

termination that it was not expedient to carry into effect the recommendation of the President's Message in relation to that subject. Such was the direct declaration of the Senate, and such the effect of the unanimous vote of the House of Representatives, after passing its declaratory resolutions, to discharge the committee of Foreign Relations from the further consideration of that recommendation.

We hope, however, that the proceedings of the two Houses will not be interpreted, any where, into a disposition to submit quietly to a refusal, by France, to execute the treaty. Such a view of the refusal by Congress now to act upon that hypothesis, would be a great error. Congress have expressed a confidence in the good faith of France. They will not anticipate any necessity for legislation in reference to this business of the treaty; but they will legislate, nevertheless, should it hereafter appear that there is no intention to carry the Treaty into effect. It does not follow, however—Heaven forbid that it should!—that the effect or consequence of that legislation will be War. We hope that evil is at least as far distant from us as the next Presidential Election.—Nat. Int.

The Moorish horses presented by the Emperor of Morocco to the President have been sold. One brought $1205, and the other $860. They are inferior animals, in every respect, to the Turkish horses sent some time ago by the Sultan.

Pennsylvania.—The friends of Messrs. Wolf and Muhlenberg are thrown into collision with each other. The Harrisburg Convention, for nominating a Governor, and Delegates to the National Convention, assembled on the 4th—but not being able to agree on the admission of the disputed Delegates (two sets from some of the counties) they determined on the 6th to dissolve by a vote of 52 to 41, and to call another Convention at Lewiston, on the 6th May. On the next day, the friends of Mr. Wolf in that body, associated themselves with some of the disputed Delegates, and re-organized a Convention, which nominated George Wolf as their candidate, by a vote of 83 to 2. Thus, the friends of Muhlenberg are likely to have a new Convention of their own—and the prospect is, at present, that there will be three candidates out for the Chair—Wolf, Muhlenberg, and Ritner, (nominated by the anti-Masonic Convention.)

On national matters, however, the two Republican Parties move together.—The Wolf Convention unanimously adopted resolutions for selecting and sending Delegates to the National Convention—and instructing the "said Delegates to support Martin Van Buren as the favorite candidate of Pennsylvania, for the office of President of the U. States."—The friends of Muhlenberg are warm and original friends of these measures.—And the "Pennsylvanian," the leading paper of their party, flies his flag with the following inscription:

"For President—Martin Van Buren, subject to the decision of a National Convention. For Governor—Henry A. Muhlenberg, subject to the decision of the regular Democratic State Convention, to be held at Lewiston, May 6th, as recommended by the late convention of the 4th of March."—Richmond Enq.

Fruits of the Season.—We understand that a Lady in Portsmouth was, on Friday last, delivered of four boys, two of which are fine hearty children; the other two were dead. The same lady about 10 months since, was delivered of three boys, none of which lived, making seven children in 10 months! Who, after this, will dare to say that Portsmouth ought not to have a Bank?—Norfolk Beacon.

Distressing Accident.—On Friday last, as a parcel of carpenters were engaged in raising a House for Mr. Waddle Cade, a flaw of wind came and prostrated eleven sets of rafters. Four men were caught beneath them: two of whom, Mr. Hemmingway, the master workman, and a negro man belonging to Mr. Jno. P. Leonard, were so badly hurt that they expired that evening.—This should serve as a warning to carpenters generally.

To Printers.

THE publication of the "North Carolina Spectator and Western Advertiser," and the printing business connected with it, for some time under the Editorial management of Mr. Roswell Elmer, Jr. being about to be relinquished by him, for some other pursuit, it becomes necessary to engage the service of another competent individual, to take charge of the concern.

The Press is an excellent super-royal, cast-iron, Washington or Rust Press, equal to any in the State, to which is attached Composition Rollers and fixtures. The type consists of fonts of Long Primer, 350 lbs; Brevier, 160 lbs; Pica, 60 lbs; Double Small Pica, 50 lbs; together with a complete assortment of Job type, Cuts, Rules, &c. &c. carefully selected and suited to the business of a country printing office, all nearly new and in good condition.

The Spectator has enjoyed a liberal patronage, and has now a quite respectable list of subscribers, and an extensive and profitable circle of Job work.

It is proposed to lease it, for a term of one or more years. To one who combines practicability; a knowledge of printing with capacity for the Editorial management of the concern, this would doubtless be a profitable situation.

It may not be amiss to say, that the political course and principles hitherto supported by the "Spectator" have been those of the "Jefferson school," and it is believed a majority of this community entertaining the same principles, would be more likely to patronize a continuance than a departure from them.

Early application is desirable to G. Walton, Edm. Brian, T. F. Birchett, Thos. Dews, Jr. J. M. D. Carson. Rutherfordton, Feb. 28, 1835.

O Yes! O Yes!!

EVERY man or woman indebted to the Subscriber by open account, are requested to call and settle the same as early as convenient, either by cash or note. The cash would be preferred, but if that cannot be had, will take a note.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber offers for sale her Tract of Land lying in Edgecombe county, commonly called the

Hunge Orchard Plantation,

Containing 329 acres, with an apple orchard on it capable of making 25 or 30 barrels of Brandy. This land lies one mile below the Great Falls Tar River, and adjoins the lands of Charles Harrison, Robert Sorey and others, and has on it the necessary negro houses, barns, &c. A part of this Land is of an excellent quality, and if application is soon made, possession will be given immediately and long credit given if preferred. A further description is deemed unnecessary, as no person will buy without first viewing the Land. Terms made known on application to Jno. J. Bunn.

Land for Sale.

THE Subscriber is anxious to sell his Tract of Land, adjoining the one on which he now lives. It contains 530 acres, some of which is low grounds, the balance piney woods. This Tract has a good dwelling house on it, nearly new, with 4 rooms below and 2 upstairs, and other out houses.

Persons desirous of buying Land low, are requested to call and examine for themselves, as the Subscriber may at all times be found at home, and is determined to sell if he can get any thing over half the value.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Anson Advertiser.

THE subscriber proposes to publish in the Town Wadesborough, Anson County, North Carolina, a weekly paper entitled "The Anson Advertiser."

According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the plan upon which his paper will be conducted. Its columns will be devoted to the cause of Politics, Agriculture, Internal Improvement, Literature and Science in general.

It is the intention of the Editor diligently and fairly to report the passing political and other news of the day, and while he cannot, consistently with his principles, advocate the course pursued by the present administration, he assures the public that he feels every disposition to do full justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties—the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.

The editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and internal improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a large number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has at heart the prosperity of his country. All the most important and interesting proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature will be duly reported, and a portion of the paper will at all times be devoted to polite Literature.

The subscriber is aware of the many difficulties he must encounter in advancing to public favour; relies greatly upon the liberality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise well conducted, and assures his patrons, that no pains shall be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.

TERMS.

The Anson Advertiser will be printed on an imperial sheet at $3 00 per annum in advance, or $3 50 at the end of the year; the first number to issue as soon as Seven Hundred Subscribers are obtained; no subscription will be received for a less period than twelve months; and the paper will not be discontinued until orders are received to that effect, and all arrears paid up.

Advertisements not exceeding 12 lines, inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.

Communications addressed to the editor must be post paid.

Notice.

A BALL will be given at the residence of Col. B. H. BELL, on Thursday evening, the 19th of March next. February 27th, 1835. 9-2

To the Public.

THE Subscriber having purchased the SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST from its late Editor & Proprietor, Mr. JOHN LEGARE, solicits the support of the friends of Agriculture, and of the interests connected with it throughout the Southern States. He has published this work for Mr. Legare from its commencement, in the year 1828, and he is thus particularly acquainted with the mode in which it should be conducted. Its publication will be continued on the same terms and in the same manner as heretofore, with such improvements as his experience may suggest.

As the Subscriber is solicitous to make this Journal the vehicle for disseminating useful information, not only with regard to established systems of Husbandry, but also experimental efforts in Agriculture and Horticulture, he invites free and unrestrained communications from all persons occupied in these pursuits. Let no one imagine that solitary facts or isolated experiments are too trivial to be communicated. All systematic knowledge is but the aggregate of humble particulars; and Science, in every department, is brought to perfection, not through the instrumentality of a single extraordinary mind, but by the contributions of particulars by many individuals, and generally often the lapse of many years. He is desirous, therefore, to have as many facts to record as can be furnished; and from the Planter, who is systematic in his experimental labors, an account of his failures as well as of his successful efforts, will be acceptable. If the last are worthy of being recorded, that they may be imitated, the first merits to be noted in order to be shunned.

The Subscriber hopes that this appeal to the fellow-citizens of the South, will not be in vain. It would be a reproach to our Planters to suffer this periodical to meet the fate of the Southern Review. Of the last it may be justly said, that it was suffered to fall when it was not only rearing for us a well merited fame as a literary people, but it was also vindicating the Southern character and Southern habits from the unjust aspersions which have been so liberally bestowed upon us out of our section of country. The "Southern Agriculturist" in some measure supplies the place of the Southern Review, so far as regards the circumstances last alluded to. It serves as a Register not only of methods of Husbandry, but also of facts relating to our system of Slavery.—The subjects of the discipline, the treatment, the characters of Slaves, are fairly suited to its pages, and constitute topics as interesting and important as any which can engage either our own attention or the attention of those abroad, who feel a legitimate interest in our concerns.

The Subscriber begs leave, in conclusion, to remark that if he had not undertaken to continue the publication of this Periodical, it most probably would have been either removed from our city, or been suspended.—Whether it will be in his power to continue it, will depend not only on the Pecuniary but the Literary contributions of Southern Planters. He confidently now leaves this matter in their hands, feeling a full assurance that there is wanting on the part of our Planters, neither the liberality nor mental energies necessary to sustain the Southern Agriculturist.

A. E. MILLER, Publisher, Charleston, S. C. March, 1835.

Printing neatly executed,

AT THIS OFFICE.

COMPREHENSIVE

Commentary on the Bible.

THE Subscriber having been requested to act as Agent for this highly interesting work, informs the public that the first volume can be seen at his office, where subscriptions will be received. The first volume is a specimen of the execution of the work, editorial and mechanical. It is to contain all that is valuable in the writings of those great lights in the Christian Church, Henry, Scott, Doddridge, Gill, Adam Clark, Patrick, Pool, Lowth, Burder, and others; the whole designed to a digest and combination of the advantages of the best Bible commentaries. On the whole, it is believed all will admit that the work is what it has been pronounced to be—a credit to the country; and the publishers and editors pledge themselves and their characters (and they can do no more) that every effort shall be put forth to make it, both in the literary and mechanical parts, lastingly useful, and worthy a liberal support. But to sustain them in so expensive an enterprise, the low price fixed for the work requires that it should have an extensive sale, and no publisher would feel warranted in prosecuting the work without a large subscription list; and, however unpopular such a course may be in regard to ordinary works, no hesitation is felt in resorting to it in this case, so manifestly necessary and proper. They appeal in confidence to the religious public, and to all, who wish to see it circulate, for their names and patronage.

There is a Baptist edition, differing in no respect from the general edition except on the ordinance of Baptism, in reference to which the Rev. Joseph A. Warner, Editor of the Baptist edition, makes the following remarks, viz: All that was promised in the Baptist edition, as such, was that whatever was found in the work as published for Pædobaptists generally, which did not correspond with the views of Baptists, should be removed, and the matured views of their own best writers substituted. It is confidently believed that no point connected with what is peculiar to the Baptist denomination, has been left unguarded; and when it is considered that on no points but those do Baptists differ from Henry, Scott, Doddridge, &c. there can be scarcely a doubt but that the denomination in general will feel that they have now a Commentary, in the reading of which they are sure to find what will fan the flame of love, and satisfy the appetite for truth, and this without that diminution of their enjoyment with which they were accustomed to meet in reading the authors' arising out of their different views of a Christian ordinance.

Terms.—The work will be comprised in five volumes, averaging not less than 800 pages per volume, royal 8vo handsomely printed on fine paper, and well bound in sheep, and lettered with double titles, at 3 dollars per volume. There will be several engravings, frontispieces, vignette titles, and several neatly engraved maps, with other illustrative wood cuts, &c. Copies bound in extra gilt spring backs, $4.50; plain calf, $3.75.

Young Jack,

THE well known Baker Jack is now in his prime and is not inferior to any, will stand the ensuing season, commencing at home on the 10th of March—on the 15th and 16th at Armstrong's store, near Upper Town Creek meeting house—on the 17th and 18th at Bunn's Store, near the Big Falls of Tar River—on the 19th at Jesse C. Knight's Store—on the 20th, 21st, 22d and 23d, at home, getting round once in every ten days, with the privilege of adding or diminishing a day at any stand—so on till the 10th of July, when the season will end. He will be let to mares at Three Dollars the single leap—Five Dollars the season, and Nine Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 12 1/2 cents to the Groom in every instance. The leap and season money will be due from the end of the season with interest—the insurance as soon as can be ascertained. Mares put to Jack it not mentioned otherwise at the time they are first put, to prevent mistakes will be charged by the season. Great care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no liability for any. A transfer of property forfeits the insurance money. To show that he is a sure foal getter I refer you to the annexed certificates.
