attorney General for Ireland had given notice that the prosecution against Mr. Daniel O'Connell and others had been dropped, in consequence of the expiration of an Act of Parliament under which it was instituted, by the sudden dissolution of the Parliament.

Ireland is in a shocking state with no prospect of relief. The Dublin Evening Post says:—There are not fewer than 150,000 men, women, and children, in a state of actual starvation in the county of Mayo. This, we beg leave to say, is no exaggerated statement. A census has been taken of the parishes and townlands by competent and trustworthy persons, who can depose on oath, if necessary, to the accuracy of the returns. We have seen the frightful list in the hands of a gentleman, himself a landed proprietor, and one of the most active and intelligent of the deputation now in Dublin, Sir Francis Blosse. There is, therefore, no exaggeration. Famine, in the horrible and strict sense of the term, is devouring in a part of the country alone, a population of 150,000 human creatures.

LATER STILL.

The packet ship De Rham, at New York from Havre, furnishes Paris

papers to the 20th June. Hostilities have re-commenced between the Dutch and Belgians. And—

The Journal du Havre of the 21st June says: "We learn by the way of Berlin, that Diebitsch is no longer commander in chief of the Russian army, Paskewitch having taken his place. And we are also informed, via Berlin, that the corps of Sacken and Kerutz has received a complete check in the Palatinate of Augustowa."

†Elder G. Gunter is, by appointment, to preach at the old meeting-house in Tarborough, on Saturday, the 3d of September; the 4th, at Lawrence's meeting-house; 5th, at Shell Bank.—Com.

PREMIUM.

THE publishers of the Saturday Courier grateful for the liberal patronage they have received, and anxious to improve, as far as they possibly can, the character of American literature offer the following premium: ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS to the writer of the best Original Tale, prepared for the Saturday Courier, and presented under the following restrictions and regulations.

All Tales intended to compete for this premium, must be addressed to Woodward & Spragg, Philadelphia, free of postage, on or before the 1st day of December, 1831.

Accompanying each Tale the writer must furnish his or her name, and address, in a separate sealed envelope, which will not be opened except in the case of the successful competitor.

Early in December the Tales presented will be submitted to a committee consisting of the following gentlemen, viz: David Paul Brown, Wm. M. Meredith, John Musgrave, Richard Penn Smith, Morton McMichael, and Charles Alexander, Esqrs. who will award prior to the 1st of January, 1832.

As soon as the award shall be determined, public information of the same will be given, and immediately thereafter the successful candidate may draw upon the publishers for the amount of the premium.

The publication of the Tales will be commenced in January, 1832, and continued at the discretion of the publishers.

Competitors for the premium are requested to use care in the preparation of their manuscripts, as it is very desirable that illegibility may be avoided.

The Saturday Courier is published by Woodward & Spragg, No. 112 Chesnut-street, Philadelphia, at $2 per annum, half yearly in advance. July 12, 1831.
