School.
A SCHOOL will be commenced by the Subscriber, on Tuesday, the 14th of April, at the school house near the road from Tarboro' to Fayetteville, in the neighborhood of Col. Sharpe, Jesse Knight, Esq. and Mr. John Garrett. Reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar and geography will be taught. Special pains will be taken to give the scholars moral instruction and improve them in their education. Board can be had at the houses of the above named gentlemen for three dollars per month. Tuition will be one dollar a month. As this is a respectable and healthy neighborhood, and it is quite certain that the subscriber will continue the school at least one year, he cannot but think that the present is a favorable opportunity for those who wish to educate their children, or for young gentlemen and ladies who wish to procure an education for themselves. For his skill and competency in teaching he would refer enquirers to the people of the neighborhood, as he has already kept their school one quarter.
J. NORCROSS.

To Printers.
THE publication of the "North Carolina Spectator and Western Advertiser," and the printing business connected with it, for some time under the Editorial management of Mr. Roswell Elmer, Jr. being about to be relinquished by him, for some other pursuit, it becomes necessary to engage the service of another competent individual, to take charge of the concern.
The Press is an excellent super-royal, cast-iron, Washington or Rust Press, equal to any in the State, to which is attached Composition Rollers and fixtures. The type consists of fonts of Long Primer, 350 lbs; Brevier, 160 lbs; Pica, 60 lbs; Double Small Pica, 50 lbs; together with a complete assortment of Job type, Cuts, Rules, &c. &c. carefully selected and suited to the business of a country printing office, all nearly new and in good condition.
The Spectator has enjoyed a liberal patronage, and has now a quite respectable list of subscribers, and an extensive and profitable circle of Job work.
It is proposed to lease it, for a term of one or more years. To one who combines practicability; a knowledge of printing with capacity for the Editorial management of the concern, this would doubtless be a profitable situation.
It may not be amiss to say, that the political course and principles hitherto supported by the "Spectator" have been those of the "Jefferson school," and it is believed a majority of this community entertaining the same principles, would be more likely to patronize a continuance than a departure from them.
Early application is desirable to G. Walton, Edm. Brian, T. F. Birchett, Thos. Devo, Jr. J. M. D. Carson.
Rutherfordton, Feb. 28, 1835.

From the Subscriber's long experience in his business, and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.
ALLEN TISON,
In connexion with this establishment, carries on the Lock & Gunsmith business.
He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

Anson Advertiser.
THE subscriber proposes to publish in the town of Wadesborough, Anson County, North Carolina, a weekly paper entitled "The Anson Advertiser."
According to custom, he proceeds to lay before the public an analysis of the plan upon which his paper will be conducted. Its columns will be devoted to the cause of Politics, Agriculture, Internal Improvement, Literature and Science in general.
It is the intention of the Editor diligently and fairly to report the passing political and other news of the day, and while he cannot, consistently with his principles, advocate the course pursued by the present administration, he assures the public that he feels every disposition to do full justice to its merits. The press will be open to both parties—the Editor will endeavor to adhere strictly to principle and to disregard all party influence.
The editor intends to avail himself of the advantage of many of the best publications on the subjects of agriculture and internal improvement, he of course will be able to select and lay before his readers, a large number of Essays which cannot fail of being interesting to every one who has at heart the prosperity of his country. All the most important and interesting proceedings of Congress and the State Legislature will be duly reported, and a portion of the paper will at all times be devoted to polite Literature.
The subscriber is aware of the many difficulties he must encounter in advancing to public favour; relies greatly upon the liberality always shown by an enlightened public towards enterprise well conducted, and assures his patrons, that no pains shall be wanting on his part to render his paper both a useful and interesting publication.
TERMS.
The Anson Advertiser will be printed on an imperial sheet at $3 00 per annum in advance, or $3 50 at the end of the year; the first number to issue as soon as Seven Hundred Subscribers are obtained; no subscription will be received for a less period than twelve months; and the paper will not be discontinued until orders are received to that effect, and all arrears paid up.
Advertisements not exceeding 12 lines, inserted three times for one dollar, and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion.
Communications addressed to the editor must be post paid.
