

principle is at stake, and every reason exists that they should think alike.—The opinion and wishes of General Jackson would have great weight with the people of Tennessee, on any subject, and one of the many causes which will induce them to support Judge White is, that he has been a consistent and straightforward supporter of the Administration of him, whom they "have delighted to honor." We trust then that they will still be found together. If, however, we are mistaken, we are certain of one thing, that—much as the people of Tennessee love General Jackson—much as they venerate his name—they will never surrender, even at his dictation, that glorious prize, for which he and they so bravely contended at the battle of New Orleans—THEIR INDEPENDENCE.

From the Raleigh Standard.
Nash County.—At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Nash county, N. C. held at the Court House on Thursday the 17th March, 1835,—on motion of General Henry Blount, the meeting was organized by the appointment of John Arrington, Sn'r Esqr., chairman, and Martin R. Garrott, Esq. secretary. After being conducted to the chair, the chairman briefly stated, and called on Gen'l. H. Blount to explain more fully, the object of the meeting; who, in a speech of considerable length, and in a very full and elaborate manner, expressed his views greatly to the satisfaction of all present; and concluded by a motion that a committee of five be appointed for the purpose of drafting a preamble and resolutions setting forth the sentiments of the meeting in relation to the subject thereof; whereupon Gen'l. H. y. Blount, Sam'l. L. Arrington, and James S. Battle, Esquires, and Dr. Isaac Sessums, and Dr. Richard Short, were appointed; who, after having retired for a short time, returned, and through their chairman, (Gen. Blount,) reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the time is approaching when the people will be called on to elect successors to the present President and Vice President of the U. States; and whereas, it is greatly to be desired that there should be harmony and concert of action among those who have sustained the Administration of Andrew Jackson, and whose object it is to perpetuate the principles upon which it has been conducted; and whereas, if there is a number of candidates and the strength of the Republican party is divided, it is much to be feared that the election will be thrown on the House of Representatives, as has been the case heretofore; that that body by opening the door to fraud and management, may impose upon the country a President who is not the choice of a majority of the people: Therefore,
Resolved, That as a means of uniting the whole strength of the Republican party on one set of candidates, this meeting approves of the Convention proposed to be holden at Baltimore, on the 20th of May next, for the purpose of nominating Candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That this meeting cordially concurs in the suggestions made by the people of the other counties of this Electoral District, and that it will appoint five delegates to meet with said counties, at the Tavern of Henry Simms, Esq. of this county, to elect a delegate or delegates to the Baltimore Convention,—and that this meeting recommend to the delegates of the other counties, Saturday the 11th day of April next, as a time suitable for the meeting of the district Convention.

Whereupon, Gen. Henry Blount, Doctor John Arrington, David Deans, Esq., Dr. Richard Short, and Wm. Bryant, Jr. Esq. were appointed delegates for the county of Nash, with power to fill vacancies.
Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered to the chairman and secretary, for their services; and that its proceedings be signed by them, and published in the Warrenton Reporter, and Raleigh Standard.

After which, on motion of Gen. H. Blount, it was, unanimously.
Resolved, That the sense of this meeting, as the sense of this meeting, that the Hon. Willie P. Mangum, Esq. United States Senator of the State of North Carolina, has grossly misrepresented the citizens thereof, by his condemnatory vote of the President of the United States; and that he has, by refusing to obey the instructions of the Legislature of our State, at the last session thereof, forfeited all claim upon our confidence as a politician.
JOHN ARRINGTON, Ch'n.
MARTIN R. GARROTT, Sec'y.

Memorandum of the early history of Judge White.—Hugh L. White was born October 30th, 1773, in Iredell county, N. C. When about seven or eight years of age, his father moved to Cripple Creek, Wythe County, Virginia, and lived there a few years; from thence moved to the neighborhood of Knoxville, Tennessee. When a mere lad H. L. White was engaged in most of Sevier's campaigns against the Cherokee Indians, and was distinguished for his bravery, hardihood, and sagacity in that partisan warfare. Under the influence of Col. Charles McClung, who had recently come from Pennsylvania, and had married his sister, and observed decided evidence of talent in young White, his father was induced to send him to Pennsylvania to finish his education and study the profession of law. He completed his education at some institution in Philadelphia, where Congress was then in session, and where he then attracted notice, and obtained the friendship of that distinguished patriot and republican, Nathaniel Macon, of North Carolina. After completing his education in Philadelphia he went to Lancaster in Pennsylvania, and studied the profession of law under Mr. Hopkins, then an eminent lawyer of that place.—Knoxville Register.

Distressing Casualty.—It is with sincere regret, we announce the death of Richard Lewis Stevenson, Esq. Clerk of the County Court of Spottsylvania, under circumstances peculiarly distressing.—On Tuesday last, he was walking out, with his rifle, in pursuit of game, when, in crossing a fence, near the Court-house, the load was accidentally discharged into his body. No one was with him at the moment; and, of course, the particulars cannot be known. He was found shortly afterwards, still living, but before medical assistance could be procured, he expired. Mr. Stevenson has been for a number of years Clerk of the County Court, the duties of which he discharged in a most faithful manner. He was deservedly much esteemed and respected by all who knew him, and the melancholy casualty is regretted as the means of depriving the county of a valuably officer, and society of an excellent member.
